Each director shall be elected at large by all of the voters of RSU 01 in accordance with procedures of 20-A §1472(1)(C), subject to the paragraph below.

* The seven (7) director positions to be elected at large shall be subject to the following residency requirements. Three of the director positions may be filled by a person with a voting residency in any of the member towns of the regional school unit without a required voting residence in any particular member municipality; one director position must be filled by a person with a voting residence in Arrowsic, one by a person with a voting residence in Bath, one by a person with a voting residence in Phippsburg, and one by a person with a voting residence in Woolwich. For the municipal-residence positions, the secretary of the regional school unit shall verify that the registrar of voters of the proper municipality has certified that a candidate has a voting residence in that municipality prior to including the candidate on a ballot for a municipal-residence position.
