OLD ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

Augusta, Kennebec, Maine

Winthrop Street, Augusta, Maine. Copied in 1996, by Sylvia P. Fitts. There are five cemeteries located in the approximate location between Old St. Mary's and the Augusta Airport or Camp Keys at the top of the hill. Proceeding up Winthrop Street in a north westerly direction, 5 tenths of a mile from the intersection of State and Winthrop Streets, it is the first two roadways, or gate entrances you see on your left. The second roadway is identified by two large granite posts and this roadway forms the north boundry of Old St. Mary's and continues to Green Street. Everything to your left looking south east is Old St. Mary's cemetery. To your right of this roadway is Forest Grove Cemetery, not to be confused as it is a completely separate cemetery. The numbers found in brackets (for example, [410]) are the lot numbers.

FOREST GROVE CEMETERY

Augusta, Kennebec, Maine

Winthrop Street, Augusta, Maine. Copied by Sylvia P. Fitts 1996/1997. There are five cemeteries located in the approximate location between Old St. Mary's Cemetery and the Augusta Airport or Camp Keys at the top of the hill. Proceeding up Winthrop Street in a north westerly direction, 5 tenths of a mile from the intersection of State and Winthrop Streets, it starts from the second roadway, or gate entrances you see on your left. This roadway is identified by two large granite posts and forms the south boundary of Forest Grove. It continues through to Green Street. Everything looking north west is Forest Grove Cemetery. Everything looking south east is Old St. Mary's Cemetery, not to be confused as it is a completely separate cemetery. Numbers or letters in brackets (for example [133]) are the lot numbers.

THE STATE OF MAINE BURYING GROUND

Augusta, Kennebec, Maine

Taken from "Sprague's Journal of Maine History, Vol. 8. In 1842 the legislature, by a resolve, appropriated three hundred dollars to erect "suitable and durable monuments" over the graves of persons interred on the public grounds and authorized the selection of a portion of the grounds facing the capital for the interment of "public officers dying at the seat of government". A tomb was constructed over the door of which is engraved on a marble slab: "Erected By The State - 1942 - " It is situated in the state house park opposite the state home at Augusta at the extreme eastern end and barely visible from the street. There are only four men who were buried here and there have been no interments since 1842.

Delesdernier, William of Baileyville, d. 16 Jan 1842, aged 49 yrs. [b. in Eastport, son of Lt. In 1810 he served Kennebec county as a member of the Mass. Senate. [m. Lucy Jones, who is buried in the Howard Cemetery, Winslow, Me.]

Lincoln, Enoch, of Portland, "Governor of Maine", d. 8 Oct 1829, aged 40 yrs. [He was the third governor of Maine and was from a family of governors. He was twice re-elected and died in office 8 Oct 1829 and was buried in the state part.]

Waterhouse, Charles, of China, Clerk, d. 1 March 1839, aged 38 yrs. [He was first elected clerk of the House of Representatives in 1837, when the record gives his residence as Augusta.
