

Coronavirus Relief Funds (CRF)
Governor's Commitments for Use of CRF
Updated March 15, 2021

As of December 11, 2020, the Governor committed the full $1.25 billion in Coronavirus Relief Funds in anticipation of the original December 30, 2020 CRF deadline. Congress has now extended the deadline to December 30, 2021. The Administration is closely monitoring the commitments made to identify circumstances where the full committed amounts may not get expended prior to the deadline. Where necessary and appropriate, commitments that are not likely to be fully expended are being reduced so that those funds can be re-committed to other purposes that can make a positive impact in the State of Maine. This report will continue to reflect the current status of commitments including areas where commitments have been reduced and increased as funds are re-committed.'

* Financial Orders establish an agency's current authorized spending limit for the stated purpose. Financial Orders are specific to a fiscal year and unexpended funds may be reauthorized in the following year. The Financial Orders listed here are posted on the Bureau of Budget website by date of the Governor's approval.

 Expenses in this category that are potentially eligible for reimbursement from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) are being submitted to FEMA for approval on an on-going basis. To date, FEMA has been reimbursing 75% of approved expenses. Expenses in this category that receive FEMA approval and 75% reimbursement are being removed from the Actual Expenses column in this category. The 25% of FEMA-approved expenses that are not reimbursed are then added to the Actual Expenses column in the Municipal Governments and Others - 25% Share of FEMA approved expenses category of this report. Expenses FEMA has denied reimbursement for will continue to be included in the Actual Expenses column of this category.
