Dear Bob,

I am pleased to announce that after completing our search, MEVA has hired Beth Lorigan as CEO. Beth became interested in the position during her time serving on our board. While it is a loss for our board, we feel she is an excellent hire for CEO. Her experiences serving as Superintendent and Special Education Director bring a wealth of knowledge to the position.

Beth has resigned from the MEVA board. We feel confident that Ginny Smith's strong Maine school leadership knowledge, along with Alan Casavant's background as an educator will continue to guide our board in the area of education, but as we have in the past, we will continuously seek to strengthen our board as we move forward. Attached please find Beth's letter of resignation from the MEVA board.

Best,

Amy
