THE ATTORNEY GENERAL NEEDS VOLUNTEER MEDIATORS TO HELP CONSUMERS

MEDIATOR TRAINING BEGINS SEPTEMBER 12th, 2005

The Attorney General's Consumer Information & Mediation Service is recruiting new volunteer Consumer Complaint Mediators. Volunteers will mediate consumer complaints over the phone and by mail in the Attorney General's Augusta Office. We will thoroughly train you in consumer law and mediation techniques. You are asked to volunteer approximately six hours a week on a schedule convenient to you. You will be joining our current group of volunteer mediators.

Training for Consumer Complaint Mediators will begin Monday, September12, 2005. We will also train a new class of volunteer mediators in April 2006. If you are interested call Assistant Attorney General James McKenna (207-626-8842) or send an email at jim.mckenna@maine.gov.
