

The Lobster is Maine's most famous crustacean. Lobsters live on the bottom of the cold Atlantic Ocean. The larger claw is a crusher, and the other one is used for gripping its prey.