<<Notice of Data Breach>>

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>:

The Indianapolis Housing Agency (“IHA”) is sending this letter as part of our commitment to privacy. We are writing to you regarding an incident at IHA which may have involved some of your personal information. We want you to understand what happened, what we are doing about it, the steps you can take to protect yourself, and how we can help you.

What Happened.

On October 4, 2022, IHA was experiencing unusual activity within our IT environment and discovered that the IHA was a victim of a ransomware attack. We promptly engaged additional support services, hired security experts and forensics investigators to help us investigate the incident, and ensure the safety of our environment. We also underwent a review of potentially affected data to determine what personal information may have been involved and identify any potentially impacted individuals.

What Information Was Involved.

Please note that we are providing this information in an abundance of caution, as the investigation could not confirm your personal information was actually viewed or misused.

The information that may have been involved included your name, address, date of birth, <<Impacted Data>>.

What We Are Doing.

We take the confidentiality, privacy, and security of information in our care seriously. We recognize that incidents like this continue to affect large and small organizations throughout the country. We have addressed this matter as thoroughly and expeditiously as possible by conducting a comprehensive investigation into the incident. Since the incident, we have deployed additional cybersecurity measures to enhance the security of our network, and we will be continuously evaluating and evolving our current and future cybersecurity practices to better protect our systems against future attacks.

We are also providing you with services available through IDX, an identity protection services provider. IDX identity protection services include: <<12/24>> months of credit and CyberScan monitoring, a $1,000,000 insurance reimbursement policy, and fully managed identity theft recovery services. With this protection, IDX will help you resolve issues if your identity is compromised.

What You Can Do.

While we have no reason to believe that any of your information has been or will be misused and the investigation has not revealed any attempts at fraud or identity theft, out of an abundance of caution, we are providing you with <<12/24>> months of credit monitoring and identity protection services through IDX at no cost to you. A description of the services and instructions on how to enroll can be found below. Please note that you must complete the enrollment process yourself, as we are not permitted to enroll you in these services on your behalf.

We encourage you to contact IDX with any questions and to enroll in free identity protection services by calling 1-833-896-7335 or going to <https://response.idx.us/IHA> and using the Enrollment Code provided above. IDX representatives are available Monday through Friday from 9 am - 9 pm Eastern Time. The deadline to enroll is April 23, 2023.

We also encourage you to, as always, remain vigilant and monitor your account statements, financial transactions, and free credit reports for potential fraud and identity theft, and promptly report any concerns. We suggest you regularly review bills, notices, and statements, and promptly report any questionable or suspicious activity.

For More Information.

If you have questions about this letter, please call 1-833-896-7335 toll-free Monday through Friday from 9 am - 9 pm Eastern Time or go to <https://response.idx.us/IHA>. The toll-free number and website have been created to answer your questions about the incident and to help you enroll in identity theft and credit monitoring services.

We value your trust in the IHA and we regret any inconvenience this matter may have caused you.

Sincerely,

Indianapolis Housing Agency

Recommended Steps to Help Protect Your Information

1. Website and Enrollment. Go to <https://response.idx.us/IHA> and follow the instructions for enrollment using your Enrollment Code provided at the top of the letter.

2. Activate the credit monitoring provided as part of your IDX identity protection membership. The monitoring included in the membership must be activated to be effective. Note: You must have established credit and access to a computer and the internet to use this service. If you need assistance, IDX will be able to assist you.

3. Telephone. Contact IDX at 1-833-896-7335 to gain additional information about this event and speak with knowledgeable representatives about the appropriate steps to take to protect your credit identity.

4. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting companies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four months.

If you discover any suspicious items and have enrolled in IDX identity protection, notify them immediately by calling or by logging into the IDX website and filing a request for help.

If you file a request for help or report suspicious activity, you will be contacted by a member of our ID Care team who will help you determine the cause of the suspicious items. In the unlikely event that you fall victim to identity theft as a consequence of this incident, you will be assigned an ID Care Specialist who will work on your behalf to identify, stop and reverse the damage quickly.

You should also know that you have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity fraud. Please note that in order to file a crime report or incident report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some kind of proof that you have been a victim. A police report is often required to dispute fraudulent items. You can report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

5. Place Fraud Alerts with the three credit bureaus. If you choose to place a fraud alert, we recommend you do this after activating your credit monitoring. You can place a fraud alert at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three bureaus is as follows:

Credit Bureaus

Equifax Fraud Reporting
1-866-349-5191
P.O. Box 105069
Atlanta, GA 30348-5069
www.equifax.com

Experian Fraud Reporting
1-888-397-3742
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
www.experian.com

TransUnion Fraud Reporting
1-800-680-7289
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022-2000
www.transunion.com

It is necessary to contact only ONE of these bureaus and use only ONE of these methods. As soon as one of the three bureaus confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place alerts on their records as well. You will receive confirmation letters in the mail and will then be able to order all three credit reports, free of charge, for your review. An initial fraud alert will last for one year.

Please Note: No one is allowed to place a fraud alert on your credit report except you.

6. Security Freeze. By placing a security freeze, someone who fraudulently acquires your personal identifying information will not be able to use that information to open new accounts or borrow money in your name. You will need to contact the three national credit reporting bureaus listed above to place the freeze. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze. There is no cost to freeze or unfreeze your credit files.

7. You can obtain additional information about the steps you can take to avoid identity theft from the following agencies. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them.

California Residents: Visit the California Office of Privacy Protection (www.oag.ca.gov/privacy) for additional information on protection against identity theft. Office of the Attorney General of California, 1300 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95814, Telephone: 1-800-952-5225.
