Regional Destinations

- Camden Harbor from Mt. Battie by Jocelyn Hubbell.

Mt. Battie History

Mt. Battie has seen many changes over the years. The Summit House hotel, built in 1857 by Columbus Russell, was purchased by the conservation-minded Mt. Battie Association in 1923. It then renamed and renamed the Mt. Battie Clubhouse. It was open to public on a common use fund and was torn down in October of 1927. In 1931 the stone tower was built and dedicated to Honor of the soldiers from Camden who served during their country's war.
