

Winter Camping

at Maine State Parks and Public Lands

At select Maine State Parks from December 15—March 15.

Primitive Tent Camping Only:

- No water, amenities, or cleared campsites or trails.
- Campsites accessed by snowshoe or skis, some walk-in (see list below).
- Camp only at designated sites; 7-day limit of stay.
- Fires only allowed at designated fire pits; Maine local wood only—Protect ME forests & parks from harm— Buy It Where You Burn It!
- On-site self-registration required.
- Camping fees* apply—payable by cash or check at self registration.
* The $50 Registration Fee is waived.

Fees: Family Camping for 1-6 people; follows standard fee schedule.

Group Camping for 7-10 people = $54.50/night.

- $5.45 per person/night for each additional camper beyond 10 (including children).

- Winter camping experience and self-sufficiency a must.
- Parks & Lands Trail Conditions available online. Subscribe to text/email alerts.

State Park Locations / Information:

- Aroostook State Park, Presque Isle—(207) 768-8341
- Bradbury Mountain State Park, Pownal—(207) 688-4712
 - Walk-in access as well as ski and snowshoe.
- Camden Hills State Park, Camden—(207) 236-0849
 - Megunticook Cabin also available—reservation required; call the park.
- Cobscook Bay State Park, Edmunds Township—(207) 726-4412
- Lake St. George State Park, Liberty—(207) 589-4255
- Lily Bay State Park, Greenville—(207) 695-2700
- Mount Blue State Park, Weld—(207) 585-2261
 - Walk-in access as well as ski and snowshoe.
- Sebago Lake State Park, Casco—(207) 693-6231
 - Walk-in access as well as ski and snowshoe.

And on Maine's Public Lands:

- Primitive Camping Only: No amenities or plowed locations; winter camping experience and self-sufficiency a must. Parking is not allowed on plowed road shoulders.
- FMI: Call the Public Lands Region Office that corresponds to your destination as seen on this map. Consider hiring a Registered Maine Guide to lead your trip.

Maine Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry
Bureau of Parks and Lands
www.parksandlands.com