Jamison Hathaway-Clark

National Producer No. 18208050

Maine License No. PRR 279043

Docket No. INS-18-205

LICENSE REVOCATION
NOTICE, ORDER,
and
OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

NOTICE TO JAMISON HATHAWAY-CLARK:

Effective as of July 23, 2018, your Maine resident insurance producer license will be REVOKED without further formal proceedings unless you request a hearing as specified below.

The reasons for your license revocation are as follows:

1. On January 5, 2018, the Bureau of Insurance wrote to you at your current mailing address regarding an investigation into a consumer complaint. Your response was required within 14 days in accordance with 24-A M.R.S. § 220(2). The Bureau did not receive a response, nor was any correspondence returned to the office.
2. The Bureau wrote to you again on January 31, 2018, regarding the complaint. This request was sent both regular and certified mail. Your response was required within 14 days in accordance with 24-A M.R.S. § 220(2). The certified letter was returned as unclaimed; however, the letter sent regular mail was not returned. The Bureau did not receive a response.
3. On February 13, 2018, your insurance producer license in the State of Maine was canceled for reasons unrelated to the consumer complaint. Correspondence regarding your continuing education requirements was sent by the Licensing Unit to your address of record on November 27, 2017, and returned the Bureau with a new mailing address provided by the U.S. Postal Service. On December 8, 2017, the Bureau sent a penalty letter to your new address requiring the payment of $25 and advising that failing to respond would result in administrative action which can include revocation. On January 11, 2018, a termination order was sent to you with an effective date of February 13, 2018. Again, the Bureau did not receive a response or a payment of the penalty, resulting in the cancellation of your insurance producer license on February 13, 2018.
4. On February 21, 2018, the Bureau wrote to you at your mailing address and sent a copy to your email address of record requesting information related to the complaint. Neither the email nor the letter were returned as undeliverable. To date, the Bureau has not received a response to our inquiries. Your failure to respond to the Bureau's inquiries is grounds for the revocation of your insurance license pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. § 1420-K(1)(B) and § 220(2).

Therefore, based upon the above grounds, your Maine insurance producer license is revoked as of July 23, 2018, pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. §§ 1417 and 1420-K, subject to your right to request a hearing.

Please be advised that, pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. § 1418(1), the Superintendent may not issue a license to a person whose license has been revoked until at least one year has expired from the effective date of the revocation.

Under the Maine Insurance Code, specifically 24-A M.R.S. §1417 and §1420-K, you have the right to a hearing before the Superintendent or his designee. If you request a hearing, you will have the right to present evidence and arguments in your defense, and the staff of the Bureau of Insurance will bear the burden of proving each violation by a preponderance of evidence.

If you request a hearing, you will receive further communication regarding scheduling. The matters to be determined through the hearing process are whether you committed one or more of the violations listed above, and if so, the appropriate sanctions for those violations. The sanctions imposed after a hearing can include any available remedy under applicable laws, including the payment of civil penalties.

To request a hearing, you must notify the Bureau of Insurance in writing no later than July 23, 2018. If you do not file a written request for a hearing within 30 days from the time you knew or reasonably should have known of the revocation of your license through this Notice and Order, you will lose your right to request a hearing on this license revocation Notice and Order.

Any request for a hearing, as well as all other communications regarding this Notice, Order, and Opportunity for Hearing must be addressed to Bureau Licensing Attorney Lindsay J. Laxon, Bureau of Insurance, #34 State House Station, Augusta, Maine 04333-0034 (for US Postal Service deliveries) or 76 Northern Avenue, Gardiner, Maine 04345 (for private carrier deliveries, such as FedEx or UPS). You may also reach Ms. Laxon by e-mail at Lindsay.J.Laxon@maine.gov or by telephone at (207) 624-8429.
