

Section 23
Water Vapor

The proposed project will not produce any water vapor or create any significant air emissions as a consequence of construction or operation of the generator lead transmission line. The project will consequently not change the existing cloud cover or rainfall patterns in the vicinity of the project.