Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear Attorney General Frey:

We represent Stevens & Lee, a law firm in Pennsylvania, in connection with a data security incident described in greater detail below. Stevens & Lee takes the protection of all sensitive information within its possession very seriously and is taking steps to prevent similar incidents from occurring in the future.

1. Nature of the security incident.

On June 28, 2021, Stevens & Lee discovered that some of its systems were interfered with by an unauthorized person. The firm acted immediately to secure their network systems and determine the cause and scope of the incident and determine if any sensitive information was involved in the incident. The firm engaged a digital forensics firm to assist. The investigation determined that an unauthorized individual may have had access to files containing personal information. The potentially affected information includes Social Security numbers, dates of birth, driver's license numbers and financial information. On December 15, 2021, Stevens & Lee identified the affected individuals and contact information in order to effectuate written notification of the incident. This investigation identified one (1) Maine resident within the affected population.

2. Number of Maine residents affected.

Stevens & Lee issued a notification letter to the one (1) Maine resident regarding this data security incident via first-class U.S. mail on December 29, 2021. A sample copy of the notification letter is attached hereto.

3. Steps taken relating to the incident.

Stevens & Lee has taken steps in response to this incident to prevent similar incidents from occurring in the future. Those steps have included working with leading cybersecurity experts to enhance the security of its network and increasing its password complexity requirements. Stevens & Lee is also offering the potentially affected individuals credit monitoring, CYBERSCAN dark web monitoring, identity theft insurance and fully managed identity restoration for 12 months at no cost through IDX, to ensure their information is protected.

4. Contact information.

Stevens & Lee remains dedicated to protecting the personal information in its possession. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at (215) 977-4060 or via email at Richard.Goldberg@lewisbrisbois.com.

Regards,
