BROWN CEMETERY

Benton, Kennebec. Maine

Copied November 1972 by Mrs. Irene Russell & Kay Jackson. As you leave the Seabasticook Bridge going east, take the road leading to Albion; approx. 2¼ miles out bear right at the sign "East Benton", proceed on approx. 1 mile; just after a 90o bend in the road there is a field, then a house. Drive into the driveway - it is also the road leading to the cemetery.

BULLEN CEMETERY
Chelsea, Kennebec, Maine

Copied Spring 1972 by MacDonald & Jackson. Cemetery is located on Rt. #27; going south, on the left hand side of the road, approx. 2¼ miles from the town line of Augusta/ Chelsea in a stand of pines on a curve in the road.

Bullen, Samuel, who d. 10 Nov 1810, aged 76 yrs. [Revolutionary Soldier].
Mrs. Anna, his wife, d. 2 April 1831, aged 94 yrs.

[This cemetery appears to be approx. 80' x 150' in area; it is a large mound with tall pines; surrounded by lower fields. There is still standing six granite posts approx. 50' away from the two slate stones above - no other stones can be found. It is believed that at one time there were more stones standing - now perhaps have sunken out of sight.]

Christ Church Cenotaphs Gardiner, Kennebec, Maine

CENOTAPH A. Cemented into the wall of Christ Church, on the right of the chancel, is the cenotaph which was erected to Dr. Gardiner's memory after his pious wishes had been duly carried out. It is of black marble, cut in three painted arches, and bears in letters of gold the Latin inscription, composed by the Rev. J.S.J. Gardiner:

“Sacrum Memoriae, Silvestris Gardiner, Qui natus, haud obscuro genere, in insula Rhodi, Studuit Parisiis, Et Bostoniae diu medicinam feliciter Exercuit. Postquam satis opum paravisset, Navavit operam ad domandam ornandamque, Hanc orientalem regionem, tunc incultam. Hic sylvas late patentem evertit, molas omnigenas

“Ædificavit, omnia rura permultis tuguriis ornavit, Templum Deo erexit, Atque haec loca habitantibus pater-patriae dici Profecto meruit. Vir acerrimo ingenio; medicus sciens, Maritus fidelis, pius in Liberos, In obeundis negotiis vigilans, sagax, indefessus, Integer vitae, in sacris literis doctus, Christianae fidei omnino addictus, Ecclesiae Anglicanae observantissimus, Mortuus est in insula Rhodi, Anno Domini MDCCLXXXVI, aetatis LXXIX. Ut viri de ecclesia deque Republica optime meriti, Memoriam commendaret posteris, suaeque insuper, Erga avum venerandum pietatis monumentus extaret, Honorarium hoc marmor erexit, Nepos haeresque, Robertus Hallowell Gardiner.”

[Translation. Sacred to the memory of Silvester Gardiner, who, born in Rhode Island of family not obscure, studied in Paris, and practised medicine successfully a long time in Boston. Having obtained a competency, he directed his attention to the civilization and improvement of the Eastern country, then uncultivated. Here he leveled extensive tracts of forest, built various kinds of mills, ornamented the country with numerous cottages, erected a church, and by the inhabitants of these parts has richly deserved to be called the father of the land. Distinguished for his abilities, a learned physician, a faithful husband, a good father, of an incorruptible integrity, in transacting of business indefatigable, sagacious and vigilant, of upright life, deeply read in the Sacred Scriptures, a firm believer in the Christian Faith, and wholly devoted to the doctrine and discipline of the Church of England, he died in Rhode Island, in the year of our Lord 1786, aged 79. That he might commend to posterity the memory of a man who deserved so well of the Church and of the Republic, and that a monument might exist of his own gratitude towards his venerable grandfather, Robert Hallowell Gardiner, his grandson and heir, has erected this honorary marble.]

CENOTAPH B. A marble table to the memory of the departed has been placed by the Parish, with the aid of Bishop Burgess, upon the southern wall of the Church. It is inscribed, in black letters:

“This Memorial Stone, Erected by the Parish of Christ Church, Attests their grateful remembrance for Robert Hallowell Gardiner, from youth to age their Leader, Benefactor and Godly Example. MDCCCLXIV.”

CENOTAPH C.

In Memory of Robert Hallowell Gardiner, b. 9 Sep 1855, d. 15 June 1924, Warden of this Parish, Constant in serving the Church, His hopeful devotion contributed largely to bring about The World Conference on Faith and Order held at Lausanne, Switzerland in August 1927. May he dwell in God's Peace and Joy, The World Conference directed that this tablet be placed here.

CENOTAPH D. In the year 1867, the parish placed upon the north wall of Christ Church a beautiful tablet of Italian marble, bearing the words:

“In memory of the Right Rev. George Burgess, D.D., b. at Providence, R.I., 31 Oct 1809; Ordained Deacon, 10 June; Priest, 2 Nov 1834; Consecrated Bishop, 31 Oct 1847; Rector of this Church During his Episcopate; d. at sea near Hayti, 23 April 1866. Learned, judicious, saintly; Living for Christ and the Church; Loving all, beloved by all; Faithful in every trust, even unto death; This tablet is erected By a mourning and grateful Parish.”

Outside, in the quiet God's acre, rising white and fair above the hedge of spruce, stands the marble cross that marks the resting place of this great, good man. Its protecting shadow seems to brood over the grave of his only daughter, who so soon followed her saintly father to an eternal home. Upon it the mitre and the crosier indicate the title borne by the dead, while the simple inscription upon the one side reads:

“George Burgess, First Bishop of Maine. Born 31 Oct 1809; Consecrated 31 Oct 1847; d. 21 April 1866.”

Upon the other side are the words:

“Erected by the Diocese of Maine. In grateful remembrance of a faithful and beloved Bishop.”

There are sayings of the Bishop's that ring ceaselessly in the hearts of those who heard them; there are memories of his Christian tenderness which have never faded, and to, day, empty though his chair may be, there are those who cannot feel that the presence of the saintly soul has gone from among us. His dearest ones are far away, and many changes have touched the little temple of his charge; yet at times we almost know the waving of those hands, so used to bless; and, though his work was years ago, we have learned to prize old Christ Church the more, for its sweet traditions of this man of God.

HESKETH PRIVATE CEMETERY

Hallowell, Kennebec, Maine

John & Margaret Syeres Hesketh came to Hallowell in May 1798, cleared, built the buildings, and cultivated this farm. John was a gardener for the Vaughs. The Hesketh Private Cemetery was found by an old newspaper clipping in the Family Bible. It reads : About two miles from Hallowell, Maine, on old County Road [Central Street] in a large and rocky pasture there is a private burying ground. The enclosure is some thirty feet square, stands on top of a knoll, entirely free from rocks and is itself surrounded by a high wall of split granite rocks. The spot is sacred to the memory of old English Family, who first cultivated and cleared this farm on which so many have been born, lived and died. Within the enclosure are ten mounds long and short. In the center stands a shaft of stone, some ten feet high, erected in 1869 In Memory of John & Margaret Hesketh. No other markers. Found fall of 1969 by Wilfred H. Hesketh [Freddie].

Hesketh, John, d. 8 June 1845.

Margaret S., d. 11 Nov 1861.

Came from England.

Mary, d. 29 Aug 1802, b. in England.

John, d. 17 Aug 1802.

John Kenley, d. 24 July 1837, widow remarried.

Infant son, d. 15 March 1830.

Infant child, d. 21 April 1831.

Children of John Kenley & Jane Hanscom Hesketh, d. immediately after birth.

Hesketh, Robert, d. 2 Nov 1862.

Thomas, d. 18 July 1832.

Jane Maria, d. 15 July 1836.

[Based on births, deaths, marriages and family I have found buried elsewhere, I think the list of names are the ten mounds in this cemetery. [1970] Freddie Hesketh. Dover-Foxcroft, Maine, 04426.

HARRIMAN CEMETERY

Litchfield, Kennebec, Maine

Copied Summer 1971 by Mrs. Robert MacDonald, Gardiner, Me. Location: Take Pond Road in West Gardiner at Merrill's Corner; turn right onto Lunt's Hill Road; just beyond Kennebec Valley Beagle Club turn right and drive down road through a field; cemetery is at turn in the road behind bushes and surrounded by rough rock wall. Condition bad - larger bushes have been cut, but new ones are growing up. Ground is extremely uneven - large hollows and humps. A number of stones are down and becoming embedded. There are many stones throughout that appear to be possible grave markers.
