

Montville Anti-Spraying Ordinance

To see if the Town will vote to ban all spraying within Town Road Right-of-Ways and to request that the State not spray along State maintained roads in Montville, based on increasing evidence that the types of sprays most commonly used for bush control can cause cancer and birth defects in humans.

Enacted at the Montville annual town meeting, March 22, 1980