RE: Change in requirement for approval to fill vacancies
DATE: July 29, 2015

Since July 1, 2015 I have been reviewing your requests to fill all vacant positions in order to have a better understanding of the volume and types of positions that are being filled.

From this date forward I am only interested in reviewing your requests to fill positions that have been vacant for more than ninety (90) days and any new positions (e.g., those approved in the most recent biennial budget and those you wish to create through reorganization).

Please direct any questions you may have about this process to Human Resources Director Joyce Oreskovich or Chief of Staff John McGough.
