

DEPARTMENT OF PROFESSIONAL & FINANCIAL REGULATION
MAINE REAL ESTATE COMMISSION
CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM APPROVAL

Course requirements and provider's responsibilities are outlined in Rule Chapter 370 of the Commission's License Law & Rules (a copy of Chapter 370 is included with this application). The rules define the Commission's requirements for approval of continuing education programs. Review the rules carefully before making application for approval, paying particular attention to Sections 1 & 3 that describe the criteria for acceptable continuing education subject matter.

ACCEPTABLE SUBJECT MATTER

Acceptable continuing education subject matter must relate to the practice of real estate brokerage in the State of Maine, be relevant as regards the licensee's duties to real estate customers and clients and the licensee's ability to serve and meet the needs of customers and clients, or to inform the licensee of state and federal laws relevant to real estate brokerage in Maine.

The Commission recognizes the value of programs dealing with subject matter not specifically related to real estate brokerage, such as computer technology, salesmanship, personal investment strategies or programs related to other professions, such as forest management, writing appraisal reports, estate management, etc. However, those types of subjects do not meet the Commission's standard for acceptable education for the purpose of renewing or activating a real estate license. This is not to say that programs covering "non-acceptable" topics are not valuable; it only means that some subject matter is not consistent with the Commission's educational philosophy, i.e. that continuing education be relevant specifically to the practice of real estate brokerage.

NOTE: Programs must be a minimum of 2 consecutive hours of classroom instruction, excluding breaks.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Submit the application and fee with all required attachments as far in advance of the course administration date as possible to allow adequate time for evaluation and response by Commission personnel. You will be notified in writing as to the Commission's decision once the course has been reviewed. If the program is approved, your notification will include the program number assigned by the Commission and the date and term of approval.

Review the checklist below before submitting your application to be sure you have completed the application properly and have included all required attachments. Feel free to contact the Commission if you have questions.

LIVE/CLASSROOM SETTING

- Complete the application in full and attach the appropriate fee. Note that the $100 late filing fee must be paid if application for approval is submitted to the Real Estate Commission after the program is actually offered.
- Include all required attachments:
 - Learning Objectives – Skills or knowledge you expect participants to gain through completion of this program.
 - Program Outline – Outline shall be based on the learning objectives and be as detailed as necessary to adequately describe course content. Outline shall also include either the approximate time to be spent on each topic or a timeline stating the time each topic of the outline will begin and end.
 - Instructor Biography – Brief biography describing instructor's qualifications to teach the subject.
 - Copy of current or proposed promotional material – including copy of text to be used if program will be promoted via email or the internet. See Chapter 370, Section 5 for text requirements for all types of advertising.

DISTANCE LEARNING - Distance learning programs are those delivered by any method other than live classroom setting. Application procedure is the same as for live delivery with two important exceptions:

- Application must include all course materials that would normally be furnished to the student
 - If computer course, must furnish copy of CD
 - If internet course, must furnish dummy ID and full access to the program
- Program must include a comprehensive final exam, a copy of which, plus answer key, must be included with application for approval. Students must pass the final exam with a minimum 85% to earn credit for the program.

COURSE PROVIDER'S ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

Once a program is approved, the program provider is responsible for the following:

- Report to the Commission in writing any of the following that differ from the information reported on the original application
 - program title (the program must always be referred to as registered on the original application unless a change to the title is reported to the MREC before usage)
 - dates
 - locations
 - format
 - instructor(s)
 - course content (any change in content must be reported to and approved by the Commission in advance of program offering)

- Report to the Commission in writing a schedule of planned course offerings for inclusion in the Commission's Continuing Education Course Schedule. The Commission receives many calls from licensees asking about program availability and maintains an ongoing schedule of courses for which notification has been received. The schedule is distributed to licensees upon request as well as posted to our website.

- Upon commencement of each program, the instructor will read the following statement:

"This program has been approved by the Director of the Real Estate Commission for ___ clock hours toward fulfillment of the educational requirements for activation or renewal of a real estate license.
The Commission is interested in the quality and delivery of educational programs which are offered to licensees and, therefore, welcomes and encourages comments regarding program subject matter and quality of delivery of the program."

- Ensure that participants have completed the program in its entirety, and with the minimum score, if applicable, in order to receive credit.

- Distribute and collect MREC Student Evaluation forms at the conclusion of each program.
 - Providers must distribute and collect the Commission's Student Evaluation form included in this packet in addition to any other type of evaluation that may be utilized by the provider, program instructor or school.

- Summarize students' responses on the Instructor's Summary of Student Evaluations and submit the summary only to the MREC. Summaries may be submitted upon request, however, summaries must be submitted upon application for renewal of program approval.

- Maintain a record of licensees who complete the program to be retained by the provider for a minimum of three (3) years. Provider is NOT required to submit a copy of such record to the Commission.

- Issue a certificate of completion to each program participant who successfully completes the program. The certificate must conform to the format prescribed by the Commission (sample enclosed).

- Be aware of the program expiration date indicated in the letter of approval. The Commission does NOT notify sponsors when program approval is about to expire. Sponsors are expected to monitor the terms of its approved programs and submit a renewal application if re-approval is desired.
