

Commission to Develop a Strategic Priorities Plan for Maine's Young Children

The Commission is charged with recommending a 3-year plan for strategic investment in young children. The plan will identify:

- Recommended investments in young children

- Prioritization of these investments

- Cost of recommended investments each year

- Expected outcomes for children & economy

- Timeline for expected outcomes

- Funding sources