

Section 16
Water Supply

The proposed project will not require a permanent water supply for continued operation and maintenance activities. Construction contractors will supply temporary service of potable water in bottled water or from a public drinking water supply, as necessary during construction. Construction-related water use will not require withdrawals from regional surface water sources, and the project will not involve on-site subsurface wastewater disposal.