

Climate&Me YOUTH LEADERSHIP

Summit

Roz O'Reilly, Orono High School

Maya Faulstich, Yarmouth High School

FEATURING STUDENT
SPEAKERS:

REGISTRATION
OPEN THROUGH
MARCH 3

APRIL 4, 2025

WELLS CONFERENCE CENTER
UNIVERSITY OF MAINE AT ORONO

Including breakout sessions for students and advisors on:

- ✓ Developing climate leadership skills
- ✓ Understanding climate resiliency strategies
- ✓ Discovering effective school projects to implement

For application and more information:

maine.gov/climateplan/climateandme/youthsummit2025

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

1

Create your school's team

Teams should include 2-10 interested high school students and 1-2 adult advisors, such as school faculty, staff, or administration.

2

Register on our website

Head to www.maine.gov/climateplan/climateandme for application instructions. For questions or comments, please email Abigail Hayne at abigail.hayne@maine.gov.

3

Follow us on social media

Connect to stay informed about additional summit details as they become available and discover Maine climate resources.

- Instagram: @MaineClimateCouncil
- Facebook: Maine Climate Council
- E-Newsletter: Sign up here

What's included?

conference fee + meals + materials

Limited transportation funds are available. Lodging is not included.

Questions?

Contact Abigail Hayne, Youth Climate Engagement Coordinator
Governor's Office of Policy Innovation and the Future
✉ abigail.hayne@maine.gov
☎ (207)-624-1758

Convened by:

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE OF Policy Innovation
and the Future

