Exotic Longhorned Beetle Lookalikes

Do not report insects "Found in Maine"

Citrus longhorned beetle
(Anoplophora chinensis) (near R)

Asian longhorned beetle
(Anoplophora glabripennis) (far R)
1 - 1½ inch long
Glossy-black with distinct white spots

Whitespotted sawyer
(Monochamus scutellatus)
3/4 - 1 1/4 inch long
Bronze-black with indistinct white spots
White dot at base of wing covers

REPORT IF FOUND

Northeastern sawyer
(Monochamus notatus)
3/4 - 1 1/2 inch long
Mottled light brown/white, no distinct spots

Poplar borer
(Saperda calcarata)
About 1 inch long
Bluish-gray with faint yellow splotchtes

FOUND IN MAINE

Brown prionid
(Orthosoma brunneus)
1 - 1 1/2 inch long
Light chestnut brown, no spots

Broadnecked root borer
(Prionus laticollis)
1 - 1 1/2 inch long
Black with no white markings; solid black antennae

FOUND IN MAINE

A longhorned beetle
(Graphisurus fasciatus)
1/3 - 2/3 inch long
Dark with gray to light brown mottling; antennae banded

Western conifer seed bug
(Leptoglossus occidentalis)
About 3/4 inch long
Various shades of brown with a distinct geometric pattern on wings.
Often seen indoors

FOUND IN MAINE

If you see the citrus longhorned beetle or the Asian longhorned beetle in Maine, capture it or take a picture, and report to the Maine Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry...

www.maine.gov/alb - or - CALL: (207) 287-3891 - or - EMAIL: bugwatch@maine.gov