WELCOME TO

CAMP NORTH WOODS

INFORMATION PAGE

OUR MISSION

The Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife is dedicated to providing opportunities to youth in the outdoors, where they can learn lifelong skills and the importance of sustaining Maine's natural resources.

Maine Department of Inland Fisheries & Wildlife

CAMP HIGHLIGHTS

- Sponsored by the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries & Wildlife
- Camp Hosted by The University of Maine 4-H Camp & Learning Center at Bryant Pond
- Week 1: July 15-July 19 · All Boys
- Week 2: July 29–August 2 · All Girls
- Any boy or girl that is at least 8 years old before July 15, 2015 and no older than 12 years old on August 2, 2015 can apply for the lottery
- Lottery cost · One chance for $5 · One entry per child
- If selected camper will be responsible for $400 tuition fee
- Bryant Pond 4-H Camp & Learning Center is ADA compliant
- There will be 96 lottery winners · 48 campers per week
- Lottery winners will be composed of 70% Maine residents & 30% non-residents
- Safe and comfortable learning environment with trained professionals

- Camp instructors will include: Maine Game Wardens, State Biologists, Recreational Safety Coordinators, Information & Education Staff, Bryant Pond 4-H Camp & Learning Center Staff and Maine Outdoor Professionals
- The Saturday of each camp week will be a Family Field Day · Parents can join their child for the day and participate in the outdoor activities · Parents will also be able to stay overnight at camp at an additional cost
- Hands-on instruction and training in the following activities: ATV, Boating, Paddle Sports, Turkey & Deer Hunting, Outdoor Survival, Map & Compass, Life of a Maine Game Warden, Archery, Shotgun, Rifle, Spin Fishing, Fly Fishing, Fly Tying, Trapping & more