MOOSE PERMIT TRANSFER TO VETERAN FORM

This form is due by July 24, 2024

Permits will be printed and mailed to the hunter approximately 2 weeks prior to the hunt.

Please keep in mind when selecting a hunter that they need to be eligible for the moose hunt.

Eligibility Requirements:

- You must have a letter or documentation from the Veterans Administration specifically stating that applicant is a veteran with a service-connected disability evaluated at 50% or more. NOTE: If applicant already has a Disabled Veteran license from MDIFW please provide a copy.
- Three-year waiting period – After winning a Maine moose hunting permit, you must wait three years to become eligible to win another one (so if you received a permit in 2020, 2021, or 2022, you are not eligible for 2023. This waiting period affects permit holders only. It does not affect sub-permittees or alternate sub-permittees. Also, this restriction does not impact those who have won moose permits through the auction. A person who won an Auction Permit in 2020, 2021, or 2022 is still eligible to receive a Moose Permit in 2023.
- A transferor and a transferee of the permit are subject to the elimination of any accumulated points and will be subject to the 3-year waiting period before they will become eligible to win another moose permit.
