INSTRUCTIONS

For decedents with surviving spouses, Maine allows an estate tax deduction for assets that are qualified terminable interest property (“QTIP”) under IRC section 2056(b)(7), when a QTIP election is not made on that property for federal estate tax purposes. The Maine QTIP (“MEQTIP”) election defers taxation of the MEQTIP property to the death of the decedent’s spouse (second decedent spouse). The second decedent spouse’s estate tax return must include the value at the time of death of the second spouse of any remaining MEQTIP property. This amount is called Maine elective property. All holdings, including cash, securities, as well as real estate and tangible personal property, that constitute Maine elective property must be included in the estate tax return. If this estate contains Maine elective property, this worksheet must be included with the Maine estate tax return.

For estates containing Maine elective property, Form 706ME, lines 1, 2 and 4E must include the value of that property. This worksheet must be completed in order to correctly calculate the Maine estate tax.

Line 2. For Maine resident estates, enter line 1 less the value of real and tangible personal property located outside of Maine. For nonresident estates, enter the value, included in line 1, of all real and tangible personal property located in Maine and personally owned by the decedent. This includes Maine real and tangible personal property transferred to trusts, LLCs or other pass-through entities.

Line 3. The value of Maine elective property is the current value of any remaining property contained in the MEQTIP claimed on the predeceased spouse’s Maine estate tax return. This line must include the value of the remaining property regardless of location or type (tangible or intangible). The property is valued at the date of death of the decedent on this return (unless the alternate valuation date is used for all other assets in the estate).

Line 4. For Maine resident estates, enter line 3 less the value of real and tangible personal property located outside of Maine. For nonresident estates, enter the value, included in line 3, of all real and tangible personal property located in Maine and personally owned by the decedent. This includes Maine real and tangible personal property transferred to trusts, LLCs or other pass-through entities.
