Maine Public Library Fund Grant Application

The Maine State Library will make funds from the Maine Public Library Fund (income tax check-off) available to Maine public libraries to encourage and support innovation in the creation and expansion of new library services. Awards will also be granted for individual library workers to attend continuing education and professional development events.

Go to https://www1.maine.gov/msl/libs/admin/funding/MPLF.shtml for more details about the grant program and application process. Any questions and comments about the MPLF grant may be sent to Deborah Clark at deborah.clark@maine.gov .
