

Maine Senior FarmShare Program Proxy Designation Form for Multiple Seniors

Farmers are required to retain the original signed proxy form for a minimum of three (3) years.

The Maine Senior FarmShare Program allows seniors to have others act on their behalf. The participants and proxy must sign this form before the proxy performs any actions on the participant's behalf. These authorized representatives, or proxies, can do the following at any point during the season:

- apply for certification
- shop at a farmers' markets or farm stands
- pick up eligible foods from a participating farmer or authorized agent
- receive deliveries

Farmers and farmers' market staff cannot serve as proxys for participants.
