

Sandra P. Saunders
Director of
Technology Business Consultants

I began my career for the State 25 years ago during which time I attended Mid-State College where I earned my Associates Degree in Computer Science.

I live in Vassalboro, Maine with my husband Dana and my black lab Maddison. I have two step-daughters, Randi & Riley and a son-in-law, Ben and recently became a grandmother to my first grandchild, Maci.