DECD, the Office of Tourism and MTI will work with an expanding Maine innovation economy effort to further support the safe re-opening of the Maine economy, Pledge to Protect Maine. Maines small and seasonal businesses have an out-sized role in the Maine economy. These Mainers continue to feel the economic impact of COVID-19 and the resulting halt, and then slow return, of travel to and export from Maine. Innovation and technology can play a critical role in finding solutions to help mitigate this shift. The Pledge to Protect Maine project stems from a Flatten the Curve, COVID-19 hack-a-thon organized by a Maine health tech startup, MyHealthMath, in March. The resulting mobile app developed by Maine technologist in the hack-a-thon and the weeks following, provides an opportunity to digitize the Governors Keep Maine Healthy requirements, including the certification process for getting a green health flag to visit Maine. The solution will make it easier for Maines seasonal businesses to track information and open safely. The addition of the GetWellLoop 14-day symptom tracking and quarantine feature adds an easy additional layer of public health education and self-care for those who use it. This project is a critical collaboration between the innovation economy of Maine and the seasonal/tourism/Main St. economy of Maine.	Fully completed

In August, the State and Idexx opened the CDCs Health and Environmental Testing Laboratory (HETL) mobile lab to greatly expand the capacity of COVID-19 testing. The Idexx contract includes the acquisition of the mobile lab, staffing, and providing testing supplies. The contract is for $50 /test, which is below market rate. DOL Google Contract	CV0079F21	The Department of Labor is contracting with Google to implement a chatbot on the unemployment webpage. This chatbot will make it easier for unemployment claimants to find answers to their questions. The department has posted several 10+ pages of frequently asked questions related to COVID-19 and the federal CARES Act unemployment programs. The number of pages that an individual has to read through to find their question prevents someone from doing so easily. The chatbot will allow web user to enter a question and then will find the related responses. This will facilitate the response for the individual, reduce call volumes to the unemployment 800 phone line, and improve processing of COVID-19-related unemployment benefits.	Fully completed
DMR Hazard Pay	CV0104F1	Shellfish sanitation is regulated at the national level by the National Shellfish Sanitation Program (NSSP) and the Maine Shellfish Dealer Certification and Inspection Program uses the standards outlined by the NSSP to evaluate and certify all wholesale shellfish dealers in Maine. These dealers must be certified under the NSSP to ship, or process shellfish for shipment, within and outside of the state of Maine. By making sure that wholesale shellfish dealers meet these standards, the safety and wholesomeness of the shellfish being purchased by consumers is ensured. Dealer inspections and certifications require extensive site visits by Department of Marine Resources (DMR) shellfish inspectors, where they are often required to work in close proximity to others. As a result, DMR shellfish inspectors have been approved for hazard pay during the Covid-19 civil emergency for each hour of actual working in the field at the premises to be inspected. DMR is requesting CRF to cover the difference in expenses from estimated hazard pay costs incurred during the eligible dates in 2020. The eligible positions include: Seafood Technologists (DMR) Senior Seafood Inspector (DMR) Seafood Technology Supervisor (DMR)	Fully completed

The committee is charged with advising on needed investments, regulatory changes, and to reimagine new ways the state can encourage economic growth. The 40-member Committee includes representatives from the business sector, other economic sectors, and federal, state, tribal and local leaders. The Governor is seeking recommendations on July 15th and December 1, 2020. The Committee has broken up into six working subcommittees, each focused on broad sector areas of the Maine economy. Some support for the Committee is being provided through current staff in state government and limited intern support from University of Maine Law school. The Committee co-chairs requested facilitation support for the work of the Committee, support of the six sub-committees process, and online facilitation support for the public and decision making process of the whole committee which has entirely moved online to a Zoom format, with public access. Additional careful public engagement support is required for management of online Zoom Webinar meetings, transparency, online tools (like polling, whiteboard tools), and importantly, managing security concerns. A short term-limited contract for facilitation services helped launch the ERC but the contract was small and has run out, and the Committee and Co-Chairs requested support for their work through December. Based on hourly support and the number of meetings, the estimated cost is approximately $48,000.	Fully completed

		Fund and will be awarded in the form of grants to directly alleviate the disruption of operations suffered by Maine businesses and non-profits as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Maine Department of Economic & Community Development has been working closely with Maine businesses and non-profits since the beginning of this crisis and has gathered feedback from all sectors on the current challenges. Maine DECD has learned that many Maine businesses and non-profits have not been able to access existing sources of relief funding. These businesses and organizations have fallen through the cracks and need help in order to remain viable. Some of these businesses are from sectors hardest hit from the global pandemic, including those who remained closed for longer, businesses that have not yet re-opened, businesses that rely on seasonal cash flows, and businesses with decreased revenues due to declines in consumer spending or declining global markets. This program is not meant to be exclusive and recognizes that nearly every industry sector in Maine has experienced a decrease in revenue. Maine businesses/organizations need grant support now to overcome one time and extraordinary losses that have already occurred as a result of a disruption to operations due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
DMR Aquaculture Remote Meeting Equipment	CV0124F21	Aquaculture is a rapidly growing economic sector in Maine, and a priority in the Governors 10 year economic development strategy. The emergence of Covid-19 has delayed the DMR regulatory process required for new entrants to establish their businesses in this sector because adjudicatory hearings required by statute have been delayed indefinitely due to the risk of large, in-person gatherings. Furthermore, unanticipated delays in processing of lease applications and lack of market have caused a number of growers to face space constraints as they bring in seed for future years crops, which may exacerbate the economic impacts to this sector in future years. In response, one of the Economic Recovery Committees quick-start recommendations was that DMR conduct remote hearings for aquaculture leasing. This money will include the purchase of three Meeting Owl Pro devices ($999 each), and $149/per Owl for technical support, so that each hearing officer can have one device to use in conducting their own hearings, and the agency would have one system as backup should one of the devices fail. The equipment includes an integrated speaker, microphone, and camera and connects with the TEAMS Platform, allowing DMR staff to more seamlessly interface between remote-located parties to the adjudicatory process. The purchase of this equipment would minimize the number of staff needed to run each remote hearing and free up staff time, which will enable the agency to begin to work through the hearings that have been delayed due to Covid-19 in a more efficient manner.
