2. The purpose of the Incentives Options Table is to provide suggested incentives and does not preclude a Juvenile Community Corrections Officer (JCCO) from utilizing additional appropriate incentives.
3. Incentives may be utilized by a JCCO when a juvenile shows positive progress of any type, including minor to major accomplishments. Examples of such accomplishments include, but are not limited to, the following:

Procedure F: Graduated Sanctions

1. Responses available to address a violation or “undesired behavior” while the juvenile is on community reintegration include the graduated sanctions listed in the Graduated Sanctions Table (Attachment C). The Juvenile Community Corrections Officer (JCCO) shall select a graduated sanction by identifying the type of violation or “undesired behavior” from the table and selecting a sanction from the appropriate sanction level.
2. For sanctions other than a verbal warning, additional or changed conditions, or return to the facility, the JCCO shall develop, with the juvenile, an agreement using the Sanction Agreement (Attachment D) to address the violation or undesired behavior. The deadline for completion of a sanction shall not exceed thirty (30) days.
3. The JCCO shall document any sanction and the extent of the juvenile’s compliance with the sanction as a case note in CORIS and, if applicable, as an outcome note in the juvenile’s case plan.
4. Should the juvenile fail to fully comply with a Sanction Agreement, the JCCO shall reinstate the sanctioning process, taking into consideration the prior failure to comply.

Procedure G: Reasons for Return to the Facility

1. A juvenile released to Community Reintegration may be returned to the facility:
 - a. for a violation of the conditions of the Community Reintegration Agreement;
 - b. new juvenile criminal or criminal conduct;

 - d. the juvenile is not suitable for the placement or services;
 - e. the placement or services are no longer available; or
 - f. for any other reason that it is deemed that the juvenile’s welfare would be promoted by a return to the facility.
2. If a Juvenile Community Corrections Officer (JCCO) observes, receives a report of, or otherwise discovers any of the above reasons, the JCCO may recommend to the Regional Correctional Administrator (RCA), or designee, that the juvenile be returned to the facility.

3. If the RCA, or designee, agrees with the request, the RCA, or designee, shall contact the facility's Superintendent, or designee.
4. If the Superintendent, or designee:
 - a. agrees to the request, the RCA, or designee, and Superintendent, or designee, shall ensure all necessary arrangements are made to facilitate the return (no juvenile detention form or other form is necessary); or
 - b. does not agree to the request, the Superintendent, or designee, and the RCA, or designee, shall contact the Associate Commissioner for Juvenile Services, or designee, for a final decision.
5. In an emergency situation where the Superintendent, or designee, is not immediately available, a juvenile may be returned to the facility solely with the approval of the RCA, or designee.
6. The JCCO shall document any recommendation for the juvenile to be returned, the reasons for the recommendation, and the result of the recommendation as a case note in CORIS.
7. If it has been determined that a juvenile will be returned to the facility, but the juvenile cannot be located after reasonable efforts have been made or the JCCO receives a report or otherwise discovers that the juvenile may have absconded, the JCCO shall request that the Commissioner, or designee, issue a warrant for the juvenile's arrest, using the Request for Community Reintegration Violation Warrant form (Attachment E) and attaching to it the Identification Data for Community Reintegration Violation Warrant (Attachment F) and a photograph of the juvenile.
8. Prior to the juvenile's return, the JCCO shall notify the Juvenile Facility Operations Supervisor (JFOS) of any risks the juvenile presents to safety of self or others or to the security or orderly management of the facility.
9. As soon as practicable, the JCCO shall submit to the RCA, or designee, the Superintendent, or designee, and the Director of Classification & Collateral Services, or designee, a written report describing the reasons for return.
10. A juvenile may be returned to the facility at any time for any reason at the complete discretion of the Commissioner, or designee.

 - b. be processed as set out in Department Policy (JF) 15.2, Behavior and Skill Development.
2. The JCCO shall make every reasonable effort to attend the Reclassification Conference. If the JCCO cannot attend the conference, they shall attempt to arrange for another JCCO who is familiar with the juvenile or the RCA, or designee, to attend. If the JCCO

3. If an appeal is timely, after reviewing the case with the RCA, or designee, the JCCO, and the Superintendent, or designee, the Associate Commissioner for Juvenile Services, or designee, shall decide the appeal within fifteen (15) days after receiving the appeal. When it is sent to the resident, the decision on the appeal (or notation that the appeal was not timely) shall be marked as “legal mail” and processed as such at the facility where the resident is housed.
4. Upon review of the appeal, the Associate Commissioner for Juvenile Services, or designee, may:
 - a. approve the decision;
 - b. reverse the decision;
 - c. modify the decision; or
 - d. remand the matter for review at an earlier point in the process.
5. The Associate Commissioner for Juvenile Services, or designee, shall ensure a copy of the appeal and the response to the appeal is provided to the Superintendent, Director of Classification & Collateral Services, the applicable Regional Correctional Administrator, the Director of Victim Services, or their designees.
6. The Director of Classification & Collateral Services, or designee, shall ensure:
 - a. a copy of the resident’s appeal and response is placed in the resident’s Master Administrative Record and documented in CORIS; and
 - b. a copy is forwarded to the Juvenile Program Manager for placement in the resident’s Case Management File.
7. The Associate Commissioner for Juvenile Services, or designee, is the final authority on an appeal (i.e., there is no further administrative level of appeal).
