

THE CITIES OF BIDDEFORD AND SACO,
IN COOPERATION WITH YOUR LOCAL HEALTHY MAINE PARTNERSHIP, INVITE YOU TO

Healthy Housing Regulations:

What You as a Landlord Need to Know about State and Federal Requirements for Safe Renovation of Your Multi-Unit Buildings

PLEASE JOIN US, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2009, FROM 2:00PM-3:30PM AT SACO CITY HALL, 300 MAIN ST., FOR PRESENTATIONS FROM EXPERTS INCLUDING:

- Lead: Is it Really that Bad? ~ Deb Kasik, Certified Lead Inspector
- Identifying and Mitigating Your Multi-Unit Lead Problems ~ Kevin Leonard, Community Concepts
- State and Federal Role in Preventing Lead Poisoning ~ Eric Frohberg, Maine Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program, Dept. of Health and Human Services
- Facts and Interpretations of LD 550: An Act to Protect Maine Residents from Home Fires and Carbon Monoxide ~ Richard Taylor, Maine Fire Marshal's Office
- Question and Answers ~ Dick Lambert, City of Saco and Roby Fecteau, City of Biddeford

Register for this FREE forum today by contacting Donna at Coastal Healthy Communities Coalition, (207) 602-3504

- No attendance fee • Free refreshments •
- Discover ways to save money and protect the health of your tenants •
- Learn what you need to know about new government regulations before renovating your property •

FIRST 50 REGISTRANTS WILL RECEIVE A
$20 LOWE'S GIFT CERTIFICATE