MORGRIDGE CEMETERY

Litchfield, Kennebec, Maine

Upper Pond Road, Litchfield, Maine, copied by Ed Avis in 1998. This cemetery is located on private property owned by Ed Avis of Upper Pond Road, Litchfield, Maine. All the stones in the cemetery had been toppled and completely buried when Mr. Avis found the cemetery which had been described in old deeds to the land. At the present time he has uncovered four inscribed stones and feels that three or four large fieldstones without inscriptions also mark other graves.

PATTEN FAMILY TOMB
Litchfield, Kennebec, Maine

Adams Road, Litchfield, Maine. Copied by Geneva Padham, 1998. This tomb is located on private property on the Adams Road in Litchfield, Maine. It is just a short distance in on the left side of this road. The tomb sets back from the road in a wooded area and is difficult to see unless you are specifically looking for it.

Patten, Capt. Robert, d. 7 Dec 1842 aged 73 yrs. [Inscription on tomb says The Family Tomb of Capt. Robert Patten, indicating other family members may be in the tomb as well].

PURGATORY BURIAL GROUND

Litchfield, Kennebec, Maine

copied by Geneva and Elwood Padham in 1998. This cemetery is located in Litchfield, Maine in the village of Litchfield. It is on private property and up a slope behind the house with an ivy covered stone front. It is rather difficult to find as the area is quite heavily wooded. Many tree branches, as well as some trees, fell during the ice storm of 1998, making the walk to the cemetery difficult to negotiate. The cemetery is also surrounded by a rock wall fence with no entrance. Readable stones are scattered about and most are in poor condition with the exception of the Wilson monument which is quite impressive. The easiest route to the village of Litchfield is to take the Pond Rd. at the left of Daggett's Store in the center of Manchester. This goes straight through to Litchfield village. The house with the stone front is on the right as you enter the village.

Davis, Hamden, d. 21 Sep 1849 aged 36 yrs. 4 mos.

FIFIELD CEMETERY

Manchester, Kennebec, Maine

Copied March 1972. MacDonald & Jackson. Leaving Manchester, going west on Rt. #202, then turning onto Rt. #17 going NW; proceed 1¼ mile and just before the beginning of a hill take the road off to the right and proceed approx. 1 mile. Then there is a dirt road off to the right again. Go to the end (3/10th mile) on this dirt road. There will be a house on the left. Just before the house there is a stone wall going north, but parallel with the house. Follow this stone wall approx. 500' on to the very crest of a slight hill and just over the stone wall on the house side is the cemetery.

BENSON FAMILY CEMETERY

Manchester, Kennebec, Maine

compiled 1993. In the 1700s and 1800s a family of Bensons settled in the area before Manchester became a town. This was their burial grounds, now surrounded by woods and very close to the road. The old iron fence no longer stands and a lot of stones are gone. However in the past few years the grounds have been cared for. Location: take Pond Road off Rt. 202 next to Daggetts Store by the signal lights. Quite a few miles south take a left before the Cobbossee Stream Bridge. Take next right which is the Benson Road. The cemetery is about one mile on the left near the road and surrounded by woods with only a few stones standing.

Gray Cemetery

Monmouth, Kennebec, Maine

The Gray Cemetery consists of a scattering of field stone markers situated in the woods on what was the farm of one of Monmouth's earliest settlers, Thomas Gray. None of the stones discovered to date is inscribed, but the arrangement appears to indicate family groups.

"And we look back through the gloom of a century, and watch them with peculiar interest as they gather on the little plot then sanctified as the home of the dead, but now, alas! desecrated and put to a common use, to place in its narrow tenement the first form the dark fiend has torn from among them -- the child of Thomas Gray. The place where this child was buried was set apart for, and used for many years as, a burying ground. In it rest the remains of Thomas Gray and wife, and many others of the pioneers; in number between twenty and thirty.:

Harry Hayman Cochrane, History of Monmouth and Wales, 1894, P. 37.

Haynes – Hovey Cemetery

Mount Vernon, Kennebec, Maine

Lat: 44° 30' 18"N, Lon: 69° 58' 39"W

Cemetery is located off old carriage road recently named Lovers Lane, on the road between the village to Watson Pond Rd. It is one quarter mile in on the right in the woods. Hard to see because of it's unkept state. Small round, stonewalled, with two iron chains one above the other across the entrance. The whole thing, rocks, chains, can be easily stepped over. It sets in a direct line in back of some ones home, but ownership unclear. Please ask permission before seeking, easy to get lost. There is also one spot outside of the ring that looks to be a burial of some type, but is unmarked, just some rocks placed as if over a grave. The unkept state of this cemetery leads me to believe that no one has been there for many years.

Haynes

Lydia,

b. Apr 28, 1779, d. Jul 19, 1852, w/o Rev. John Haynes, 'My flesh shall rest in hope, Hope looks beyond the bonds of time, more there but hard to read', "L.H." white marble footstone, very small and directly in back of Lydia Haynes

Rev. John

b. Feb 17, 1776, d. Dec 22, 1862, Inscription hard to read because of condition, Stone once very pretty slate, "A.H." on slate footstone, very small and directly in back of the Rev. Haynes Hill, Nathaniel, b. Oct 1, 1770 Billerica, Mass, d. Dec 10, 1858, A once beautiful white marble stone, knocked flat, the base is somewhat crumbly

Hovey

Anna

d. Jul 11, 1834, wife of John Hovey, Esq, 'Her memory lives enshrined in all our hearts, Her deeds of love are registerd in heaven, And these her lasting moments remain, which ceaseless ages never can destroy', The stone is made of slate, very elaborate, with palm trees at the top, I found this worth pondering as it stands amongst the tall pines, Very beautiful

John, Esq.
elaborately

died Apr 19, 1851, age 88yr, Stone tipped forward making bottom hard to read. Very carved, with palm trees at the top, made of slate

THE OLD CEMETERY

Oakland, Maine

Copied Summer 1971. Located on the old Belgrade Road (Rt. #11); the road now being a dead end road, but at one time continued on towards Oakland over the railroad tracks and coming out approx. where the Lakeside Cemetery is now located. Located between the railroad tracks and the Belgrade Road (Rt. #11). Condition very good.

OLD EAST PITTSTON CEMETERY

East Pittston, Kennebec, Maine

Copied by Mrs. Everett L. Thompson, Dracut, Mass. in 1970. From the Randolph side of the Gardiner/ Randolph bridge take Route 27, heading towards Wiscasset, about 1.3 miles. Turn left onto Route 194 and go about 4½ miles past the Fairgrounds but before reaching the Mast Road. On the left is a long driveway with a mailbox bearing the name of Trask. Go past the house about 100 feet and the cemetery, which is overgrown, is located on the right in the woods with a rock wall around it. There is poison ivy in the area so boots are recommended. Be sure to ask permission of the property owner before heading out to the cemetery.

HUNTOON CEMETERY

Readfield, Kennebec, Maine

Copied Spring 1972 by Mrs. Frieda Buckley, Sabattus, Me. The easiest access to this cemetery is from the road leading from Kents Hill to North Wayne; walking approximately one-half mile through the woods; nearer North Wayne Village end of this road. Peter Huntoon deeded this cemetery to the Town in 1835 for a "burial place" this cemetery is overgrown with trees; fence partly down; a few stones overturned, probably broken by fallen trees. It is one-half mile or more walk through the woods road to locate it; there is a tomb in the cemetery.

CLARK CEMETERY

Sidney, Kennebec, Maine

Go north on Rt. 104 from Augusta to Sidney. After the Augusta-Sidney line drive about 2 miles until you find a very large poultry house on the left. Directly across from that is a ravine and heavily wooded. Follow along the right side of this wooded ravine about 200'. The cemetery is hard to see as it is all grown up to bushes and all the stones are on the ground in poor condition. Copied in 1973.

FIELD CEMETERY

Sidney, Kennebec, Maine

Copied by Elwood & Geneva Padham in 1998. This cemetery is located off the Middle Rd. in Sidney, Maine. By taking the Lyons Road exit off Interstate 95 and following it to the end, you will come to the Middle Rd. Turn right at this intersection, Approximately a quarter mile from here and on the left, there is a field road leading to the cemetery which is a short distance in. It cannot be seen from the main road, however. Many of the stones in the cemetery are in poor condition. Many have fallen over; some are even buried in several inches of grass, weeds and soil. Watch out for poison ivy when you go to this cemetery.

PLAINS CEMETERY

Sidney, Kennebec, Maine

Located about 1 mile on Rt. 104 going north from Augusta to Sidney. A dirt road will take you to a very large gravel pit. Park the car in the pit and climb up a bank then walk south along the Kennebec River about 3/10 mile. This cemetery is grown up with trees and in very poor condition. Copied in 1972.

Milliner, Elizabeth, d. [--?] 66 yrs.

[A monument dated 1908 "In memory of the first settlers of Sidney, Maine".]

[According to the History of Kennebec County written in 1898 "there are over 100 first settlers believed to be buried here."]

CROSS HILL CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located on the west side of the Cross Hill Road, 4 miles south of the intersection of Pope Avenue, Taber Hill Road and Cross Hill Road (McCoy's Crossing, so called). Originally copied by Norman E. Fossett of Vassalboro in 1957-58. Checked, corrected and updated October 27 and 28, 1994 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith and Betty Taylor, all of Vassalboro. In several cases the recheck of the inscriptions in 1994 revealed stones which could not be entirely read, either because the stones have settled lower into the ground or possibly because some grading has been done in the cemetery, thus burying part of the inscriptions. In such instances, reliance has been placed on Fossett's 1957-58 data. An example would be: "Betsey, wife of Wm. Percival, d. Oct 13 1858 [age 73 - below ground in 1994]". This means the words "age 73" came from Fossett's compilation but could not be readily checked in 1994. Undoubtedly if one were willing to dig into the ground this information could be exposed and confirmed. Some stones in this cemetery, dating back about 150 years, are quite difficult to read and in another 25-50 years may well be indecipherable.

CROWELL HILL ROAD CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located in the woods, under some pine trees, on the west side of the Crowell Hill Road. Cemetery is 1.3 miles from the intersection of Rt. 32 and the Nelson Road. Copied 1957-58 by Norman E. Fossett of Vassalboro. Re-checked in 1992 by Betty Taylor and Mildred Harris. Re-checked 26 October 1995 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith and Betty Taylor of Vassalboro.

Weeks, Phineas, d. 28 Jan 1844 aged 83 yrs.

Jane, his wife, d. 2 Feb 1844 aged 88 yrs.

Farris, Mrs. Elisabeth, wife of William Farris, d. 25 June 1807 aged 55 yrs. [This slate stone, listed by Norman E. Fossett in 1957-58 and in good condition in 1992 is now broken and only the lower part of the stone remains. The top of the stone, which contained the inscription, could not be found in 1995.]

[Note: In the Fall of 1997, the Weeks stone (both names are on one stone) was removed to the Center Vassalboro Baptist Cemetery, the stone being set next to that of Thomas Clark. The bottom of the Farris stone (the top of which cannot be found) was removed to the Vassalboro Historical Society Museum. There are, therefore, no stones now in the Crowell Hill Road Cemetery].

DOE CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located west of Old Rt. 201, North of Getchell's Corner, on the property now (1995) owned by Rhaeto and Annabelle Pfister. This was originally a Doe property, then was owned for many years by Miss Nettie Burleigh, then later was owned by Mr. and Mrs. David Hilton. Cemetery copied several years ago by Elisia Holway Burleigh, then of Vassalboro. Checked, corrected and updated 1995 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith, Betty Taylor and Annabelle Pfister.

Barlow, G. Alice Manson, 1885-1971 [Metal marker also on the grave reads "Georgia A. Barlow"] Mrs. Hilton told Betty Taylor that only the ashes are buried here. Mrs. Hilton was told that this woman was a descendant of one of the original settlers on this farm and lived in the Hilton house until she was about 1 year old.

EAST VASSALBORO FRIENDS CEMETERY

East Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located behind the Friends Meeting House, East Vassalboro. Copied by Jessica J. Haskell, Ella M. Hewins and Georgianna Lilly of the Mary Kelton Chapter of the DAR, probably in 1930, when the same three people copied the East Vassalboro Methodist Cemetery. Checked, corrected and updated on October 18 and 27, 1994 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith and Betty Taylor, all of Vassalboro. In many stones in this cemetery the Quaker style of dating is used. In such cases we have listed the death date in the conventional manner, followed by the Quaker style date in parentheses.

MORGAN CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Norman Fossett copied two stones from this old cemetery in the very late 1950s or early 1960s and described the location and stones as follows: east of U.S. Rt. 201, near the Winslow line, there is the remains of an old burial ground It is due south of a farm pond on the property of Mr. Caron. The burials are just over the fence on property owned by Dr. Pomerleau. There is evidence of several graves enclosed by the ruins of a stone wall. There are scattered broken pieces of slate which were probably gravestones at one time. There are only two visible and legible slate stones. These are broken off at the base and may, or may not, be near their original positions. The inscriptions on these two are as follows:

Morgan, William H., son of Calvin & Sally Morgan, d. 4 July 1842.
Elizabeth, dau. of Calvin & Sally Morgan, d. 7 Feb 1837 aged 14 yrs.

[The cemetery was re-checked by Julie Rowe and Russell Smith on 26 Oct. 1995 and at that time they could only find the stone for Elizabeth, together with a footstone for the same lettered "E. M."].

NELSON ROAD CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located near the south end of the Nelson Road, .8 miles from old Rt. 3. Copied by Norman E. Fossett 1957-58; checked in November 1994 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith, and Betty Taylor, all of Vassalboro.

OAK GROVE CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located on the Oak Grove Road, just off Rt. 201, beside the Oak Grove Chapel. Originally copied in 1957-58 by Norman E. Fossett of Vassalboro. Checked in the late 1970s by Betty Taylor of Vassalboro and Kay Jackson of China, who found five stones (four of them field stones with data on them) which Fossett had not listed. Re-checked, corrected and updated 13 Oct 1994 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith and Betty Taylor, assisted by Norman Rowe Jr., all of Vassalboro. Many of the people buried in this cemetery were Quakers, and their death dates are expressed in the Quaker style of dating. In such cases the death information is first listed in the conventional way, followed by the Quaker date in parentheses. For example: William Frye, d. 24 April 1872, aged 82 yrs. (4 mo. 24, 1872).

WEEKS FAMILY CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located west of Route 201, just north of the Augusta/Vassalboro line, behind the Wyman & Simpson Company building. There is a wrought-iron fence, in a state of considerable disrepair around the cemetery. There are two elaborate gates to the cemetery. One gate reads "Daniel H. Weeks/ 1878" and the other reads "James P. Weeks/ 1878". Copied 1957-58 by Norman E. Fossett of Vassalboro. Checked, corrected and updated 7 Sep 1995 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith and Betty Taylor, all of Vassalboro.

Weeks, Thomas, 1799-1885.

WHITEHOUSE CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located beside Belfast Road, Old Rt. 3. This area was once known as Whitehouse Corner, South Vassalboro. Approximately across from the entrance to the State picnic and rest area on Three Mile Pond Cemetery copied by Norman E. Fossett of Vassalboro, 1957-58; checked and updated as of November 1994 by Julie Rowe, Russell H. Smith and Betty Taylor all of Vassalboro.

Whitehouse, J. R., d. 16 April 1887 aged 80 yrs.
Hannah B., his wife, d. 29 Nov 1876 aged 68 yrs.
Oliver P. Whitehouse, d. 31 Oct 1869 aged 30 yrs.

WIGGIN CEMETERY

Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine

Located on the west side of the Webber Pond Road, 1.3 miles south of the intersection of Pope Avenue, Bog Road and Webber Pond Road. The single stone in this cemetery is in the woods, but as of September 1995 was visible from the road. The cemetery was copied in 1957-58 by Norman E. Fossett of Vassalboro, and was checked September 1995 by Julie Rowe, Russell Smith and Betty Taylor, all of Vassalboro. In Fossett's cemetery inscription the location of this little cemetery differs considerably from the location as given above. The difference is due to the fact that in the years since Fossett did his work the road has been straightened and changed. This cemetery is, as of 1995, much easier to reach than it was in 1957-58.

Wiggin, Benn B., youngest son of J. & L. Wiggin, d. 5 Sep 1853 aged 2 yrs.

WILLIAMS CEMETERY

St FRANCIS CATHOLIC CEMETERY

Waterville, Kennebec, Maine

(formerly known as St Francis DeSales Cemetery), Grove Street, Waterville, Maine. The cemetery is located on Grove Street in Waterville. To access it from US 95, travel southeast on Kennedy Memorial Drive about 3 miles to the Messalonskee Bridge and the intersection of US Route 137. Care must be taken for the entrance to Grove Street is almost immediately on the left after turning on to Route 137. On Grove Street it is only 500 feet to the entrance designated by a large stone marker. This cemetery has not been inscribed by MOCA although there are records available at the caretakers office located on the grounds. Take the entrance road, following it about 300 feet to a small stone building on the right. The hours are Monday-Friday 7a.m. to 3p.m. If there is no one available at the office, you are directed to locate the keeper working somewhere on the grounds. The records are most complete with surnames, dates and the owner of the lot. The staff is most helpful.

PINE GROVE CEMETERY

Waterville, Kennebec, Maine

(Pine Grove shares area with St Francis DeSales Cemetery), Grove Street, Waterville, Maine, 1984. A section of this cemetery was copied in 1973 by members of the Maine Old Cemetery Asso. [MOCA]; Madeline MacDonald of Gardiner, Betty Taylor of East Vassalboro, Irene Russell of Winslow, Kay Jackson of China, Me., and finally finished in 1984 by Irene Russell and Kay Jackson. Some information was obtained from the Reddington Funeral Home. The cemetery is located on Grove Street in Waterville. To access it from US 95, travel southeast on Kennedy Memorial Drive about 3 miles to the Messalonskee Bridge and the intersection of US Route 137. Care must be taken for the entrance to Grove Street is almost immediately on the left after turning on to Route 137. On Grove Street it is only 1,000 feet to the entrance beyond the entrance to St Francis Catholic Cemetery. There are also records available at the caretakers office located on the grounds. Take the entrance road, following it about 300 feet to a small stone building on the right. The hours are Monday-Friday 7a.m. to 3p.m. If there is no one available at the office, you are directed to locate the keeper working somewhere on the grounds. The records are most complete with surnames, dates and the owner of the lot. The staff is most helpful. This area, although it looks like one cemetery is really two. The St Francis Catholic Grove Cemetery is the newer section to the west.

98-unknown John

99-unknown Marie-Anne

(The above two stones are co-located and are probably children, likely a brother and sister)(Children of Pierre-Aug. Poulin & Emma Mercier??) (No other inscriptions on these gravemarkers)

NOTE: Various small "foot stones" are located throughout the cemetery. Examples of this are "RD" "MD" "MGB" etc. These are the initials of various persons buried in those locations and are often co-located with the larger tombstones.

There are some 226 identified persons in the Halde Cemetery according to the gravestones found during these inventories. This number does not include the persons who are buried in the lots such as #18 (Champagne), #58c (Loubier), #68b (Pooler), and #97 (Tremblay-Foster-Pooler) and others. There are also numerous depressions in the ground which have no gravestones, but are clearly grave sites (by their dimension and general orientation with the other marked graves). There are also a number of iron crosses and other large wooden markers (names are now illegible) which indicate persons are buried at those locations. However, it is also common knowledge that some families (e.g. the St-Amand family - supposedly were in the area now outlined as a rectangular pit in quadrant A) had their deceased relatives re-interred at the St. Francis cemetery after it was evident no organization was taking proper care of this cemetery a few years after the new cemetery on Grove St. was opened (Sep. 1898). From the St. Francis de Sales Death Register (beginning in 1891), and the Immaculate Heart of Mary (Fairfield) death records, it is further clear that more than 650 persons and perhaps even more than 1,000 were buried at this cemetery during the 5-plus decades of its use. A number of gravestones were later taken by family members and placed on their new lots at the St. Francis Cemetery or at the Catholic Cemetery in Fairfield. Also, many gravesites (particularly those of infants and young children) most likely had only wooden-type markers which have long ago deteriorated. Some gravestones are probably still buried and are yet to be found.

DRUMMOND CEMETERY

Winslow, Kennebec, Maine

US Route 201, Winslow, Maine. The cemetery is on US Route 201, .06 miles from the intersection of Routes 201 and 137 in Winslow. Leaving Winslow, heading south, it would be approximately 3 miles out of town, toward Augusta. Care must be taken to locate two white homes on the right with what appears to be one common driveway. This driveway is also the entrance road leading to the Drummond Cemetery which is in about 800 feet from the highway. If you pass this point, you proceed down a steep hill to Chaffee brook and you have gone too far. Copied in 1970/71.

RICHARDSON CEMETERY

Winslow, Kennebec, Maine

Copied in 1970. At the junction of Rt. #201 and #32, there is, or was a cemetery, high on a knoll. The land was bought in the latter part of the 1700's of Silas Barron by Andrew Richardson of "Hancock Plantation". The old wall map of "Kennebec Co., 1859" and the "Kennebec Atlas, 1879" indicate a cemetery at that time; only one stone exists. It is believed that perhaps Lemuel Paine was once buried here, later removed to the Howard Cemetery, as were other members of the Paine family.

One stone remains, that of Andrew Richardson; his wife "Hannah", d. in Jan 1811; no stone can be found.

He was the first captain of the militia in Winslow and was elected selectman in the years 1809 and 1810; he died in 10 Jan 1818; Here lies: "Capt. Andrew Richardson, Mass Militia".

Note of Jonathan D. McKallip:

The headstone of Andrew Richardson [1760-1818], a Revolutionary veteran, was at one time in the Richardson Cemetery in Winslow, ME. The cemetery has long been "dug under" due to a housing development. Richardson's stone was used for a time as a doorstep by the owner of the land My grandmother, Florence Norton Smiley of Winslow, great great granddaughter of Richardson, finally got the man to release the stone to her custody. On 22 May 1977, my father [Richard I. McKallip] and I re-set the stone on the Richardson lot in the cemetery on Route 100 in Benton, ME. This lot contains the remains of the first Andrew Richardson's son and family. Richardson was active in the life of early Benton and Clinton.

MORRILL CEMETERY

Winslow, Kennebec, Maine

Located approximately one-quarter of a mile on the Morrill Road going North - on the West side of the road approximately 300 yds from the road is a small private cemetery which is enclosed with a wire fence. It is 16' x 16'. There is only one stone that is standing [1970]:

Morrill, Mercy L., wife of Samuel Morrill, d. 13 June 1863, aged 57 yrs. 8 das.

[With a little research it was found that Samuel Morrill, Jr. lived here at one time. He was b. 1800, d. 11 Jan 1878, aged 78 yrs. 5 mos.; married in 1827, Mercy L. Wiggins of China, Me. [b. 1806, d. 13 June 1863, aged 57 yrs. 8 das.]

World War Memorial Tablet. [The first one of the kind in U.S.].

Beneath this tablet reposes a bronze casket containing the soil of France taken from graves of our American boys in the cemetery in Belleau Woods and replaced by soil taken from this cemetery and carried to France for that purpose 21 Sep 1927. Forever bespeaking, that wider patriotism which says, "My country and yours for the peace of mankind."

1769 Wyman Cemetery

On an elevated spur of ground extending to the "Great Pond," situated nearly opposite the place where recently Thomas H. White lived, once stood a log house supposed to have been the first home of Mr. Wyman. Not far distant, near the shore of the pond and nearly in the rear of the dwelling of Willis H. Mace, was a burial place in the early days. Many years ago the mounds were plainly visible and were marked at head and foot by field-stones. No record, no tradition of the origin of this burial place has come down to the present generation. Hannah Wyman died April 24th, 1769, and here undoubtedly her father laid the remains to final rest on his own land to be followed in few years by others of his own family and by the bodies of deceased neighbors. ...

Mr. Benjamin added in a footnote that he visited this spot April 1897 and found that the graves were from four to six rods from the pond. "The ground is pasture, has never been ploughed and place of six graves can be seen faintly". Stackpole's History of Winthrop 1925.

1770 Metcalf Cemetery

The second death recorded is that of Abigail, only child of Stephen Pullen, who died 22 February 1770. She was buried on the land of her father, and this was the first interment in what is now the Metcalf Cemetery.

The lot offered by Mr. Pullen in 1771 and accepted by the town, it will be remembered, was bounded on the south by the County Road. Several years prior to 1796 Mr. Pullen had sold from it two house lots adjoining the County Road and they were now occupied by dwellings. To secure the desired acre the boundary lines were moved towards the north and established as found at the present day. A considerable part of this lot is not available for burial purposes on account of ledge. The lot is known as the "Metcalf Cemetery", taking its name from Dea. Joseph Metcalf whose house lot adjoined. Stackpole's History of Winthrop 1925.

1771 Village Cemetery (Maple Cemetery)

The third person to die in Winthrop was Susannah, daughter of John Chandler, who departed 7 Jan. 1771. Her body was buried on the land of her father in what is now known as the "Village Cemetery".

The "Village Cemetery," sometimes called "Maple Cemetery," was all a part of Mr. Chandler's lot. It originally contained one acre, but it has been enlarged three times by subsequent purchases. Stackpole's History of Winthrop 1925.

Fairbanks Cemetery (Lake View Cemetery)

The "Fairbanks Cemetery" now sometimes called Lake View Cemetery, was purchased of Benjamin Fairbanks. It contained only half an acre and was the westerly part of the present cemetery. The consideration named in the deed is two dollars. The deed contains this singular reservation, "Reserving, however, the privilege of feeding forever said land with such cattle as will not hurt the same for a burial place." The town engaged to keep the place forever suitably fenced. A considerable part of this ground is useless for burials on account of ledge, and another portion is unfit by reason of excessive moisture. The cemetery has been enlarged twice. Stackpole's History of Winthrop 1925.

1809 Glenside Cemetery (Haskell Cemetery)

At a town meeting held 1 May 1809 it was voted "to accept of a lot of land given to the town by Mr. Josiah Bacon for the purpose of a Burying Ground on the conditons mentioned in hiis Deed." This is known as the Haskell Cemetery, the name now changng to Glenside Cemetery. It has been enlarged twice. Why not call it the Bacon Cemetery and so honor the original donor? Stackpole's History of Winthrop 1925.

1824 East Winthrop Cemetery

The land for the cemetery at East Winthrop was bought of William Richards, and he was the first one to be buried there, in 1824. Stackpole's History of Winthrop 1925.
