

MAINE'S HIRE-A-VET CAMPAIGN 2017

Needed: School Bus Drivers

50+ Jobs Available Statewide!

FREE school bus driver training classes available at many school districts.

$11-$25 per hour, part-time to full-time, many with benefits.
Pay and benefits vary by school district.

School Bus Drivers' Mission: Safeguard Maine's Communities and Students

Maine Hire-A-Vet 2017 campaign is pleased to announce collaboration with Maine Department of Education's School Transportation. Free training is available for school bus drivers at many schools throughout Maine! Different part-time schedules and benefits are available based on location. Some positions include pay while learning to drive and/or a hiring bonus. The pay range varies by location and can be between $11-$25 per hour for licensed school bus drivers.

If you are interested in transitioning from serving your country to serving and protecting your community and students by becoming a school bus driver, please contact Pat Hinckley.

School bus mechanics are also needed.

For more information, email Maine Department of Education's Pat Hinckley at pat.hinckley@maine.gov

Maine School Transportation information is available at:
www.maine.gov/doe/transportation

For More Information about Maine Hire-A-Vet 2017 email
MaineHireAVet.DOL@maine.gov

MAINE
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Maine Hire-A-Vet Partners: the Maine Department of Labor and its CareerCenters, Easter Seals of Maine, Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, Veterans Inc., VA Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, VA Veterans Homeless Program, Maine Bureau of Veterans Services, Live + Work in Maine, Transition Assistance Advisors and Boots to Roots.

The Maine Department of Labor provides equal opportunity in employment and programs. Auxiliary aids and services are available to individuals with disabilities upon request. Programs are provided as a proud partner of the American Job Center network.