GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These General Terms and Conditions and any referenced documents form the agreement (the "Agreement") under which an Order Form is executed.

1. PROVISION OF SERVICES

ServiceNow will make the following purchased services available to Customer, subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement and each ordering document signed by Customer and ServiceNow (each, an "Order Form") and the product overview attached thereto or referenced therein ("Product Overview"), including without limitation:

(a) use of the ServiceNow applications which are made available by ServiceNow as a software as a service (SaaS) ("Subscription Service"); and

(b) professional services and training services ("Professional Services").

An Order Form for Professional Services shall specify ServiceNow packaged professional services (each offering, a "Packaged Service"), as described in one or more service descriptions (if not attached to the Order Form, then as set forth on www.servicenow.com/be_schedules.do) ("Service Description") or other Professional Services described in one or more written statements of work ("SOW") signed by ServiceNow and Customer.

2. ORDERING

2.1 ORDERS AND PAYMENT. Upon execution by Customer and ServiceNow, each Order Form is non-cancellable and non-refundable except as provided in the Agreement. Prices stated in each Order Form are final. Except as expressly set forth in the applicable Order Form, Subscription Service fees are invoiced annually in advance. Each Subscription Term (as defined in Section 3.1) as set forth in the Order Form is a continuous and non-divisible commitment for the full duration of the Subscription Term regardless of the invoice schedule. Except as expressly set forth in the applicable Order Form or SOW or Service Description, Professional Services fees are invoiced on a time and materials basis monthly in arrears. Customer shall pay each invoice in full within thirty (30) days after the date of invoice. Customer may issue a purchase order consistent with the terms of the Order Form, but a purchase order is not required. If Customer issues a purchase order, then it shall be for the full amount of the Order Form, and any additional or conflicting terms appearing in a purchase order shall not amend the Order Form or the Agreement. Upon request, ServiceNow shall reference the purchase order number on its invoices (solely for administrative convenience) so long as Customer provides the purchase order at least fifteen (15) business days prior to the date of the invoice. Late payments shall accrue interest at a rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the legal maximum interest rate, whichever is lower. If Customer is delinquent in payment of amounts for the services owed hereunder, ServiceNow may give notice to Customer of such delinquency and, in such case, Customer shall cure the delinquency within thirty (30) days from the date of ServiceNow's written notice. If Customer fails to cure the delinquency, ServiceNow may suspend Customer's use of the Subscription Service or terminate the Agreement for cause in accordance with Section 7 (Term and Termination), in addition to other rights and remedies available.

2.2 TAXES. All payments required by the Agreement are stated exclusive of all taxes, duties, levies, imposts, fines or similar governmental assessments including sales and use taxes, value-added taxes ("VAT"), goods and services taxes ("GST"), excise, business, service, and similar transactional taxes imposed by any jurisdiction and the interest and penalties thereon (collectively, "Taxes"). Customer shall be responsible for and bear Taxes associated with its purchase of, payment for, access to or use of the Subscription Service and Professional Services. Taxes shall not be deducted from the payments to ServiceNow, except as required by law, in which case Customer shall increase the amount payable as necessary so that after making all required deductions and withholdings, ServiceNow receives and retains (free from any Tax liability) an amount equal to the amount it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made. Each party is responsible for and shall bear taxes imposed on its net income. If Customer is a tax-exempt entity or claims exemption from any Taxes under the Agreement, Customer shall provide a tax exemption number on the Order Form and a certificate upon execution of the Order Form and, after receipt of valid evidence of exemption, ServiceNow shall not charge Customer any Taxes from which it is exempt. If ServiceNow is required to invoice or collect Taxes associated with Customer's purchase of, payment for, access to or use of the Subscription Service or Professional Services, ServiceNow will issue an invoice to Customer including the amount of those Taxes, itemized where required by law. Customer shall provide to ServiceNow its VAT or GST identification number(s) on the Order Form for (i) the country where Customer has established its business and/or (ii) any other country where Customer has a fixed establishment. Customer shall use the ordered Subscription Service and Professional Services for Customer's business use in the foregoing location(s) in accordance with the provided VAT or GST identification number(s). The parties' obligations under this Section shall survive the termination or expiration of the Agreement.

ServiceNow may review Customer's use of the Subscription Service, and Customer shall provide any reasonable assistance to verify Customer's compliance with the Agreement. If ServiceNow determines that Customer has exceeded its permitted use of the Subscription Service then ServiceNow will notify Customer and within thirty (30) days thereafter Customer shall either: (i) disable any unpermitted use or (ii) purchase additional subscriptions. If Customer fails to regain compliance within such thirty (30) day period, ServiceNow may suspend Customer's use of the Subscription Service or terminate the Agreement for cause in accordance with Section 7 (Term and Termination), in addition to any other rights or remedies ServiceNow may have.

5.2. PROTECTION. The Receiving Party shall: (i) at all times protect the confidentiality of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information with the same degree of care that it uses to protect its own confidential information, and in no event using less than reasonable care; and (ii) not use Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party except to the extent necessary to exercise its rights or fulfill its obligations under the Agreement. 7.2. EFFECT OF TERMINATION OF SERVICE. Upon expiration or other termination of the Subscription Service for any reason, Customer shall stop using, and ServiceNow shall stop providing, the terminated Subscription Service. After such forty-five (45) day period, ServiceNow shall have no obligation to maintain or provide any Customer Data and shall thereafter, unless legally prohibited, have the right to delete all Customer Data in its systems or otherwise in its possession or under its control and delete Customer's instances of the Subscription Service.

5.2 Use and Disclosure Restrictions. Each party agrees (a) to protect the other party's Proprietary Information from unauthorized dissemination and use; (b) to use the other party's Proprietary Information only for the performance of this Agreement and the exercise of any rights under this Agreement; (c) not to disclose any Proprietary Information, or any part or parts thereof, to any of its employees, agents, contractors or any other individuals except to its employees who are under confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than the requirements of this Section 5; (d) with respect to Customer, not to disclose or otherwise provide to any third party, without the prior written consent of Virtru or as otherwise set forth in a separate written agreement between the parties hereto entered into after the date hereof, as applicable, any of Virtru's Proprietary Information, materials or any data or other information produced, obtained or created by Customer in connection with Customer's use of the Materials, including, without limitation, the existence of this Agreement and the existence and possible applications of the Materials; (e) to undertake whatever action is necessary (or authorize the other party to do so in the name of such party) to prevent or remedy any breach of such party's confidentiality obligations herein set forth or any other unauthorized disclosure of any Proprietary Information by its current or former employees, agents or contractors; and (f) not to remove or destroy any proprietary or confidential legends or markings placed upon or contained within the Proprietary Information provided to such party by the other party.

Neither party shall be liable to the other for damages of any kind solely as a result of terminating this Agreement in accordance with its terms, and termination of this Agreement by a party shall be without prejudice to any other right or remedy of such party under this Agreement or applicable law.

vCloud Air (U.S. and Japan Data Centers)

TERMS OF SERVICE

Last updated: November 5, 2014

VMware vCloud Air is an infrastructure as a service offering. By accessing any service offered through VMware vCloud Air (the " Service Offering") you agree to be bound by these terms of service between you and VMware (" Agreement"). If you do not agree to this Agreement, you must not access the Service Offering. An individual accepting this Agreement on behalf of an organization represents and warrants having legal authority to bind that organization. " You" means the entity accepting this Agreement. " VMware," " we," or " us" means VMware, Inc., a Delaware corporation, to the extent that you are purchasing the Service Offering in the United States, VMware vCloud Service G.K., a company organized and existing under the laws of Japan, to the extent that you are purchasing the Service Offering in Japan, and VMware International Limited, a company organized and existing under the laws of Ireland, to the extent that you are purchasing the Service Offering elsewhere. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement are defined throughout this Agreement and in Section 14.

EVALUATION PROGRAM USE. When you access the Service Offering under a VMware evaluation program, you may use the Service Offering only for non-production computing activity. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, under a VMware evaluation program, we provide the Service Offering "AS-IS" without indemnification, support or warranty of any kind, expressed or implied, and we will not be liable for any damages. Upon termination of the evaluation, you will no longer have access to the Service Offering and Your Content.

1.1 Generally. This Agreement governs your access and use of the Service Offering. We may deliver the Service Offering to you with the assistance of our affiliates, licensors and providers. Service Level Agreements may apply to the Service Offering. You will comply with all laws, rules and regulations applicable to your use of the Service Offering, and with the Third Party Terms, the Service Description, the Privacy Addendum, and the Support Policy, all of which are incorporated herein by reference.

1.2 Access to the Service Offering. You may access and use the Service Offering solely for your own benefit and only in accordance with this Agreement. To access the Service Offering, you must register for the Service Offering and set up an authorized account with Login Credentials. You may monitor and manage your Service Offering account via the My VMware Portal available at www.vmware.com/accounts and through the Service Offering Portal available at http://vcloud.vmware.com. You must keep confidential your Login Credentials. If you set up an authorized account for an organization, you will require that all authorized users of that account (including anyone providing services to you) keep confidential their Login Credentials. You will keep your registration information accurate, complete and current as long as you use the Service Offering. You are responsible for any use that occurs under your Login Credentials, including any activities by you, or your employees, contractors or agents. If you believe an unauthorized user has gained access to your Login Credentials, you will notify us as soon as possible. Neither we nor our affiliates are responsible for any unauthorized access to or use of your account.

1.3 Verifying; Cooperation. We have the right to verify your compliance with this Agreement. If we seek to verify that compliance, you will provide information or other materials reasonably requested by us to assist the verification. We monitor the overall performance and stability of the infrastructure of the Service Offering. You may not block or interfere with that monitoring. If we reasonably believe a problem with the Service Offering may be attributable to Your Content or your use of the Service Offering, you will cooperate with us to identify and resolve the source of that problem.

1.4 Additional Terms; Third Party Content. As part of your use of the Service Offering, you may receive access to additional data, content, software or applications subject to separate terms. If so, those separate terms will prevail over this Agreement as to your use of that data, content, software or applications. Third Party Content is available "AS IS" without indemnification or support, and we disclaim all express and implied warranties (including warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement). You are responsible for reviewing, accepting, and complying with any third party terms of use or other restrictions applicable to the Third Party Content. Those terms will be available to you through a notification within the Service Offering or in a document available at https://www.vmware.com/files/pdf/support/vmware-vcloud-air-third-party-terms.pdf. It is your responsibility to check the Third Party Terms, which may be modified from time to time. We may provide billing and related services associated with the Third Party Content. We will not provide any support for the Third Party Content unless otherwise noted in the Third Party Terms. We reserve the right to suspend or terminate the Third Party Content at any time, but we will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide reasonable notice of that suspension or termination.

1.5 Early Evaluation/Beta Features. We may identify and make available on an early evaluation or beta basis certain features or functionality within the Service Offering. You must use these features or functionality only for evaluation purposes and for the period that we specify. We provide these features and functions "AS-IS," without indemnification or support and disclaim all express and implied warranties (including warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement). Any early evaluation or beta features or functionality do not constitute an implied commitment to offer to you or anyone these features and functionality as part of the Service Offering on a generally available basis.

1.6 Open Source Software. You may receive open source software when you use the Service Offering and any open source software distributed to you is made available under the applicable open source license, which can be found at: http://www.vmware.com/download/open_source.html. You may obtain a copy of these licenses and any source code (and modifications) that we are required to make available under these licenses (the " Source Files") at http://www.vmware.com/download/open_source.html or by sending a written request, with your name and address to: VMware, Inc., 3401 Hillview Avenue, Palo Alto, CA 94304, United States of America. All written requests must clearly specify: Open Source Files Request, Attention: General Counsel. This offer to obtain a copy of the Source Files is valid for three years from the date you last received open source software as part of the Service Offering or last accessed the Service Offering.

2. Data Protection and Security.

2.1 Data Protection. We will process personal data contained in Your Content as set forth in the Privacy Addendum.

2.2 Your Content and Security. You are solely responsible for Your Content. You are responsible for protecting the security of Your Content, including any access you might provide to Your Content by your employees, customers or other third parties, and in transit to and from the Service Offering. The Service Offering provides you with certain software and functionality to help you protect Your Content from unauthorized access. You will take and maintain appropriate security, protection and backup of Your Content, which might include the use of encryption technology to protect Your Content from unauthorized access. You are responsible for providing any necessary notices to your users and obtaining any legally-required consents from your users concerning their use of the Service Offering. You are solely responsible for complying with any laws or regulations that might apply to Your Content. You are responsible for any losses or other consequences arising from your failure to encrypt or back up Your Content.

3. Acceptable Use.

3.1 General Restrictions. You and those accessing the Service Offering through you may not: (a) resell or sublicense the Service Offering; or (b) use or access the Service Offering: (i) in a way prohibited by law, regulation, governmental order or decree; (ii) to violate any rights of others; (iii) to try to gain unauthorized access to, test the vulnerability of, or disrupt the Service Offering or any other service, device, data, account or network; (iv) to spam or distribute malware; (v) in a way that could harm the Service Offering or impair anyone else's use of it; (vi) in a way intended to work around the Service Offering's technical limitations, recurring fees or usage limits; or (vii) in any application or situation where failure of the Service Offering could lead to the death or serious bodily injury of any person, or to severe physical or environmental damage. You must ensure that your users comply with the terms of this Agreement, and you agree that if you become aware of any violation by one of your users, you will terminate that user's access to Your Content immediately. If we have reason to believe that you or your users have breached this Agreement, we or our designated representative may review your use of the Service Offering, including your account, Your Content, and your records, to verify your compliance with this Agreement.

3.2 Content Restrictions. You will take steps to ensure that those accessing any service you provide with the Service Offering do not post content that: (a) may create a risk of harm, loss, physical or mental injury, emotional distress, death, disability, disfigurement, or physical or mental illness to anyone; (b) may create a risk of any other loss or damage to any person or property; (c) may constitute or contribute to a crime or tort; (d) contains any information or content that is illegal, unlawful, harmful, abusive, pornographic, racially or ethnically offensive, defamatory, infringing, invasive of personal privacy or publicity rights, harassing, humiliating to other people (publicly or otherwise), libelous, threatening, or otherwise objectionable; or (e) contains any information or content that you do not have a right to make available under any law or under contractual or fiduciary relationships. You are solely responsible for any software, product or service that a third party licenses, sells or makes available to you that you install or use with the Service Offering. Your use of that software, product or service is governed by separate terms between you and that third party. We are not a party to and are not bound by any of those separate terms. You represent and warrant that Your Content does not and will not violate any third-party rights, including any Intellectual Property Rights, and rights of publicity and privacy. You will ensure that your use of the Service Offering complies at all times with your privacy policies and all applicable laws and regulations, including any encryption requirements.

3.3 Violations of Acceptable Use. If you become aware that any of Your Content or your user's use of Your Content violates Section 3.1 or 3.2, you will take immediate action to remove the applicable part of Your Content or suspend the end user's access. If you fail to do so, we may ask you to do so. If you fail to comply with our request within twenty-four hours, we may suspend your account or disable access to Your Content until you comply with our request.

3.4 Notification of Infringement Concerns. If you believe that your copyrighted work has been copied and is accessible on our Service Offering in a way that constitutes copyright infringement, please send a notice to us as further detailed in Section 8 of the Community Terms of Use available at http://www.vmware.com/community_terms.html.

4. IP Ownership.

4.1 Ownership of Service Offering. We and our licensors own and retain all right, title and interest in and to the Service Offering and any related VMware Software, including all improvements, enhancements, modifications and derivative works thereof, and all Intellectual Property Rights therein. This includes any information that we collect and analyze in connection with the Service Offering, such as usage patterns, user feedback and other information to improve and evolve our software products and services offerings. Your rights to use the Service Offering are limited to those expressly granted in this Agreement. No other rights with respect to the Service Offering, any related VMware Software, or any related Intellectual Property Rights are implied.

4.2 Ownership of Your Content. You and your authorized users retain all right, title and interest in and to Your Content and all Intellectual Property Rights therein. Our rights to access and use Your Content are limited to those expressly granted in this Agreement. No other rights with respect to Your Content or any related Intellectual Property Rights are implied.

4.3. Feedback. We will be free to use for any purpose any feedback (such as comments or suggestions) that you provide to us regarding the Service Offering. You hereby grant to us a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, transferable, worldwide right and license, with the right to sublicense, to use, reproduce, perform, display, disclose, distribute, modify, prepare derivative works of and otherwise exploit the feedback without restriction in any manner now known or in the future conceived and to make, use, sell, offer to sell, import and export any product or service that incorporates the feedback.

5. Order, Delivery, Payment, and Taxes.

5.1 Generally. Sections 5.3 (Direct Orders), 5.4 (Delivery), 5.5 (Invoicing and Payment Terms) and 5.6 (Taxes) apply only to orders you place directly with, and the Service Offering you purchase directly from, VMware. When ordering through, or purchasing the Service Offering from, a VMware authorized reseller, the authorized reseller might specify similar terms.

5.2 Orders. All Orders issued to VMware are subject to the terms of this Agreement and are not binding until accepted by VMware. We are not required to provide any Service Offering to you until you provide all information we require for processing your Order.

5.3 Direct Orders. For orders placed directly with VMware, you must issue a purchase order to VMware for the initial Service Offering order, but a purchase order is not required for the monthly billings that occur after the initial Order billing. For subsequent billings, all fees (including subscription renewals, metered usage components, and other add-ons) will be paid in accordance with this Agreement. Your Order will be deemed accepted when we authorize the purchased Service Offering for your Login Credentials.

5.4 Delivery. When VMware accepts your Order for the Service Offering, we will deliver the corresponding Login Credentials to you by email to the address associated with your account. If VMware ships a physical object in connection with an add-on feature of the Service Offering, shipping and delivery terms are Ex Works VMware's regional fulfillment facility (INCOTERMS 2010).

5.5 Invoicing and Payment Terms. You will pay all fees for use of the Service Offering in the amount and currency specified in your invoice, within 30 days after the date of the invoice, and regardless of your usage level during a billing period. You will also be responsible for all additional fees for any subscription renewals and metered usage components consumed, and other subscriptions, features, products, services or add-ons that you purchase within the Service Offering. You will be billed in advance for the monthly or prepaid charges due to the subscription services purchased. Any metered usage components and any initial monthly fees will be billed in arrears. The applicable fees for subscriptions (including renewals), features and other available products and services will be governed by the then-current applicable price list at the time the initial, renewal, or add-on order is submitted, or as otherwise agreed. We may increase or add new fees for the Service Offering by notifying you at least 30 days in advance.

5.6 Taxes. Service Offering fees are exclusive of taxes, and you shall pay or reimburse for all taxes arising out of transactions contemplated by this Agreement. If you are required to pay or withhold any tax for payments due under this Agreement, you shall gross your payments to us so we receive sums due in full and free of any deductions. You will provide documentation to us showing that taxes have been paid to the relevant taxing authority. " Taxes" means any sales, VAT, use, gross receipts, business and occupation, and other taxes (other than taxes on our income), export and import fees, customs duties and similar charges imposed by any government or other authority. You hereby confirm that we can rely on the name and address you provide to us when you agree to the Service Offering or in connection with your payment method as being the place of supply for sales tax and income tax purposes or as being the place of supply for VAT purposes where you have established your business.

6. Temporary Suspension.

6.1 Generally. Upon prior written notice to you, we may suspend your use of the Service Offering if we reasonably determine: (a) payment for the Service Offering is not received within 30 days from the date on which payment is due; (b) you or your use of the Service Offering is in breach of this Agreement; (c) you fail to address our request to take action as specified in Section 3.3; (d) your use of the Service Offering poses a security risk to the Service Offering or other users of the Service Offering; or (e) suspension is required pursuant to our receipt of a subpoena, court order, or other request by a law enforcement agency.

6.2 Effect of Suspension. You will remain responsible for all fees incurred before or during the suspension. You will not be entitled to any service credits under the Service Level Agreement that you might have otherwise accrued during the period of suspension.

7. Term and Termination.

7.1 Term of Agreement. This Agreement will be in effect through the Subscription Term, plus any renewals, unless terminated earlier as permitted under this Agreement or the Service Description. Upon the completion of the Subscription Term, the subscription will automatically renew as specified in the Service Description, unless terminated as permitted under the Service Description.

7.2 Termination for Cause. We may terminate this Agreement effective immediately upon sending you an email notice if: (a) you breach any provision in Sections 3.1 or 3.2; (b) you do not resolve the underlying cause resulting in a suspension of your account pursuant to Section 6.1 (other than suspension due to a subpoena, court order, or other request by a law enforcement agency) within 10 days after your account is suspended; or (c) you commit a material breach that cannot be cured.

7.3 Termination for Insolvency. We may terminate this Agreement effective immediately upon sending you an email notice if you: (a) terminate or suspend your business; (b) become insolvent, admit in writing your inability to pay your debts as they mature, make an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or (c) become subject to control of a trustee, receiver or similar authority or any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding.

7.4 Effect of Termination. Upon the termination of this Agreement for any reason: (a) all rights granted to you under this Agreement, including your ability to access the Service Offering, will immediately terminate; and (b) you must promptly discontinue all use of the Service Offering and delete or destroy any of our Confidential Information. We will retain Your Content for a period of 30 days following the effective date of the termination, although you will cease to have access to the Service Offering or Your Content during this period. After the 30 days, Your Content will be deleted. Sections 1.6 (Open Source Software), 3 (Acceptable Use) 4 (IP Ownership), 5 (Order, Delivery, Payment and Taxes), 7 (Term and Termination), 9 (Disclaimer), 11 (Limitation of Liability), 12 (Confidential Information), 13 (General), and 14 (Definitions), will survive the termination of this Agreement. Termination of the Service Offering (except to the extent that the termination is permitted under Section 13.3 of this Agreement or Section 3.6 of the Service Description) will not entitle you to any refunds, credits, or exchanges, and you will be liable for all monthly billing fees for the remainder of the Subscription Term after termination, as well as all usage and other fees incurred up to the termination date.

8. Support and Subscription Services. When applicable, and subject to the terms of this Agreement, we will provide to you support for the Service Offering in accordance with the terms specified in the Support Policy. We will not provide support to any end users of Your Content.

9. Disclaimer. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, WE AND OUR LICENSORS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT AND ANY WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE REGARDING OR RELATING TO THE SERVICE OFFERING OR ANY MATERIALS OR SERVICES FURNISHED OR PROVIDED TO YOU UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. WE AND OUR LICENSORS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS DO NOT WARRANT THAT THE SERVICE OFFERING WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR FREE FROM DEFECTS, OR THAT THE SERVICE OFFERING WILL MEET (OR IS DESIGNED TO MEET) YOUR BUSINESS REQUIREMENTS.

10. Indemnification.

10.1 Indemnification by Customer. You will defend and indemnify us against any third party claim arising from or relating to: (a) Your Content; (b) any infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Rights by you, your customers, your end users or your suppliers; (c) violation of law by you; (d) your use of the Service Offering (including any activities under your account and any use by your employees, personnel or end users) in violation of this Agreement, or (e) your use of any Third Party Content. We will (a) provide you with notice of the claim within a reasonable period of time after learning of the claim; and (b) reasonably cooperate in response to your requests for assistance. You may not settle or compromise any indemnified claim without our prior written consent.

10.2 Defense and Indemnification. Subject to the remainder of this Section 10, we will defend you against an Infringement Claim and indemnify you from the resulting costs and damages finally awarded against you to that third party by a court of competent jurisdiction or agreed to in settlement. You will (a) provide us with notice of any Infringement Claim within a reasonable period of time after learning of it; (b) allow us sole control over the claim's defense and settlement; and (c) reasonably cooperate in response to our requests for assistance. You may not settle or compromise any Infringement Claim without our prior written consent.

10.3 Remedies. If the Service Offering becomes, or in our opinion is likely to become, the subject of an Infringement Claim, we will at our option and expense either: (a) procure the rights necessary for you to keep using the Service Offering; (b) modify or replace the Service Offering to make it non-infringing; or (c) terminate this Agreement and refund any pre-paid fees for the Service Offering pro-rated for its remaining Subscription Term.

10.4 Exclusions. We will have no obligation under this Section 10 or otherwise with respect to any claim based on: (a) a combination of VMware Software with non-VMware products or content, including Your Content; (b) use of the Service Offering for a purpose or in a manner not specified in this Agreement or the Service Description; (c) any modification to the Service Offering made without our express written approval; or (d) any Service Offering provided on a no charge basis. This Section 10 states your exclusive remedy for any infringement actions or claims.

11. Limitation of Liability.

11.1 Generally. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL WE OR OUR LICENSORS OR SERVICE PROVIDERS BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST PROFITS OR BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, LOSS OF USE OF THE SERVICE OFFERING, LOSS OF REVENUE, LOSS OF GOODWILL, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, LOSS OF DATA, OR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, PRODUCT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE. IN ADDITION, OUR AND OUR LICENSORS' AND SERVICE PROVIDERS' LIABILITY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT, IN ANY EVENT, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE CLAIM IS BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE, EXCEED THE GREATER OF: (A) THE AGGREGATE FEES PAID OR PAYABLE TO US FOR YOUR ACCESS TO AND USE OF THE SERVICE OFFERING IN THE TWELVE (12) MONTHS PRIOR TO THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO YOUR CLAIM, OR (B) $5,000 USD (OR THE EQUIVALENT IN LOCAL CURRENCY). REGARDLESS OF WHETHER WE OR OUR LICENSORS OR SERVICE PROVIDERS HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF THOSE DAMAGES AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER ANY REMEDY FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE. THESE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY IN THIS SECTION 11.1 WILL NOT APPLY TO (A) VMWARE'S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR (B) ANY LIABILITY WHICH MAY NOT BE EXCLUDED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

11.2 Further Limitations. Our licensors and service providers will have no liability of any kind under this Agreement. You may not bring a claim under this Agreement more than eighteen (18) months after the cause of action arises.

12. Confidential Information.

12.1 Protection. A party may use Confidential Information of the other party solely to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under this Agreement or as otherwise permitted under this Agreement. Each party will disclose the Confidential Information of the other party only to the employees, service providers or contractors of the recipient party who have a need to know the Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement and who are under a duty of confidentiality no less restrictive than each party's duty hereunder. Each party will use reasonable care to protect the confidentiality of the other party's Confidential Information.

12.2 Exceptions. The recipient's obligations under Section 12.1 with respect to any Confidential Information will terminate if the recipient can show by written records that the information: (a) was already known to the recipient at the time of disclosure by the other party; (b) was disclosed to the recipient by a third party who had the right to make the disclosure without any confidentiality restrictions; (c) is, or through no fault of the recipient has become, generally available to the public; or (d) was independently developed by the recipient without access to, or use of, discloser's Confidential Information. The recipient may disclose Confidential Information to the extent the disclosure is required by law or regulation. The recipient will provide the other party notice, when practicable, and will take reasonable steps to contest and limit the scope of any required disclosure.

13.1 Assignment. You may not assign or transfer this Agreement, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise, without our prior written consent. Any attempted assignment or transfer without that consent will be void. Subject to these limits, this Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

13.2 Notices. Any notice delivered by us to you under this Agreement will be delivered by email to the email address associated with your account or by posting on either the Service Offering Portal or the My VMware Portal, except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement. It is your responsibility to regularly check the Service Offering console and the My VMware portal for updates. We will notify you of any material, detrimental change to this Agreement, the Service Description, the Privacy Addendum, the Service Level Agreement, or the Support Policy. The modified Agreement, Service Description, Privacy Addendum, Service Level Agreement, or Support Policy, as applicable, will become effective as of the date stated in that notification. If we make a material, detrimental change to the Service Offering (other than the termination or modification of any beta feature or functionality), this Agreement, the Service Description, the Privacy Addendum, the Service Level Agreement, or the Support Policy, then you may terminate this Agreement within 30 days of the change to the Service Offering or within 30 days of the notification. In that event, the termination will be effective as of the date we receive your notification, unless you state an effective date in your notification that is within 45 days after we receive your notification. In the event of that termination, we will refund any prepaid fees, pro-rated for the remainder of your Subscription Term, and less any discounts that would then not be earned. Your continued use of the Service Offering after the effective date of any modification to the Agreement, the Service Description, the Privacy Addendum, the Third Party Terms, the Service Level Agreement, or the Support Policy will be deemed acceptance of the modified terms, as applicable.

13.4 Waiver. The waiver of a breach of any provision of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of any other provision or any later breach.

13.5 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to effect the intent of the parties, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in force.

The Lead State shall not be required to provide advance written notice or a cure period and may immediately terminate this Master Agreement in whole or in part if the Lead State, in its sole discretion, determines that it is reasonably necessary to preserve public safety or prevent immediate public crisis. 13. Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

a. The Contractor shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless NASPO, NASPO ValuePoint, the Lead State, Participating Entities, and Purchasing Entities, along with their officers, agents, and employees as well as any person or entity for which they may be liable, from and against claims, damages or causes of action including reasonable attorneys' fees and related costs for any death, bodily injury, or damage to real or tangible property arising directly or indirectly from the negligent or wrongful act(s), error(s), or omission(s) of the Contractor, its employees or subcontractors or volunteers, at any tier, relating to the performance under the Master Agreement.

If the Contractor promptly and reasonably investigates and defends any Intellectual Property Claim, it shall have control over the defense and settlement of it. However, the Indemnified Party must consent in writing for any money damages or obligations for which it may be responsible. The Indemnified Party shall furnish, at the Contractor's reasonable request and expense, information and assistance necessary for such defense. If the Contractor fails to vigorously pursue the defense or settlement of the Intellectual Property Claim, the Indemnified Party may assume the defense or settlement of it and the Contractor shall be liable for all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and related costs, incurred by the Indemnified Party in the pursuit of the Intellectual Property Claim. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, this section is not

(ii) two million dollars ($2,000,000), whichever is greater.

(2) The Purchasing Entity may retain such monies from any amount due Contractor as may be necessary to satisfy any claim for damages, costs and the like asserted against the Purchasing Entity unless Contractor at the time of the presentation of claim shall demonstrate to the Purchasing Entity's satisfaction that sufficient monies are set aside by the Contractor in the form of a bond or through insurance coverage to cover associated damages and other costs.

(3) Notwithstanding the above, neither the Contractor nor the Purchasing Entity shall be liable for any consequential, indirect or special damages of any kind which may result directly or indirectly from such performance, including, without limitation, damages resulting from loss of use or loss of profit by the Purchasing Entity, the Contractor, or by others.

d. The limitations of liability in Section 13(c) do not apply to claims for bodily injury or death as set forth in Section 13(a) or Intellectual Property Claims as set forth in Section 13(b).

14. Independent Contractor: The Contractor shall be an independent contractor. Contractor shall have no authorization, express or implied, to bind the Lead State, Participating States, other Participating Entities, or Purchasing Entities to any agreements, settlements, liability or understanding whatsoever, and agrees not to hold itself out as agent except as expressly set forth herein or as expressly agreed in any Participating Addendum.

Each Purchasing Entity will be responsible for its own charges, fees, and liabilities. The Contractor will apply the charges and invoice each Purchasing Entity individually.

No Waiver of Sovereign Immunity: In no event shall this Master Agreement, any Participating Addendum or any contract or any Purchase Order issued thereunder, or any act of a Lead State, a Participating Entity, or a Purchasing Entity be a waiver of any form of defense or immunity, whether sovereign immunity, governmental immunity, immunity based on the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or otherwise, from any claim or from the jurisdiction of any court.

This section applies to a claim brought against the Participating State only to the extent Congress has appropriately abrogated the Participating State's sovereign immunity and is not consent by the Participating State to be sued in federal court. This section is also not a waiver by the Participating State of any form of immunity, including but not limited to sovereign immunity and immunity based on the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

19. Ordering

a. Master Agreement order and purchase order numbers shall be clearly shown on all acknowledgments, shipping labels, packing slips, invoices, and on all correspondence.

b. This Master Agreement permits Purchasing Entities to define project-specific requirements and informally compete the requirement among other firms having a Master Agreement on an "as needed" basis. This procedure may also be used when requirements are aggregated or other firm commitments may be made to achieve reductions in pricing. This procedure may be modified in Participating Addenda and adapted to Purchasing Entity rules and policies. The Purchasing Entity may in its sole discretion determine which firms should be solicited for a quote. The Purchasing Entity may select the quote that it considers most advantageous, cost and other factors considered.

c. Each Purchasing Entity will identify and utilize its own appropriate purchasing procedure and documentation. Contractor is expected to become familiar with the Purchasing Entities' rules, policies, and procedures regarding the ordering of supplies and/or services contemplated by this Master Agreement.

(7) The Master Agreement identifier and the Participating State contract identifier.

g. All communications concerning administration of Orders placed shall be furnished solely to the authorized purchasing agent within the Purchasing Entity's purchasing office, or to such other individual identified in writing in the Order.

h. Orders must be placed pursuant to this Master Agreement prior to the termination date of this Master Agreement. Contractor is reminded that financial obligations of Purchasing Entities payable after the current applicable fiscal year are contingent upon agency funds for that purpose being appropriated, budgeted, and otherwise made available.

i. Notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Master Agreement, Contractor agrees to perform in accordance with the terms of any Orders then outstanding at the time of such expiration or termination. Contractor shall not honor any Orders placed after the expiration or termination of this Master Agreement. Orders from any separate indefinite quantity, task orders, or other form of indefinite delivery order arrangement priced against this Master Agreement may not be placed after the expiration or termination of this Master Agreement, notwithstanding the term of any such indefinite delivery order agreement.

33. Waiver of Breach: Failure of the Lead State, Participating Entity, or Purchasing Entity to declare a default or enforce any rights and remedies shall not operate as a waiver under this Master Agreement or Participating Addendum. Any waiver by the Lead State, Participating Entity, or Purchasing Entity must be in writing. Waiver by the Lead State or Participating Entity of any default, right or remedy under this Master Agreement or Participating Addendum, or by Purchasing Entity with respect to any Purchase Order, or breach of any terms or requirements of this Master Agreement, a Participating Addendum, or Purchase Order shall not be construed or operate as a waiver of any subsequent default or breach of such term or requirement, or of any other term or requirement under this Master Agreement, Participating Addendum, or Purchase Order.

34. Assignment of Antitrust Rights: Contractor irrevocably assigns to a Participating Entity who is a state any claim for relief or cause of action which the Contractor now has or which may accrue to the Contractor in the future by reason of any violation of state or federal antitrust laws (15 U.S.C. § 1-15 or a Participating Entity's state antitrust provisions), as now in effect and as may be amended from time to time, in connection with any goods or services provided to the Contractor for the purpose of carrying out the Contractor's obligations under this Master Agreement or Participating Addendum, including, at a Participating Entity's option, the right to control any such litigation on such claim for relief or cause of action.

36. Performance and Payment Time Frames that Exceed Contract Duration: All maintenance or other agreements for services entered into during the duration of an SLA and whose performance and payment time frames extend beyond the duration of this Master Agreement shall remain in effect for performance and payment purposes (limited to the time frame and services established per each written agreement). No new leases, maintenance or other agreements for services may be executed after the Master Agreement has expired. For the purposes of this section, renewals of maintenance, subscriptions, SaaS subscriptions and agreements, and other service agreements, shall not be considered as "new."

38. No Guarantee of Service Volumes: The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that the Lead State and NASPO ValuePoint makes no representation, warranty or condition as to the nature, timing, quality, quantity or volume of business for the Services or any other products and services that the Contractor may realize from this Master Agreement, or the compensation that may be earned by the Contractor by offering the Services. The Contractor acknowledges and agrees that it has conducted its own due diligence prior to entering into this Master Agreement as to all the foregoing matters.

39. NASPO ValuePoint eMarket Center: In July 2011, NASPO ValuePoint entered into a multi-year agreement with SciQuest, Inc. whereby SciQuest will provide certain electronic catalog hosting and management services to enable eligible NASPO

12. Infringement Indemnification.

Subject to the limit of liability set forth above, Virtustream shall defend, or at its option, settle and pay any claim, suit, or proceeding brought against Licensee based on an allegation that the Software (excluding Third Party Software or Trial Software, if any) infringe or misappropriate any copyright or trade secret or any United States patent or trademark ("Infringement Claim"), provided Licensee promptly notify Virtustream in writing of Licensee's notification or discovery of an Infringement Claim such that Virtustream is not prejudiced by any delay in such notification. Virtustream may participate in the defense or settlement of any Infringement Claim and Licensee will provide reasonable assistance in the defense of same. Following notice of an Infringement Claim or if Virtustream believes such a claim is likely, Virtustream may at its sole expense and option: (i) procure for Licensee the right to continue to Use/use the allegedly infringing Software; (ii) replace or modify the allegedly infringing Software to make it non-infringing; or (iii) if neither of the foregoing is commercially reasonable, accept return of the allegedly infringing Software and provide Licensee with a pro-rata refund of the applicable License Fees paid to Virtustream for the allegedly infringing Software based on a term of sixty (60) months following execution of the applicable Order for the Software. Virtustream assumes no liability for any Infringement Claims or allegations of infringement or misappropriation based on: (i) Licensee's continued Use/use of allegedly infringing Software after notice from Virtustream that Licensee should cease Use/use of same due to an allegation of infringement or misappropriation; (ii) any modification of the Software by Licensee or at Licensee's direction or Virtustream's compliance with instructions or directives of Licensee; or (iii) Licensee's combination of the Software with other programs, data, hardware, or other materials, if such Infringement Claim would have been avoided by the use of the Software without such combination; or (iv) Infringement Claim is alleged in any way to result from the Use/use of the Software in combination with equipment or third party software not approved by Virtustream; or (v) any Unlicensed Use/use of the Software. 2. LICENSE, TERM, AND TERMINATION.

2.1 Term. Unless earlier terminated, this Agreement will be in effect for the subscription term identified in the applicable Order Confirmation (the "Initial Term"). Subject to the foregoing, Case Commons acquires no right, title or interest from You with respect to Your Data. In addition, if You or Your Users provide to Case Commons any ideas, proposals, suggestions or other materials ("Feedback"), whether related to the Services or otherwise, You authorize Case Commons to use such Feedback (including to incorporate such Feedback into the Services) during and after the Term. You acknowledge and agree that any such Feedback does not constitute Your Confidential Information or Your Data, that your provision of such Feedback is gratuitous, unsolicited and without restriction, and does not place Case Commons under any fiduciary or other obligation (including any obligation to use such Feedback).

2.8 Termination.

(a) You may terminate this Agreement as provided in the Master Contract. To the extent permitted by applicable law, if You are not a U.S. Government agency, department, or instrumentality, upon thirty (30) days' written notice, Case Commons may terminate this Agreement (and Your rights of access and use hereunder) in the event that You breach any provision of this Agreement and have not cured the breach during such thirty (30) day period. 4.1 Performance Warranty. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Case Commons warrants that the Purchased Services shall conform substantially to the then-current applicable Services specifications for ninety (90) days from the date of execution of this Agreement (the "Warranty Period"). If any Purchased Services (or any portion thereof) do not so conform, and You so notify Case Commons promptly within the Warranty Period, at Case Commons' option, Case Commons shall correct or provide a workaround for or replace the defective Services or refund the Subscription Fees paid for such Services. This Section 4.1 states Case Commons's sole obligation, and, with the exception of Your termination rights, Your sole and exclusive remedy, for any breach of the foregoing warranty. Case Commons makes no warranty that its Services shall work in combination with Your Data or any hardware or software products of third parties, that the operation of the Services shall be uninterrupted or error-free, or that all defects in the Services shall be corrected.

4.2 Warranty Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 4.1(A) ABOVE, CASE COMMONS DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT AND THE SERVICES, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NONINFRINGEMENT, QUIET ENJOYMENT AND WARRANTIES ARISING OUT OF COURSE OF DEALING OR USAGE OF TRADE. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT CASE COMMONS DOES NOT CONTROL THE TRANSFER OF DATA OVER COMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES, INCLUDING THE INTERNET, AND THAT THE SERVICES MAY BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS, DELAYS, AND OTHER PROBLEMS INHERENT IN THE USE OF SUCH COMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES. CASE COMMONS IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DELAYS, ERRORS, OR OTHER DAMAGES RESULTING FROM SUCH PROBLEMS. YOU AGREE THAT, AS BETWEEN YOU AND CASE COMMONS, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ACCURACY AND QUALITY OF YOUR DATA INPUT INTO THE SERVICES, AND CASE COMMONS IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY ISSUES RELATED TO THE PERFORMANCE, OPERATION OR SECURITY OF THE SERVICES THAT ARISE FROM YOUR DATA. FURTHERMORE, THE WARRANTIES SET FORTH ABOVE SHALL NOT APPLY TO: (A) ANY THIRD PARTY SERVICES, SOFTWARE OR HARDWARE, WHETHER OR NOT SUCH THIRD PARTY SERVICES, SOFTWARE OR HARDWARE IS PROVIDED BY CASE COMMONS; (B) ANY SERVICES THAT HAVE BEEN MODIFIED, REPAIRED OR ALTERED, EXCEPT BY CASE COMMONS; (C) ANY SERVICES WHICH HAVE NOT BEEN ACCESSED AND USED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY INSTRUCTIONS SUPPLIED BY CASE COMMONS; OR (D) ANY SERVICES THAT HAVE BEEN SUBJECTED TO MISUSE, ABUSE, NEGLIGENCE OR ACCIDENTS. CASE COMMONS SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY OF YOUR DATA PURSUANT TO ANY WARRANTY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR OTHERWISE.

4.3 Limitation of Liability. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, CASE COMMONS' TOTAL CUMULATIVE LIABILITY TO YOU IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT AND THE SERVICES, FROM ALL CAUSES OF ACTION AND ALL THEORIES OF LIABILITY, WILL BE LIMITED TO AND WILL NOT EXCEED TWELVE (12) TIMES THE AVERAGE MONTHLY AMOUNTS PAID BY YOU TO CASE COMMONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. IN NO EVENT SHALL CASE COMMONS BE LIABLE FOR ANY UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS TO OR ALTERATION, THEFT OR DESTRUCTION OF YOUR DATA IN CONNECTION WITH YOUR ACCESS TO OR USE OF THE SERVICES, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT RESULTING DIRECTLY FROM CASE COMMONS' MATERIAL FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR TO IMPLEMENT AND MAINTAIN INDUSTRY-STANDARD SECURITY MEASURES THROUGHOUT THE TERM OF THIS AGREEMENT. IN NO EVENT WILL CASE COMMONS BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOSS OF USE, DATA, OR PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, OR COSTS OF PROCURING SUBSTITUTE SOFTWARE OR SERVICES) ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE USE OR PERFORMANCE OF THE SERVICES, WHETHER SUCH LIABILITY ARISES FROM CONTRACT, WARRANTY, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE, AND WHETHER OR NOT CASE COMMONS HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSS OR DAMAGE. THE PARTIES HAVE AGREED THAT THESE LIMITATIONS WILL SURVIVE AND APPLY EVEN IF ANY REMEDY IS FOUND TO HAVE FAILED OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, CASE

COMMONS WILL HAVE NO LIABILITY OR RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY BUSINESS INTERRUPTION OR LOSS OF DATA ARISING FROM THE SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION OF THE RIGHTS GRANTED HEREIN AND ANY ASSOCIATED CESSATION OF YOUR ACCESS TO AND USE OF THE SERVICES, OR FOR ANY HARM OR DAMAGES CAUSED BY ANY THIRD-PARTY HOSTING PROVIDER USED BY CASE COMMONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE SERVICES. BECAUSE SOME STATES OR JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW LIMITATION OR EXCLUSION OF CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU. The foregoing exclusion/limitation of liability shall not apply to (a) personal injury or death resulting from Case Commons' gross negligence; (b) Case Commons' fraud; (c) any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law; or (d) as applicable, express remedies provided under any FAR, GSAR or Schedule 70 solicitation clauses incorporated into the GSA Schedule 70 contract.

4.4 Indemnity.

(a) Case Commons will defend, indemnify and hold You harmless from and against any loss, damage, liability or cost (including reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from any third party claim that Your use of the Purchased Services, as made available to You by Case Commons under this Agreement and as used by You in accordance with this Agreement, misappropriates or infringes any third-party trade secret or United States copyright. The foregoing indemnity obligation shall not extend to any claims of misappropriation or infringement arising out of or related to: (a) modification of the Services by anyone other than Case Commons; (b) combination of the Services (including any access to or use thereof) with any third party software, hardware or materials where such combination is the cause of such misappropriation or infringement; (c) use of the Services other than in accordance with this Agreement; or (d) Your Data. THIS SECTION 4.4 SETS FORTH CASE COMMONS' SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE LIABILITY AND YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES FOR ANY CLAIM THAT THE SERVICES, OR YOUR ACCESS TO OR USE THEREOF, INFRINGES OR MISAPPROPRIATES ANY THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ANY KIND. In the event of any claim which Case Commons is obligated to indemnify You from hereunder, Case Commons shall have control of the defense and all related settlement negotiations to the extent permitted by applicable law, and You shall reasonably cooperate with Case Commons in the defense and/or settlement thereof at Case Commons' expense to the extent permitted by applicable law; provided that You may participate in such defense using Your own counsel, at Your own expense.

(b) You will defend, indemnify and hold Case Commons harmless from and against any loss, damage, liability or cost (including reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from any third party claim in connection with Your use of the Services, including (i) any third party claim that Your Data or Your use of the Services other than in accordance with this Agreement, misappropriates or infringes any third-party intellectual property or other proprietary right (including any rights of publicity or privacy), and (ii) any violation of law by You in connection with Your use of the Services; provided that the indemnity under this Section 4.4(b) shall not apply to any third-party claim which Case Commons is obligated to indemnify You from under Section 4.4(a); and provided further that this Section 4.4(b) shall not apply to the extent that applicable law prohibits You from indemnifying Case Commons as provided in this Section 4.4(b). In the event of any claim which You are obligated to indemnify Case Commons from hereunder, You shall have control of the defense and all related settlement negotiations to the extent permitted by applicable law, and Case Commons shall reasonably cooperate with You in the defense and/or settlement thereof at Your expense to the extent permitted by applicable law; provided that Case Commons may participate in such defense using Case Commons' own counsel, at Case Commons' own expense.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY.

5.1 Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means (a) with respect to Case Commons, the Services and any Case Commons: (i) information that is marked in writing by Case Commons as "confidential" or "proprietary" at the time of disclosure, (ii) information that, if disclosed orally or in other intangible form, is identified as confidential at the time of such disclosure, and (iii) information that, due to its nature or under the circumstances of its disclosure, You know or have reason to know should be treated as confidential or proprietary; and (b) with respect to You: (i) Your Data; and (ii) information that is marked in writing by You or Your Users as "confidential" or "proprietary" at the time of disclosure.

5.2 Exclusions. Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes generally known to the public through no fault or breach of this Agreement by the receiving party or any of its Representatives (as defined below); (b) is rightfully known by the receiving party or its Representatives at the time of disclosure without an obligation of confidentiality, as evidenced by the receiving party's contemporaneous written records; (c) is independently developed or acquired by the receiving party or its Representatives without use of the disclosing party's Confidential Information; (d) is rightfully received by the receiving party or its Representatives from a third party without restriction on use or disclosure; or (e) is disclosed with the prior written approval of the disclosing party.

5.3 Use and Disclosure Restrictions. Neither party will use the other party's Confidential Information except as necessary for the performance or enforcement of this Agreement, and neither party will disclose such Confidential Information except to those of its and its affiliates' employees, consultants, accountants, auditors, attorneys, contractors, subcontractors and service providers providing services to such party (collectively, the "Representatives") who have a bona fide need to know such Confidential Information for the performance or enforcement of this Agreement; provided that each such Representative is bound by confidentiality obligations consistent with the terms set forth in this Section. Each party will employ all reasonable steps to protect the other party's Confidential Information from unauthorized use or disclosure, including, but not limited to, all steps that it takes to protect its own information of like importance. The foregoing obligations will not restrict either party from disclosing the other party's Confidential Information: (a) pursuant to the order or requirement of a court, administrative agency, or other governmental body or law, provided that the party required to make such a disclosure, to the extent permissible under the circumstances, (i) gives reasonable notice to the other party to contest such order or requirement, and (ii) only furnishes that portion of the Confidential Information that it reasonably determines, in consultation with its counsel, is legally required to be disclosed, and to exercise all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to the Confidential Information it discloses; (b) to its legal or financial advisors; (c) as required under applicable securities regulations; and (d) subject to customary restrictions, to present or future providers of venture capital and/or potential private investors in or acquirers of such party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing in this Section 5 permits any Representative that is not a User to access or use the Services. The receiving party is responsible for the compliance of its Representatives with this this Agreement, and any act or omission of any Representative that would be a breach of this Agreement if made by the receiving party will be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by the receiving party.

6.2 Force Majeure. Neither party will be responsible for any failure or delay in its performance under this Agreement (except for the payment of money) due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, any electrical, internet, or telecommunication outage that is not caused by the obligated party; any failure or delay caused by a third-party hosting provider; Internet service provider failure or delay; denial of service attacks; labor disputes, strikes, or lockouts; acts of war or terror; riots; acts of God; and governmental actions (each, a "Force Majeure Event").

6.3 Severability. All rights and remedies, whether conferred hereunder or by any other instrument or law, will be cumulative and may be exercised singularly or concurrently to the extent permitted by law. Failure or a delay by either Case Commons or You to enforce any term will not be deemed a waiver of future enforcement of that or any other term. the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not be affected, and if necessary, the valid and enforceable provisions(s) shall be negotiated and substituted therefor to accomplish the intent of the severed provisions(s) as nearly as practicable.

6.4 Export. You agree to comply fully with all relevant export laws and regulations of the United States ("Export Laws") to ensure that the Services are not (a) exported or re-exported directly or indirectly in violation of Export Laws; or (b) used or intended to be used for any purposes prohibited by the Export Laws, including but not limited to nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons proliferation.

6.5 Government End User Rights. You acknowledge that no part of the Services were first produced in the performance of a U.S. Government contract. You agree that all Services are "commercial items" as defined in 48 C.F.R. § 2.101, and if You are a U.S. Government agency, department or instrumentality or if You are providing all or any part of the Services to the U.S. Government (or any agency, department or instrumentality of the U.S. Government), such use, duplication, reproduction, release, modification, disclosure or transfer of this commercial product and data, is restricted in accordance with 48 C.F.R. § 12.211, 48 C.F.R. § 12.212, 48 C.F.R. § 227.7102-2, and 48 C.F.R. § 227.7202, as applicable. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. § 12.211, 48 C.F.R. § 12.212, 48 C.F.R. § 227.7102-1 through 48 C.F.R. § 227.7102-3, and 48 C.F.R. §§ 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, as applicable, the Services are made available to U.S. Government end users (a) only as Commercial Items, and (b) with only those rights as are granted to all other users pursuant to this Agreement and any related agreement(s), as applicable. Accordingly, You will have no rights in the Services except as expressly agreed to in writing by You and Case Commons.

6.6 Choice of Law and Disputes. If the U.S. Government (or any agency, department or instrumentality of the U.S. Government) is not a party to this Agreement, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, U.S.A., without giving effect to its principles of conflict of law, and regardless of Your location, and You agree to exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in the County of New York, State of New York, U.S.A., and waive any jurisdictional, venue or inconvenient forum objections to such courts. If the U.S. Government (or any agency, department or instrumentality of the U.S. Government) is a party to this Agreement, this Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the Contract Disputes Act of 1978, as amended (41 U.S.C. 7101-7109), and failure of the parties to reach agreement on any request for equitable adjustment, claim, appeal, or action arising under or relating to this Agreement shall be a dispute to be resolved in accordance with the clause at 48 C.F.R. § 52.233-1, which is incorporated in this Agreement by reference.

6.7 Miscellaneous. If any portion of this Agreement is found to be void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. Neither party may assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the other party's prior written consent, except that Case Commons may assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, (a) in connection with an internal reorganization or a sale of all or substantially all of Case Commons' business with which this Agreement is associated (whether by acquisition, merger, reorganization, consolidation or similar transaction) without Your prior written consent, and (b) in any manner in accordance with applicable law (such as in accordance with 48 C.F.R. § 42.12 or the Assignment of Claims Act (31 U.S.C. § 3727)). Any attempt to assign this Agreement other than as permitted above will be null and void. This Agreement is intended for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties and is not intended to benefit any third party. Only the parties to this Agreement may enforce it. This Agreement (including the Attachments hereto and any Order Confirmations), together with the Master Contract (if applicable) and, if You are a U.S. Government agency, department, or instrumentality, the underlying GSA Schedule Contract, the Schedule Price List and any applicable GSA Customer Purchase Orders, constitute the complete and exclusive understanding and agreement between the parties regarding their subject matter and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements or understandings, written or oral, relating to their subject matter. Any waiver, modification or amendment of any provision of this Agreement will be effective only if in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both parties.

SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1. "Availability" means the ability of the Services in a production environment to be ready for Users to access. Availability will be 99%, excluding unavailability of the Services during Scheduled Maintenance or Emergency Maintenance Downtime, or resulting from a User-Generated Error or Force Majeure Event.

1.2. "Business Day" means each of Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, but not including (a) weekend days of Saturday and Sunday, (b) U.S. Federal holidays, and (c) state holidays recognized by Case Commons or by You.

1.3. "Business Hour" means 8am to 6pm U.S. Eastern Time during a Business Day.

1.4. "Defect" means a problem within the Case Commons applications in a production environment and accessed through the Services, and/or a problem within those portions of software integrations in a production environment within Case Commons' control, that causes incorrect or unexpected results, where (in each case) such problem is a result of Case Commons' failure to perform its obligations under the Agreement, but (in each case) excluding any unavailability of the Services during Downtime, Scheduled Maintenance or Emergency Maintenance Downtime, or resulting from a User-Generated Error or Force Majeure Event. There are two (2) types of Defects: Major Defects and Minor Defects, each as defined below.

1.5. "Downtime" means unanticipated unavailability of the Services as a whole in a production environment for any period of time greater than five (5) continuous minutes when 5% or more of Users on Supported Browsers cannot access the Services as a whole in a production environment due to a technical error, outage or other problem, where such problem is a result of Case Commons' failure to perform its obligations under the Agreement, but excluding unavailability of the Services during Scheduled Maintenance or Emergency Maintenance Downtime, or resulting from a User-Generated Error or Force Majeure Event.

1.6. "Emergency Maintenance Downtime" is unscheduled downtime where Case Commons can address identified issues such as emergency fixes or security risks. Case Commons will, to the extent practicable given the nature and severity of the issue (as determined by Case Commons in its discretion), use commercially reasonable efforts to give reasonable prior notice (including via email) of Emergency Maintenance Downtime to Your technical contacts.

1.7. "Help Desk" means Your designated help desk for the Services, which will be operated by, and consist of, Your designated staff.

1.8. "Incident" means a Severity Level A, B, or C Incident, each as further described in Table 1 below.

1.9. "Incident Report" means a request to the Help Desk for resolution of an Incident or other issue.

1.10. "Incident Resolution" means a code fix, patch, or other modification or addition that resolves an Incident. Incident Resolution occurs once a code fix, patch, or other modification or addition that resolves an Incident has been created and tested as acceptable by Case Commons and is ready to be deployed or otherwise implemented.

1.11. "Major Defect" means a Defect which results in Users on Supported Browsers not being able to use the Services in one or more material respects to (a) do their day-to-day work requiring use of the Services, (b) generate Your legally-mandated State and Federal compliance reports, and/or (c) submit information to the federal government as required by applicable law or regulation.

1.12. "Minor Defect" means any Defect that does not constitute a Major Defect (such as, e.g., a design or other cosmetic, content or formatting problem).

1.13. "Scheduled Maintenance" means occasional maintenance to add resources, upgrade software, install security patches and perform other maintenance activities. Scheduled Maintenance should occur at a standard mutually agreed upon time.

1.14. "Service Levels" means those service levels set forth in Table 1 below.

2. LEVEL 1 AND LEVEL 2 SUPPORT

2.1. You shall create, staff, and operate both the Level 1 and Level 2 Help Desks (each as defined below), and follow the procedures herein before raising any Incident or other issue to the Level 3 Help Desk (as defined below). The "Level 1 Help Desk" will be responsible for initial assessment of each Incident Report, including password resets, training, connectivity issues, hardware and/or software issues, and functionality developed by Your technical staff. In all circumstances, Incident Reports will initially come in to the Level 1 Help Desk. The "Level 2 Help Desk" will be responsible for assessment of all tickets raised to the Level 2 Help Desk by the Level 1 Help Desk, and for all hardware, software, and network connectivity required to support the Services and all modules, interfaces, middleware, and data owned by You or otherwise not supplied by Case Commons.

2.2. The Level 1 and Level 2 Help Desks will (a) use a ticketing system to log the number, type and resolution status of each Incident and other issue identified in an Incident Report, (b) attempt to resolve each such Incident and other issue prior to raising any Incident or other issue to the Level 2 or Level 3 Help Desks (as applicable and as further described below), and (c) record within the ticketing system a description of any actions taken to reproduce and/or remedy each such Incident or other issue.

2.3. Only if Your technical staff reasonably determines that an Incident or other issue cannot be remedied by either the Level 1 or the Level 2 Help Desk, the Level 1 or Level 2 Help Desk (as applicable) has verified that the Incident or other issue can be replicated, and You have otherwise complied with the ticketing requirements set forth in Section 3.2(a) below, the Level 1 or Level 2 Help Desk (as applicable) will open a trouble ticket using Case Commons' web-based ticketing system (each, a "Trouble Ticket") to escalate the Incident or other issue to the Case Commons Level 3 Help Desk (the "Level 3 Help Desk").

3. LEVEL 3 SUPPORT

3.1. Technical Contacts. Case Commons is responsible for assessment of all Incidents and other issues appropriately raised to Case Commons by the Level 1 and Level 2 Help Desks in accordance with the procedures described in Section 2 above. You shall promptly log all such Incidents and other issues via Case Commons' web-based ticketing system as described in Section 3.2(a) below. You will be able to reach a Case Commons technical contact 24/7/365 in case of Downtime. You will designate a sufficient number of technical contacts, as mutually agreed upon between the parties, who are authorized to propose a severity level on behalf of You on a 24/7/365 basis and who will be able to escalate to Your management as needed (as further described in Section 3.2(b) below). Your technical contacts will be available (a) on a 24x7x365 basis to answer Case Commons' questions and provide additional detail regarding Severity Level A Incidents (as defined below); and (b) on a 10x5 basis (8am to 6pm U.S. Eastern Time, Business Days) to answer Case Commons' questions and provide additional detail regarding all other Incidents and issues.

3.2. Incident Management.

(a) Trouble Ticketing. Prior to opening a Trouble Ticket in Case Commons' web-based ticketing system, You will make best efforts to have:

(i) a detailed description of the Incident Report;

(ii) a detailed description of any actions taken to produce and/or remedy each Incident or other issue identified in the Incident Report; and

(iii) a proposed severity level classification based upon the severity level definitions set forth herein.

(b) Severity Level Classification. You may propose a severity level in your Trouble Ticket based on the definitions set forth herein. Upon receipt of a Trouble Ticket, Case Commons may review and reclassify the severity level of each Incident or other issue identified therein in accordance with the definitions set forth herein. If Your technical contact and Case Commons' technical contact disagree on the severity level, all parties will treat the Incident or other issue as if it were the higher severity level until You and Case Commons' leadership make a joint final determination.

(c) Temporary Remedies / Workarounds. If Case Commons implements an agreed-upon temporary remedy or workaround, then the severity level of the incident will be reduced accordingly.

Severity Level	Description	Service Level*	Remedy
A	Critical Incident: Downtime is experienced.	Case Commons will respond to Trouble Tickets within 15 minutes (during Business Hours) and one hour (during non-Business Hours). Case Commons will achieve Incident Resolution for Severity Level A Incidents within four hours from Case Commons' initial response. Within one hour of Case Commons' initial response, Case Commons will contact Your technical contact to discuss the status of the efforts, progress and anticipated resolution that will allow the effected Services to be restored to an active and functioning state. If not resolved within four hours of Case Commons' initial response, the Remedy will be invoked.	See paragraph immediately below this table

Severity Level	Description	Service Level*	Remedy
B	High Impact Incident: A Major Defect occurs.	Case Commons will respond to Trouble Tickets within two hours from receipt during Business Hours. Case Commons will target Incident Resolution for Severity Level B Incidents within eight Business Hours from receipt of a Trouble Ticket. Case Commons will keep Your technical contacts informed of actual efforts taken and progress made upon resolution or at the end of the eight Business Hours. If not resolved within the foregoing timeframe, the Remedy will be invoked.	See paragraph immediately below this table
C	Non-Critical Issues: A Minor Defect occurs.	Case Commons will respond to Trouble Tickets within one Business Day from receipt. Case Commons will resolve such issues in a manner determined by Case Commons, with input from You. Case Commons will endeavor to address these issues in a commercially reasonable timeframe.	See paragraph immediately below this table

* The response and resolution times set forth in Table 1 above shall be tolled in the event of Scheduled Maintenance or Emergency Maintenance Downtime, such that the applicable Trouble Ticket shall be deemed received in the first Business Hour following the end of any such Scheduled Maintenance or Emergency Maintenance Downtime period.

(d) Service Level Failure Remedy. If Case Commons fails to meet the resolution times set forth above four (4) or more times in any given calendar month, You shall be entitled to a credit against future invoices under this Agreement in the amount of [$(To Be Negotiated)] per failure in that calendar month (each such credit, a "Service Level Credit"). To the extent any Service Level Credits have been incurred in a given calendar month as provided herein, Case Commons shall deduct the applicable amounts from the Subscription Fees owed to Case Commons under the Agreement, or, in the alternative and at Case Commons' discretion, issue a refund to You in the amount of any such Service Level Credits. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, in no event shall the total amount of Service Level Credits credited to You with respect to all Service Level failures occurring in a single calendar month exceed, in total, five percent (5%) of the monthly invoice amount for Subscription Fees for such calendar month. This paragraph states Case Common's sole obligation, and, with the exception of Your termination rights, Your sole and exclusive remedy, for any failure by Case Commons to comply with its obligations under this SLA.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, Case Commons shall be excused from any failure to comply with its obligations under this SLA, and any such failure shall be disregarded for purposes of calculating Service Level Credits, if such failure is caused by any of the following:

(i) Your breach of the Agreement;

(ii) a User-Generated Error;

(iii) a Force Majeure Event;

(iv) Scheduled Maintenance; or

(v) Emergency Maintenance Downtime.

3.3. Key SLA Features

(a) 24x7 support for Severity Level A Incidents;

(b) 10x5 support for all other Incidents (8am to 6pm U.S. Eastern Time, Business Days) (remotely by phone or email);

(c) Scheduled Maintenance will occur outside of 10x5 support hours on a regular schedule to be jointly agreed upon; and

(d) Emergency Maintenance can occur outside of the agreed-to Scheduled Maintenance windows.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else to the contrary in the Agreement, Case Commons will have no obligation of any kind to provide Incident Resolution or other support for any Incidents or other issues regarding the Services caused by a User-Generated Error. If Case Commons determines that it is necessary to provide Incident Resolution or other support for an Incident or other issue caused by a User-Generated Error, Case Commons will notify You thereof as soon as Case Commons is aware of such User-Generated Error and Case Commons will have the right to invoice You at Case Commons' then-current time and materials rates for any such Incident Resolution or other support provided by Case Commons.

1.4 Termination; Changes. You may terminate Support under a Service Tier as provided in the Master Contract. Subject to the remainder of this Section 1.4, You may increase or decrease the level of Service Tier selected in Your Order Confirmation upon ninety (90) days' prior written notice to Case Commons, email notice being sufficient, and effective on the first day of the applicable calendar month following such ninety (90) day notice period. You may increase or decrease the level of Service Tier by up to one (1) Service Tier at a time (e.g., You may decrease from the platinum level to the gold level, but not from the platinum level to the silver level), provided that You may not increase or decrease the level of Service Tier more than two (2) times in any calendar year.

1.5 Support Management. You are responsible for defining, prioritizing and verifying performance and acceptability of Support performed under a Service Tier, for ensuring that there is enough authorized work recorded in the Tracking Tool (as defined below) for Case Commons to work on throughout the month, based on the number of monthly hours associated with the Service Tier that is in effect at the time. Case Commons is responsible for allocating Service Tier hours among appropriately qualified Case Commons personnel. Provided that You included a sufficient amount of authorized and well-defined Support work in the Tracking Tool in a given calendar month during the Term, Service Tier hours that have not been used at the end of that month as a result of Case Commons' failure to make available sufficient Support personnel will roll over to the following month during the Term (if any). Except as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, Service Tier hours that have not been used at the end of a calendar month will expire and will not roll over to the following month.

1.6 Project Management Software Tracking Tool. The parties shall utilize a project management software tracking tool to be designated by Case Commons (the "Tracking Tool") with respect to all Support performed by Case Commons for You under a Service Tier. This allows the parties to track the progress of Support performed by Case Commons under the applicable Service Tier. Case Commons shall use commercially reasonable efforts to complete specific Support projects requested by You under a Service Tier in a commercially reasonable timeframe. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, Case Commons does not guarantee completion of any particular Support project within a particular number of hours, range of hours, or other timeframe, unless agreed upon in writing between the parties.

2. WORK PRODUCT

2.1 If, during the course of providing Support under a Service Tier, Case Commons develops for You any modifications to the Case Commons software accessed and used in connection with the Services, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement (including Section 2.6 of the Agreement), You own all right, title, and interest in and to the software code developed by Case Commons for any such modifications (such software code, the "Customer-Owned Work Product"). Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including Your payment of the Support Fees), Case Commons hereby assigns to You all of Case Commons' right, title and interest in and to such Customer-Owned Work Product, together with all of Case Commons' copyright and patent rights therein and thereto.

2.2 You hereby grant to Case Commons a perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive, fully paid-up, royalty free, transferable, sublicensable (through multiple tiers), worldwide right and license to access, use, execute, reproduce, distribute, transmit, display, perform (whether publicly or otherwise), prepare derivative works of, and otherwise modify, make, have made, import, sell, offer to sell, and otherwise use and exploit all or any portion of the Customer-Owned Work Product (in any form or media now known or later developed, including object code form and source code form) in connection with the use and other exploitation of the Services and otherwise in connection with Case Commons' business, including the granting of sublicenses to such Customer-Owned Work Product to other customers.

2.3 For clarity, with the exception of Customer-Owned Work Product, Case Commons and/or its licensors own all right, title, and interest in and to all designs, software, technology, data, documents, materials and information created or otherwise provided by or on behalf of Case Commons to You in connection with Support (collectively, "Work Product"), together with all intellectual property rights therein and thereto. Subject to Your payment of the Support Fees, Case Commons hereby grants to You a limited, non-exclusive right and license to access and use the Work Product solely in connection with your authorized use of the Services during the Term, with the right to sublicense to Your Users.

Passthrough Terms – G Suite HIPAA Business Associate Addendum

Customer has entered into a certain written agreement (the "Agreement"), including the applicable Product Passthrough Terms, pursuant to which Customer is entitled to access and use the Product: G Suite. This HIPAA Business Associate Addendum ("HIPAA BAA") is effective as of the date of the Product Passthrough Terms for the purpose of implementing the requirements of HIPAA (defined below) to support the compliance requirements thereunder. Together with the Product Passthrough Terms, this HIPAA BAA will be applicable to Protected Health Information (defined below).

1. Definitions. For purposes of this HIPAA BAA, any capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein will have the meaning given to them in the Product Passthrough Terms 6and under HIPAA.

   "HIPAA" means the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the rules and the regulations thereunder, as amended (including with respect to the HITECH Act).

   "HIPAA Implementation Guide" means the informational guide that Google makes available describing how Customer can configure and use the Services to support HIPAA compliance. The HIPAA Implementation Guide is available for review at the following URL: https://static.googleusercontent.com/media/www.google.com/en/us/work/apps/terms/2015/1/hipaa_implementation_guide.pdf (as the content at such URL and the URL itself may be updated or modified from time to time).

   "HITECH Act" means the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act enacted in the United States Congress, which is Title XIII of the American Recovery & Reinvestment Act, and the regulations thereunder, as amended.

   "Included Functionality" means functionality within the Product as described at the following URL: www.google.com/work/apps/terms/2015/1/hipaa_functionality.html (as the content at that URL, or such other URL as may be provided, may be updated from time to time).

   "Product" means only the G Suite Core Services that Provider makes available to Customer under the applicable Product Passthrough Terms as further described at the following URL: http://www.google.com/apps/intl/en-in/terms/user_features.html (as the content at such URL and the URL itself may be updated or modified from time to time).

   "Protected Health Information" or "PHI" will have the meaning given to it under HIPAA to if provided as Customer Data in connection with Customer's permitted use of Included Functionality.

   "Provider" means the third party provider of the Product.

   "Security Rule" means 45 C.F.R., Part 164, Subpart C, under HIPAA.

2. Applicability.

   2.1. Parties. This HIPAA BAA applies to the extent Customer is acting as a Covered Entity or Business Associate, to create, receive, maintain or transmit PHI via the Included Functionality and where Provider, as a result, is deemed under HIPAA to be acting as a Business Associate of Customer.

   2.2. Services Scope. This HIPAA BAA is applicable only to the Included Functionality. The scope of Included Functionality may expand. If the scope of Included Functionality expands, then this HIPAA BAA will automatically apply to such additional new functionality and features as of the date the Included Functionality description is updated, or the date Provider has otherwise provided written communication regarding an update to the scope of Included Functionality to Customer's Notification Email Address (whichever date is earlier).

3. Permitted Use and Disclosure.

   3.1. By Provider. Provider may use and disclose PHI only as permitted under HIPAA as specified in the Product Passthrough Terms and under this HIPAA BAA. Provider may also use and disclose PHI for the proper management and administration of Provider's business, for provisioning the Product, and to carry out the legal responsibilities of Provider, provided that any disclosure of PHI for such purpose may only occur if: (1) required by applicable law; or (2) Provider obtains written reasonable assurances from the person to whom PHI will be disclosed that it will be held in confidence, used only for the purpose for which it was disclosed, and that Provider will be notified of any Breach.

3.2. By Customer. Customer will not request Provider or the Product to use or disclose PHI in any manner that would not be permissible under HIPAA if done by a Covered Entity itself (unless otherwise expressly permitted under HIPAA for a Business Associate). In connection with Customer's management and administration of the Product to End Users, Customer is responsible for using the available controls within the Product to support its HIPAA compliance requirements, including reviewing the HIPAA Implementation Guide and enforcing appropriate controls to support Customer's HIPAA compliance. Customer will not use the Product to create, receive, maintain or transmit PHI to other products or services outside of the Included Functionality, except where Customer has expressly entered into a separate HIPAA business associate agreement for use of such other products or services. If Customer uses Included Functionality in connection with PHI, Customer will use controls available within the Product to ensure: (i) all other products or services not part of the Product are disabled for all End Users who use Included Functionality in connection with PHI (except those products or services where Customer already has an appropriate HIPAA business associate agreement in place); and (ii) it takes appropriate measures to limit its use of PHI in the Product to the minimum extent necessary for Customer to carry out its authorized use of such PHI. Customer agrees that Provider has no obligation to protect PHI under this HIPAA BAA to the extent Customer creates, receives, maintains, or transmits such PHI outside of the Included Functionality (including Customer's use of its offline or on-premise storage tools or third party applications).

4. Appropriate Safeguards. The Product is subject to appropriate safeguards designed to prevent against unauthorized use or disclosure of PHI, consistent with this HIPAA BAA, and as otherwise required under the Security Rule, with respect to the Included Functionality. Customer will use appropriate safeguards designed to prevent against unauthorized use or disclosure of PHI, consistent with this HIPAA BAA, and as otherwise required under the Security Rule, with respect to the Included Functionality.

5. Reporting. Customer will be promptly notify following the discovery of a Breach resulting in the unauthorized use or disclosure of PHI in violation of this HIPAA BAA in the most expedient time possible under the circumstances, consistent with the legitimate needs of applicable law enforcement and applicable laws, and after taking any measures necessary to determine the scope of the Breach and to restore the reasonable integrity of the Services system by using commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate any further harmful effects to the extent practicable. Customer will receive any applicable Breach notifications via the Notification Email Address (as such contact is designated in the Product by Customer) or via direct communication with the Customer. For clarity, Customer and not Provider, is responsible for managing whether its End Users are authorized to create, receive, maintain or transmit PHI within the Product and Provider does not have any obligations relating thereto. This Section 5 will be deemed as notice to Customer that Provider periodically receives unsuccessful attempts for unauthorized access, use, disclosure, modification or destruction of information or interference with the general operation of Provider's information systems and the Services and even if such events are defined as a Security Incident under HIPAA, Customer will not receive any further notice regarding such unsuccessful attempts.

6. Agents and Subcontractors. As related to the Product, appropriate measures are taken to ensure that any agents and subcontractors used by Provider to perform its obligations related to the provision of the Product that require access to PHI on behalf of Provider are bound by written obligations that provide the same material level of protection for PHI as this HIPAA BAA. To the extent Provider uses agents and subcontractors in its performance of obligations hereunder, Provider will remain responsible for their performance as if performed by Provider itself under the Product Passthrough Terms.

7. Accounting Rights. PHI will be made available to Customer via the Product so Customer may fulfill its obligation to give individuals their rights of access, amendment, and accounting in accordance with the requirements under HIPAA. Customer is responsible for managing its use of the Product to appropriately respond to such individual requests.

8. Access to Records. To the extent required by law, and subject to applicable attorney client privileges, Provider will make its internal practices, books, and records concerning the use and disclosure of PHI received from Customer, or created or received by Provider on behalf of Customer, available to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (the "Secretary") for the purpose of the Secretary determining compliance with this HIPAA BAA.

9. Return/Destruction of Information. Upon termination of the Product Passthrough Terms or the Agreement, all PHI received from Customer, or created or received by Provider on behalf of Customer, which is still maintained in accordance with the section titled "Effects of Termination" (or as otherwise expressly agreed in writing) under the Product Passthrough Terms will be returned or destroyed; provided, however, that if such return or destruction is not feasible, the protections of this HIPAA BAA will extent to the PHI not returned or destroyed and limit further uses and disclosures to those purposes that make the return or destruction of the PHI infeasible. In the event this HIPAA BAA is terminated earlier than the the Product Passthrough Terms or Agreement Customer may continue to use the Product in accordance with the the Product Passthrough Terms, but must delete any PHI it maintains in the Product and cease to create, receive, maintain or transmit such PHI to Provider or within the Product.

10. Breach/Cure. Customer may immediately terminate this HIPAA BAA and the Product Passthrough Terms upon 10 days written notice if Provider has materially breached this HIPAA BAA and such breach is not reasonably capable of being cured.

11. Term. This HIPAA BAA will expire upon the earlier of: (i) a permitted termination in accordance with this HIPAA BAA; (ii) the natural expiration or termination of the Product Passthrough Terms; (iii) the natural expiration or termination of the existing Agreement; or (iv) the execution of an updated HIPAA BAA that supersedes this HIPAA BAA.

12. Interpretation. It is the parties' intent that any ambiguity under this HIPAA BAA be interpreted consistently with the intent to comply with applicable laws.

13. Effect of Addendum. This HIPAA BAA supersedes in its entirety any pre-existing HIPAA BAA executed by the parties covering the same Product. To the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this HIPAA BAA and the Product Passthrough Terms or the Agreement, the terms of this HIPAA BAA will govern. Except as expressly modified or amended under this HIPAA BAA, the terms of the Passthrough Terms and the Agreement remain in full force and effect.

Those safeguards will include, but will not be limited to, measures for preventing access, use, modification or disclosure of Customer Data by Acquia personnel except (a) to provide the Subscription Services and prevent or address service or technical problems, (b) as compelled by law, or (c) as Customer expressly permits in writing.

3.2 Internal Controls. The internal controls of the Subscription Services are subject to periodic testing by independent third party audit organizations with Service Organization Controls 1 (SOC 1), SOC 2 audits and ISO 27001 certification or surveillance audits performed annually. Such audits and certifications may be based on the Statement on Standards for Attestation Engagements (SSAE) No. 16, Reporting on Controls at a Service Organization, the International Standard on Assurance Engagements (ISAE) No. 3402, Assurance Reports on Controls at a Service Organization, the Trust Services Principles, specifically Security and Availability respectively, or ISO/IEC 27001:2013 (ISO 27001). Customer may, upon prior written request, request a copy of the current published audit report available for the Subscription Services. Such audit reports, and the information they contain, are Acquia Confidential Information, and must be handled by Customer accordingly. Such reports may be used solely by Customer to evaluate the design and operating effectiveness of defined controls applicable to Subscription Services and are provided without any warranty.

3.3. Data Privacy. In performing Subscription Services, Acquia will comply with the Acquia Privacy Policy available at https://www.acquia.com/about-us/legal/privacy-policy and incorporated herein by reference. The Acquia Privacy Policy is subject to change at Acquia's discretion; however, Acquia policy changes will not result in a material reduction in the level of protection provided for Customer Data during the Subscription Term.

3.4 Data Center Region. Customer may select the Data Center Region in which the PaaS environment will reside and may identify such region in the Order Form. Acquia will not move the selected Data Center Region without Customer's written consent or unless required to comply with the law or requests of a governmental or regulatory body (including subpoenas or court orders). Customer consents to Acquia's collection, use and disclosure of information associated with the Subscription Services to the processing of Customer Data in, and transfer of Customer Data into, the Data Center Region Customer selects.

4. CUSTOMER OBLIGATIONS

4.1. Responsibilities. Customer shall (i) access and use the Services in accordance with this Agreement, applicable laws and government regulations and Acquia's Acceptable Use Policy available at https://www.acquia.com/about-us/legal/acquia-acceptable-use-policy; (ii) be responsible for the accuracy, quality and legality of Customer Data and the means by which Customer acquired Customer Data; (iii) not cause, or otherwise request that Acquia create, receive, maintain or transmit Regulated Data for Customer or on Customer's behalf in connection with the Services without first subscribing to the required applicable Subscription Services; (iv) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized access to or use of the Services, and notify Acquia promptly of any such unauthorized access or use, (v) take commercially reasonable steps necessary to ensure the security and compliance of the Customer Applications; and (vi) be responsible for obtaining and maintaining all telephone, computer hardware, Internet access services and other equipment or services needed to access and use the Services and all costs and fees associated therewith.

4.2. Regulated Data. Customer is responsible for its legal and regulatory compliance in its use of any Subscription Services and shall make Acquia aware of any technical requirements that result from its regulatory obligations prior to contract execution. If available, Customer may order Subscription Services from Acquia designed to address particular data protection requirements applicable for the processing of Regulated Data within the Subscription Services environment. Where Customer's use of the Subscription Services includes the processing of personal data subject to the EU Data Protection Directive 95/46/EC, Acquia will provide Customer with an Acquia data protection agreement with the EU Standard Contractual Clauses, which upon the parties' mutual execution, will form part of this Agreement.

4.3 Restrictions. Customer shall not (a) license, sublicense, sell, resell, rent, lease, transfer, distribute or otherwise similarly exploit the Subscription Services; (b) use or permit others to use any security testing tools in order to probe, scan or attempt to penetrate or ascertain the security of the Subscription Services; (c) copy, create a derivative work of, reverse engineer, reverse assemble, disassemble, or decompile the Subscription Services or any part thereof or otherwise attempt to discover any source code or modify the Subscription Services; or (d) disclose any benchmark or performance tests of the Services.

4.4. Compliance. Acquia monitors the Subscription Services for any unauthorized conduct (including any violation of this Agreement, Acquia's Acceptable Use Policy, any applicable law or third party right) and may suspend access to the Subscription Services and any publicly facing Customer Applications to the extent and for the duration of any such violation if Customer is engaged in, or Acquia in good faith believes Customer is engaged in, such violation. Acquia will attempt to contact Customer prior to or contemporaneously with such suspension; provided, however, that Acquia's exercise of the suspension rights herein shall not be conditioned upon Customer's receipt of any notification. A suspension may take effect for Customer's entire account and Customer understands that such suspension would therefore include Affiliate and/or user sub-accounts. Customer agrees that Acquia will not be liable to Customer or to any Affiliate or user or any other third party if Acquia exercises its suspension rights as permitted by this Section.

5. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

5.1. Standard Professional Services. A description of Acquia's standard Professional Services offerings, including training, and workshops, may be found in the Guide. Standard Professional Services may be identified in an Order Form without the need for issuance of an SOW.

5.2. Other Professional Services. For any non-standard Professional Services, Acquia will provide Customer with Professional Services as set forth in the applicable SOW. Each SOW will include, at a minimum: (i) a description of the Professional Services and any Deliverable to be delivered to Customer; (ii) the scope of Professional Services; (iii) the schedule for the provision of such Professional Services; and (iv) the applicable fees and payment terms for such Professional Services, if not specified elsewhere.

5.3. Change Orders. Changes to an SOW or Order Form will require, and shall become effective only when, fully documented in a written change order (each a "Change Order") signed by duly authorized representatives of the parties prior to implementation of the changes. Such changes may include, for example, changes to the scope of work and any corresponding changes to the estimated fees and schedule. Change Orders shall be deemed part of, and subject to, this Agreement.

5.4. Staffing, Designated Contact and Cooperation. Acquia shall have sole discretion in staffing the Services and may use Authorized Contractors to assist in the delivery of the Professional Services, provided that Acquia shall remain liable for the actions or omissions of such Authorized Contractors. Each party will designate in each SOW an individual who will be the primary point of contact between the parties for all matters relating to the Professional Services to be performed thereunder. Customer will cooperate with Acquia, will provide Acquia with accurate and complete information, will provide Acquia with such assistance and access as Acquia may reasonably request, and will fulfill its responsibilities as set forth in this Agreement and the applicable SOW. If Acquia personnel are required to be present on a Customer site, Customer will provide adequate workspace and may provide reasonable worksite safety and security rules to which such personnel are to conform.

6. FEES AND PAYMENT

6.1. Fees. Customer shall pay all fees specified in each Order Form and SOW. Except as otherwise specified herein or in an Order Form or SOW, (i) fees are quoted and payable in United States dollars, (ii) fees are based on Services purchased, regardless of usage, (iii) payment obligations are non-cancelable and fees paid are non-refundable, (iv) all Services shall be deemed accepted upon delivery, and (v) the Subscription Services purchased cannot be decreased during the relevant Subscription Term. Customer shall reimburse Acquia for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Acquia in connection with its performance of Services. Acquia will provide Customer with reasonably detailed invoices for such expenses. All amounts payable under this Agreement will be made without setoff or counterclaim, and without any deduction or withholding.

6.2. Invoicing and Payment. All fees for Subscription Services will be invoiced in advance and, unless otherwise set forth in an SOW, all fees and expenses for Professional Services will be invoiced monthly in arrears on a time and materials basis. Except as otherwise stated in the applicable Order Form or SOW, Customer agrees to pay all invoiced amounts within thirty (30) days of invoice date.

6.3. Overdue Charges. If Acquia does not receive fees by the due date, then, at Acquia's discretion, such fees may accrue late interest at the rate of 1.5% of the outstanding balance per month, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is lower, from the date such payment was due until the date paid.

6.4. Payment Disputes. Acquia agrees that it will not exercise its rights under Section 6.3 (Overdue Charges) if Customer is disputing the applicable charges reasonably and in good faith and is cooperating diligently to resolve the dispute.

6.5. Taxes. Fees for Services exclude all sales, value added and other taxes and duties imposed with respect to the sale, delivery, or use of any product or Services covered hereby. Customer is responsible for payment of all taxes, levies, duties, assessments, including but not limited to value-added, sales, use or withholding taxes, assessed or collected by any governmental body (collectively, "Taxes") arising from Acquia's provision of the Services hereunder, except any taxes assessed on Acquia's net income. If Acquia is required to directly pay or collect Taxes related to Customer's use or receipt of the Services hereunder, Customer agrees to promptly reimburse Acquia for any amounts paid by Acquia.

7. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

7.1. Subscription Services. Acquia, its licensors and its service providers own all right, title and interest in and to the Subscription Services, including all related intellectual property rights. Acquia reserves all rights in and to the Subscription Services not expressly granted to Customer under this Agreement. Customer will not delete or in any manner alter the copyright, trademark, and other proprietary notices of Acquia.

7.2. Customer Data and Customer Applications. To enable Acquia to provide Customer with the Subscription Services, Customer hereby grants Acquia, its Affiliates and sublicensees (including Authorized Contractors whose technologies and services interface with the Subscription Services that include the Customer Data and Customer Applications) a worldwide, royalty-free, non-exclusive, limited term license to use, process, store, display and transmit Customer Data and Customer Applications solely as necessary for Acquia to provide the Services in accordance with this Agreement. Subject to the limited licenses granted herein, Acquia acquires no right, title or interest from Customer or Customer licensors hereunder in or to Customer Data and Customer Applications, including any intellectual property rights therein.

7.3. Deliverables. Excluding any property that constitutes Outside Property, any Deliverables shall be the sole property of Customer upon Customer's payment in full of all associated Professional Services fees. Acquia shall execute and, at Customer's written request, require its personnel to execute any document that may be necessary or desirable to establish or perfect Customer's rights to the ownership of such Deliverables. For purposes of this Agreement, "Outside Property" means any and all technology and information, methodologies, data, designs, ideas, concepts, know-how, techniques, user-interfaces, templates, documentation, software, hardware, modules, development tools and other tangible or intangible technical material or information that Acquia possesses or owns prior to the commencement of Professional Services or which it develops independent of any activities governed by this Agreement, and any derivatives, modifications or enhancements made to any such property. Outside Property shall also include any enhancements, modifications or derivatives made by Acquia to the Outside Property while performing Professional Services hereunder, and any software, modules, routines or algorithms which are developed by Acquia during the term in providing the Professional Services to Customer, provided such software, modules, routines or algorithms have general application to work performed by Acquia for its other customers and do not include any content that is specific to Customer or which, directly or indirectly, incorporate or disclose Customer's Confidential Information.

7.4 Outside Property License. To the extent that Acquia incorporates any Outside Property into any Deliverables, then Acquia hereby grants Customer a limited, royalty-free, non-exclusive, non-transferable (subject to Section 14.11) license to use such Outside Property delivered to Customer solely as necessary for and in conjunction with Customer's use of the Deliverables.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1. Definition of Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means all confidential or proprietary information of a party ("Disclosing Party") disclosed to the other party ("Receiving Party"), whether orally or in writing, that is designated as confidential or reasonably should be understood to be confidential given the nature of information and the circumstances of disclosure. Without limiting the coverage of these confidentiality obligations, the parties acknowledge and agree that Confidential Information of each party shall include the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including pricing and other terms set forth in all Order Forms and/or SOWs hereunder), related benchmark or similar test results, other technology and technical information, security information, security audit reports, and business and marketing plans, except that Acquia may reference and use Customer's name, logos and the nature of the Services provided hereunder in Acquia's business development and marketing efforts.

8.2. Exceptions. Confidential Information shall not include information that (i) is or becomes publicly available without a breach of any obligation owed to the Disclosing Party, (ii) is already known to the Receiving Party at the time of its disclosure by the Disclosing Party, without a breach of any obligation owed to the Disclosing Party, (iii) following its disclosure to the Receiving Party, is received by the Receiving Party from a third party without breach of any obligation owed to Disclosing Party, or (iv) is independently developed by Receiving Party without reference to or use of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information.

8.3. Protection of Confidential Information. The Receiving Party shall use the same degree of care used to protect the confidentiality of its own

Confidential Information of like kind (but in no event less than reasonable care), and, except with Disclosing Party's written consent, shall (i) not use any Confidential Information of Disclosing Party for any purpose outside the scope of this Agreement and (ii) limit access to Confidential Information of Disclosing Party to those of its and its Affiliates' employees, contractors and agents who need such access for purposes consistent with this Agreement and who have a duty or obligation of confidentiality no less stringent than that set forth herein.

8.4. Compelled Disclosure. The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party to the extent required by applicable law, regulation or legal process, provided that the Receiving Party (i) provides prompt written notice to the extent legally permitted, (ii) provides reasonable assistance, at Disclosing Party's cost, in the event the Disclosing Party wishes to oppose the disclosure, and (iii) limits disclosure to that required by law, regulation or legal process.

9. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND DISCLAIMERS

9.1. Acquia Representations & Warranties. Acquia represents and warrants that (i) Acquia has the legal authority to enter into this Agreement, (ii) the Subscription Services will materially conform with the relevant Documentation, (iii) the functionality and security of the Subscription Services will not be materially decreased during a Subscription Term, and (iv) Professional Services will be performed in a competent and workmanlike manner consistent with generally accepted industry standards.

9.2. Remedies. For any failure of any Subscription Services or Professional Services, as applicable, to conform to their respective warranties, Acquia's liability and Customer's sole and exclusive remedy shall be for Acquia, in the case of a breach of the warranty set forth in Section 9.1 (ii), (iii), and/or (iv), to use commercially reasonable efforts to correct such failure; or, in the case of a breach of the warranty set forth in Section 9.1 (iv) to re perform the affected Professional Services. If the foregoing remedies are not commercially practicable, Acquia may, in its sole discretion, terminate the applicable Order Form or SOW upon providing Customer with written notice thereof, and, as Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, refund to Customer: (a) in the case of breach of the warranty set forth in Section 9.1(ii), any Subscription Services fees paid by Customer with respect to the unexpired portion of the current Subscription Term for the non-conforming Subscription Services; or (b) in the case of breach of the warranty set forth in Section 9.1(iv), any fees paid by Customer for the portion of Professional Services giving rise to the breach.

9.3. Customer Representations & Warranties. Customer represents and warrants that (i) it has the legal authority to enter into this Agreement, and (ii) it will use the Services in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

9.4. Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED HEREIN, ACQUIA MAKES NO WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, ORAL OR WRITTEN, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, AND ACQUIA HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS, INCLUDING, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR ANY WARRANTY WITH RESPECT TO THE QUALITY, PERFORMANCE, ACCURACY OR FUNCTIONALITY OF THE SERVICES OR THAT THE SERVICES ARE OR WILL BE ERROR FREE OR WILL ACCOMPLISH ANY PARTICULAR RESULT.

10. MUTUAL INDEMNIFICATION

10.1. Indemnification by Acquia. Acquia shall indemnify, defend and hold Customer harmless from and against any judgments, settlements, costs and fees reasonably incurred (including reasonable attorney's fees) resulting from any claim, demand, suit, or proceeding made or brought against Customer by a third party alleging that the use of the Subscription Services hereunder infringes or misappropriates the valid intellectual property rights of a third party (a "Claim Against Customer"); provided that Customer (a) promptly gives Acquia written notice of the Claim Against Customer; (b) gives Acquia sole control of the defense and settlement of the Claim Against Customer (provided that Acquia may not settle any Claim Against Customer unless the settlement unconditionally releases Customer of all liability); and (c) provides to Acquia all reasonable assistance, at Acquia's expense. In the event of a Claim Against Customer, or if Acquia reasonably believes the Subscription Services may infringe or misappropriate, Acquia may in Acquia's sole discretion and at no cost to Customer (i) modify the Subscription Services so that they no longer infringe or misappropriate, without breaching Acquia's warranties hereunder, (ii) obtain a license for Customer's continued use of Subscription Services in accordance with this Agreement, or (iii) terminate Customer's subscriptions for such Subscription Services and refund to Customer any prepaid fees covering the remainder of the term of such subscriptions after the effective date of termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Acquia shall have no obligation to indemnify, defend, or hold Customer harmless from any Claim Against Customer to the extent it arises from Customer Data or Customer Applications, use by Customer after notice by Acquia to discontinue use of all or a portion of the Subscription Services or Customer's breach of this Agreement.

10.2. Indemnification by Customer. Customer shall indemnify, defend and hold Acquia harmless from and against any judgments, settlements, costs and fees reasonably incurred (including reasonable attorney's fees) resulting from any claim, demand, suit or proceeding made or brought against Acquia by a third party alleging that Customer Data or Customer Applications infringes or misappropriates the intellectual property rights of a third party, violates applicable law or causes tortious harm to a third party (a "Claim Against Acquia"); provided that Acquia (a) promptly gives Customer written notice of the Claim Against Acquia; (b) gives Customer sole control of the defense and settlement of the Claim Against Acquia (provided that Customer may not settle any Claim Against Acquia unless the settlement unconditionally releases Acquia of all liability); and (c) provides to Customer all reasonable assistance, at Customer's expense.

10.3. Exclusive Remedy. This Section 10 states the indemnifying party's sole liability to, and the indemnified party's exclusive remedy against, the other party for any type of claim described in this Section.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

11.1. Limitation of Liability. OTHER THAN EACH PARTY'S OBLIGATIONS SET FORTH IN SECTION 10 (MUTUAL INDEMNIFICATION), NEITHER PARTY'S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT (WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR UNDER ANY OTHER THEORY OF LIABILITY) SHALL EXCEED THE AMOUNT PAID OR PAYABLE BY CUSTOMER HEREUNDER IN THE 12 MONTHS PRECEDING THE APPLICABLE INCIDENT.

11.2. Exclusion of Consequential and Related Damages. NEITHER PARTY SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY LOST PROFITS OR REVENUES OR FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, COVER OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES HOWEVER CAUSED, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT OR UNDER ANY OTHER THEORY OF LIABILITY, AND WHETHER OR NOT THE PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. THE FOREGOING DISCLAIMER WILL NOT APPLY TO THE EXTENT PROHIBITED BY LAW.

12. TERM AND TERMINATION

12.1. Term of Agreement. This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until otherwise terminated, by written agreement of the parties, in accordance with Section 12.3 or upon the expiration of the last Subscription Term or renewal thereof.

12.2. Term of Subscription Services. Subscription Services purchased by Customer commence on the start date specified in the applicable Order Form and continue for the subscription term specified therein (each, a "Subscription Term"). Except as otherwise specified in such Order Form, the Subscription Services shall automatically renew for successive one-year periods, unless and until terminated by either party in accordance herewith or either party provides written notice of non-renewal to the other party at least 30 days prior to the end of the then-current Subscription Term. Acquia may adjust the pricing applicable to any renewal of any then-current Subscription Term, by providing Customer with written notice thereof at least 30 days prior to the end of such term.

12.3. Termination for Cause. A party may terminate this Agreement (or, at such party's option, the individual Order Forms or SOWs affected by the applicable breach), for cause (i) upon 30 days written notice to the other party of a material breach if such breach remains uncured at the expiration of such same 30 day period, or (ii) automatically if the other party becomes the subject of a petition in bankruptcy or other proceeding relating to insolvency, receivership, liquidation or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

12.4. Refund upon Termination. Upon termination for cause by Customer and upon Customer's written request, Acquia shall refund to Customer the prepaid fees covering the remainder of the applicable Subscription Term after the effective date of termination. Upon termination for cause by Acquia, Customer shall pay the unpaid fees covering the remainder of the Subscription Term of the Order Forms after the effective date of termination. In no event shall any termination relieve Customer of the obligation to pay all fees payable to Acquia for the period prior to the effective date of termination.

12.5. Data Portability and Deletion. Upon written request made by Customer within 30 days of termination or expiration of the Subscription Services, Acquia will make Customer Data and Customer Applications available to Customer for export or download as provided in the Documentation. At the end of such 30 day period, Acquia will delete or otherwise render inaccessible any Customer Data and Customer Applications, unless legally prohibited. Acquia has no obligation to retain the Customer Data for Customer purposes after this 30 day post termination period.

12.6. Survival. Section 7 (Proprietary Rights), 8 (Confidentiality), 9.4 (Disclaimer), 10 (Mutual Indemnification), 11 (Limitation of Liability), 12.4 (Refund upon Termination), 13 (Notices, Governing Law and Jurisdiction) and 14 (General Provisions) and any other rights and obligations of the parties hereunder that by their nature are reasonably intended to survive termination or expiration, shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

13. NOTICES, GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

13.1. Manner of Giving Notice. Except as otherwise specified in this Agreement, all notices, permissions and approvals hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given upon (i) personal delivery, (ii) the fifth business day after being sent by certified mail return receipt requested, or (iii) the first business day after sending by a generally recognized international guaranteed overnight delivery service. Each party shall send all notices, demands, requests or other communications which may be or are required to be given hereunder to the other party at the address set forth in the applicable Order Form or SOW, as such party may update such information from time to time, with, in the case of notices sent by Customer, a copy sent to the Acquia Legal Department at the address first set forth above.

13.2. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. If Customer is entering into this Agreement from a European Union member country, then this Agreement is governed by the laws of England and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. If Customer is entering into this Agreement from Australia, then this Agreement is governed by the laws of New South Wales and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Sydney. Otherwise, this Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, excluding its conflicts of law rules. Any civil action or legal proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be brought in the courts of record of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in Suffolk County or the United States District Court, Eastern District of Massachusetts. Each party consents to the jurisdiction of such court in any such civil action or legal proceeding and waives any objection to the laying of venue of any such civil action or legal proceeding in such court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that any unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information or any actual or alleged infringement of such party's or third party's intellectual property rights might cause the other party to suffer irreparable harm for which damages would be an inadequate remedy and that, in such event, the aggrieved party may seek, in addition to any other available remedies, injunctive and other equitable relief in any state, federal, or national court of competent jurisdiction, without bond and without the necessity of showing actual monetary damages. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act do not apply to the Agreement.

13.3. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereby waives any right to jury trial in connection with any action or litigation in any way arising out of or related to this Agreement.

14. GENERAL PROVISIONS

14.1. Import and Export Compliance. Each party shall comply with all applicable import, re-import, export and re-export control laws, treaties, agreements, and regulations. Export controls may include, but are not limited to, those of the Export Administration Regulations of the U.S. Department of Commerce (EAR), the Department of State International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), and country-specific economic sanctions programs implemented by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), which may restrict or require licenses for the export of items from the United States and their re-export from other countries. Each party represents that it is not named on any U.S. government denied-party list. Customer shall not permit users to access or use Services in a U.S.-embargoed country or in violation of any U.S. export law or regulation.

14.2. Anti-Corruption. Neither party has received or been offered any illegal or improper bribe, kickback, payment, gift, or thing of value from any of the other party's employees or agents in connection with this Agreement. If a party learns of any violation of the above restriction, such party will use reasonable efforts to promptly notify the other party.

14.3. Federal Government End Use Provisions. If the Services are being or have been acquired with U.S. Federal Government funds, or Customer is an agency, department, or other entity of the United States Government ("Government"), the use, duplication, reproduction, release, modification, disclosure or transfer of the Services, or any related documentation of any kind, including technical data, manuals or Acquia Property is a "commercial item," as that term is defined in 48 C.F.R. 2.101 (Oct. 1995), consisting of "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation," as such terms are used in 48 C.F.R. 12.212 (Sept. 1995), as applicable. Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212 and 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4 (June 1995), all U.S. Government End Users acquire the software and Services with only those rights set forth in this Agreement and any amendment hereto.

14.4. Subscription Service Analyses. Acquia may (i) compile statistical and other information related to the performance, operation and use of the Subscription Services, and (ii) use, and share data from the Subscription Services environment in aggregated form for security and operations management, to create statistical analyses, and for research and development purposes (clauses i and ii are collectively referred to as "Subscription Service Analyses"). Subscription Service Analyses will not incorporate any information in a form that could serve to identify Customer or an individual. Acquia retains all intellectual property rights in Subscription Service Analyses.

14.5. Relationship of the Parties. The parties are independent contractors. This Agreement does not create a partnership, franchise, joint venture, agency, fiduciary or employment relationship between the parties.

14.6. Non-Solicitation. Customer agrees that during the term of each Order Form and/or SOW and for twelve (12) months thereafter, it will not recruit or otherwise solicit for employment any person employed by Acquia who participated in the performance of Services under the applicable Order Form and/or SOW. Nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit individual Acquia employees from responding to public employment advertisements, postings or job fairs of Customer, provided such response is not prompted by Customer intentionally circumventing the restrictions of this Section.

14.7. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. There are no third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement.

14.8. Waiver. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right under this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of that right.

14.9. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable under this Agreement for delays, failures to perform, damages, losses or destruction, or malfunction of any equipment, or any consequence thereof, caused or occasioned by, or due to fire, earthquake, flood, water, the elements, labor disputes or shortages, utility curtailments, power failures, explosions, civil disturbances, governmental actions, shortages of equipment or supplies, unavailability of transportation, acts or omissions of third parties, or any other cause beyond its reasonable control. This Section does not excuse either party's obligation to take reasonable steps to follow its normal disaster recovery procedures or Customer's obligation to pay for the Services. If the force majeure event continues for more than thirty (30) calendar days, then either party may terminate the Agreement upon written notice to the other party.

14.10. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to law, the provision shall be modified by the court and interpreted so as best to accomplish the objectives of the original provision to the fullest extent permitted by law, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect.

14.11. Assignment. Neither party may assign its rights and obligations hereunder, either in whole or in part, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may assign this Agreement in its entirety (including all Order Forms and SOWs), without consent of the other party, to its Affiliate or in connection with a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of its assets not involving a direct competitor of the other party. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties, their respective successors and permitted assigns.

14.12. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties as it relates to the subject matter and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, proposals or representations, written or oral, concerning relating to the same. No modification, amendment, or waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by both parties with the exception that Acquia may, from time to time, modify the terms of the Guide in its sole discretion. To the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement, the Guide, any Order Form or SOW, the terms of such Order Form or SOW shall prevail. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary therein, no terms or conditions stated in a Customer purchase order or other order documentation (excluding Order Forms and/or SOWs) shall be incorporated into or form any part of this Agreement, and all such terms or conditions shall be null and void.

13.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a party is acquired by, sells substantially all of its assets to, or undergoes a change of control in favor of, a direct competitor of the other party, then such other party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice. In the event of such a termination by You, Riskonnect will refund to You any prepaid fees covering the remainder of the applicable Subscription Term in which termination is exercised.

13.3 Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties, their respective successors and permitted assigns.

13.4 Any purported assignment in violation of this section shall be void.

14. GENERAL PROVISIONS

14.1 Disputes; Mediation; Binding Arbitration; Governing Law; Emergency Relief. All claims and disputes arising under or relating to this Agreement between the parties shall first be resolved by mediation with written notice to the other party of its intent to mediate. In the event that mediation does not resolve the dispute within forty-five (45) days of said notice, all claims and disputes arising under or relating to this Agreement are to be settled by binding arbitration under Georgia law in Atlanta, Georgia unless another location is mutually agreeable to the parties. The arbitration shall be conducted on a confidential basis pursuant to the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA). Any decision or award as a result of any such arbitration proceeding shall be in writing and shall provide an explanation for all conclusions of law and fact and shall include the assessment of costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees. Any such arbitration shall be conducted by an arbitrator experienced in cloud-based web services and shall include a written record of the arbitration hearing. The parties reserve the right to object to any individual who shall be employed by or affiliated with a competing organization or entity. Judgment upon the award of arbitration may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. For emergency or interim relief, the parties also agree that the AAA Optional Rules for Emergency Measures of Protection shall apply to the proceedings.

14.2 Entire Agreement; Order of Precedence. This Agreement, together with the Statement of Work and any applicable Subscription Order(s), comprises the entire agreement between You and Riskonnect and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous negotiations, discussions or agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties regarding the subject matter contained herein. In the event of any inconsistencies between the Master Services Agreement and any SOW, PCO, or exhibit, the conflict shall be resolved in the following order of descending priority: (1) Master Services Agreement, (2) SOW, (3) Subscription Order, (4) PCO, and (5) any other applicable exhibit. No text or information set forth on any other purchase order, preprinted form or other document (not included in this Agreement) shall add to or vary the terms and conditions of this Agreement unless otherwise signed by authorized representatives of the parties (in the case of Riskonnect, this shall mean the CEO or CFO).

14.3 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, then such provision(s) shall be construed, as nearly as possible, to reflect the intentions of the invalid or unenforceable provision(s), with all other provisions remaining in full force and effect.

Cloud Services Agreement

This Cloud Services Agreement (CSA) and applicable Attachments and Transaction Documents (TDs) are the complete agreement regarding transactions under this CSA (together, the "Agreement") under which Client may order Cloud Services. Attachments typically contain additional terms that apply to similar types of offerings. TDs, such as service descriptions, order documents or statements of work, contain specific details related to an order for a Cloud Service and there may be more than one TD providing the details of an order. In the event of conflict, an Attachment prevails over this CSA and a TD prevails over both the CSA and any Attachment.

1. Cloud Services

a. A Cloud Service is an IBM branded offering provided by IBM and made available via a network. Each Cloud Service is described in an Attachment or a TD. Cloud Services are designed to be available 24/7, subject to maintenance. Client will be notified of scheduled maintenance. Technical support and service level commitments, if applicable, are specified in an Attachment or TD.

b. Client accepts an Attachment or TD by ordering, enrolling, using, or making a payment for the Cloud Service. When IBM accepts Client's order, IBM provides Client the authorizations specified in the TD. The term, including any renewal term, for a Cloud Service is described in an Attachment or TD.

c. IBM will provide the facilities, personnel, equipment, software, and other resources necessary to provide the Cloud Services and generally available user guides and documentation to support Client's use of the Cloud Service. Client will provide hardware, software and connectivity to access and use the Cloud Service, including any required Client-specific URL addresses and associated certificates. An Attachment or TD may have additional Client responsibilities.

d. Client may access a Cloud Service only to the extent of authorizations acquired by Client. Client is responsible for use of Cloud Services by any user who accesses the Cloud Service with Client's account credentials. A Cloud Service may not be used in any jurisdiction for unlawful, obscene, offensive or fraudulent Content or activity, such as advocating or causing harm, interfering with or violating the integrity or security of a network or system, evading filters, sending unsolicited, abusive, or deceptive messages, viruses or harmful code, or violating third party rights. If there is a complaint or notice of violation, use may be suspended until resolved, and terminated if not resolved promptly. Client may not i) resell direct access to a Cloud Service to a third party outside Client's Enterprise; or ii) combine Cloud Services with Client's value add to create a commercially available Client branded solution for which Client charges a fee.

2. Content and Data Protection

a. Content consists of all data, software, and information that Client or its authorized users provides, authorizes access to, or inputs to the Cloud Service. Use of the Cloud Service will not affect Client's existing ownership or license rights in such Content. IBM and its contractors, and subprocessors may access and use the Content solely for the purpose of providing and managing the Cloud Service, unless otherwise described in a TD.

b. Client is responsible for obtaining all necessary rights and permissions to enable, and grants such rights and permissions to, IBM, and its contractors and subprocessors to use, provide, store and process Content in the Cloud Service. This includes Client making necessary disclosures and obtaining consent, if required, before providing individuals' information, including personal or other regulated information in such Content. If any Content could be subject to governmental regulation or may require security measures beyond those specified by IBM for an offering, Client will not input, provide, or allow such Content unless specifically permitted in the terms of the relevant TD or unless IBM has otherwise first agreed in writing to implement additional security and other measures.

c. Upon request by either party, IBM, Client or their affiliates will enter into additional agreements as required by law in the prescribed form for the protection of personal or regulated personal data included in Content. The parties agree (and will ensure that their respective affiliates agree) that such additional agreements will be subject to the terms of the Agreement.

d. IBM will return or remove Content from IBM computing resources upon the expiration or cancellation of the Cloud Service, or earlier upon Client's request. IBM may charge for certain activities performed at Client's request (such as delivering Content in a specific format). IBM does not archive Content, however some Content may remain in Cloud Service backup files until expiration of such files as governed by IBM's backup retention practices.

e. Each Cloud Service is designed to protect Content as described in the Agreement. IBM's Data Security and Privacy Principles for IBM Cloud Services (DSP), at http://www.ibm.com/cloud/data-security, apply for generally available Cloud Service offerings or as described in the applicable TD. IBM will treat all Content as confidential by not disclosing Content except to IBM employees, contractors, and subprocessors, and only to the extent necessary to deliver the Cloud Service, unless otherwise specified in a TD. Specific security features and functions of a Cloud Service may be provided in an Attachment and TDs. Client is responsible to assess the suitability of each Cloud Service for Client's intended use and Content. By using the Cloud Service, Client acknowledges that it meets Client's requirements and processing instructions.

f. Client acknowledges that i) IBM may modify the DSP from time to time at IBM's sole discretion and ii) such modifications will supersede prior versions. The intent of any modification to the DSP will be to i) improve or clarify existing commitments, ii) maintain alignment to current adopted standards and applicable laws, or iii) provide additional commitments. No modification to the DSP will materially degrade the security of a Cloud Service.

3. Changes

a. IBM may modify a Cloud Service, without degrading its functionality or security features.

b. IBM may withdraw a Cloud Service on 12 months' notice, unless otherwise stated in a TD. IBM will continue to provide the Cloud Service for the remainder of Client's unexpired term or work with Client to migrate to another IBM offering.

c. Since this CSA may apply to many future orders, IBM may modify this CSA by providing Client at least three months' written notice. Changes are not retroactive; they apply, as of the effective date, only to new orders, ongoing Cloud Services that do not expire, and renewals. For transactions with a defined renewable contract period, Client may request that IBM defer the change effective date until the end of the current contract period. Client accepts changes by placing new orders or continuing use after the change effective date or allowing transactions to renew after receipt of the change notice. Except as provided above, all changes to the Agreement must be in writing accepted by both parties.

4. Warranties

a. IBM warrants that it provides Cloud Services using commercially reasonable care and skill in accordance with the applicable Attachment or TD. The warranty for a Cloud Service ends when the Cloud Service ends.

b. IBM does not warrant uninterrupted or error-free operation of a Cloud Service or that IBM will correct all defects or prevent third party disruptions or unauthorized third party access. These warranties are the exclusive warranties from IBM and replace all other warranties, including the implied warranties or conditions of satisfactory quality, merchantability, non-infringement, and fitness for a particular purpose. IBM warranties will not apply if there has been misuse, modification, damage not caused by IBM, failure to comply with instructions provided by IBM, or if otherwise stated in an Attachment or TD. Non-IBM services are sold under the Agreement as-is, without warranties of any kind. Third parties may provide their own warranties to Client.

5. Charges, Taxes, and Payment

a. Client agrees to pay all applicable charges specified for a Cloud Service, charges for use in excess of authorizations, and any late payment fees. Charges are exclusive of any customs or other duty, tax, and similar levies imposed by any authority resulting from Client's acquisitions under the Agreement and will be invoiced in addition to such charges. Amounts are due upon receipt of the invoice and payable within 30 days of the invoice date to an account specified by IBM. Prepaid Services must be used within the applicable period. IBM does not give credits or refunds for any prepaid, one-time charges, or other charges already due or paid. IBM may change charges on thirty days' notice or as specified in a TD. Where taxes are based upon the location(s) receiving the benefit of the Cloud Service, Client has an ongoing obligation to notify IBM of such location(s) if different than Client's business address listed in the applicable Attachment or TD.

b. Client agrees to: i) pay withholding tax directly to the appropriate government entity where required by law; ii) furnish a tax certificate evidencing such payment to IBM; iii) pay IBM only the net proceeds after tax; and iv) fully cooperate with IBM in seeking a waiver or reduction of such taxes and promptly complete and file all relevant documents.

6. Liability and Indemnity

a. IBM's entire liability for all claims related to the Agreement will not exceed the amount of any actual direct damages incurred by Client up to the amounts paid (if recurring charges, up to 12 months' charges apply) for the service that is the subject of the claim, regardless of the basis of the claim. IBM will not be liable for special, incidental, exemplary, indirect, or economic consequential damages, or lost profits, business, value, revenue, goodwill, or anticipated savings. These limitations apply collectively to IBM, its affiliates, contractors, subprocessors, and suppliers.

b. The following amounts are not subject to the above cap: i) third party payments referred to in the paragraph below; and ii) damages that cannot be limited under applicable law.

c. If a third party asserts a claim against Client that an IBM Service acquired under the Agreement infringes a patent or copyright, IBM will defend Client against that claim and pay amounts finally awarded by a court against Client or included in a settlement approved by IBM, provided that Client promptly (i) notifies IBM in writing of the claim, (ii) supplies information requested by IBM, and (iii) allows IBM to control, and reasonably cooperates in, the defense and settlement, including mitigation efforts.

d. IBM has no responsibility for claims based on non-IBM products and services, items not provided by IBM, or any violation of law or third party rights caused by Client's Content, materials, designs, or specifications.

7. Termination

a. IBM may suspend, revoke or limit Client's use of a Cloud Service if IBM determines there is a material breach of Client's obligations, a security breach, or violation of law. If the cause of the suspension can reasonably be remedied, IBM will provide notice of the actions Client must take to reinstate the Cloud Service. If Client fails to take such actions within a reasonable time, IBM may terminate the Cloud Service. Failure to pay is a material breach.

b. Either party may terminate this CSA: i) without cause on at least one month's notice to the other after expiration or termination of its obligations under the Agreement; or ii) immediately for cause if the other is in material breach of the Agreement, provided the one who is not complying is given notice and reasonable time to comply. Any terms that by their nature extend beyond the Agreement termination remain in effect until fulfilled, and apply to successors and assignees. Termination of this CSA does not terminate TDs, and provisions of this CSA as they relate to such TDs remain in effect until fulfilled or otherwise terminated in accordance with their terms.

c. Client may terminate a Cloud Service on one month's notice: (i) at the written recommendation of a government or regulatory agency following a change in either applicable law or the Cloud Services; (ii) if IBM's modification to the computing environment used to provide the Cloud Service causes Client to be noncompliant with applicable laws; or (iii) if IBM notifies Client of a modification that has a material adverse effect on Client's use of the Cloud Service, provided that IBM will have 90 days to work with Client to minimize such effect. In the event of such termination, IBM shall refund a portion of any prepaid amounts for the applicable Cloud Service for the period after the date of termination. If the Agreement is terminated for any other reason, Client shall pay to IBM, on the date of termination, the total amounts due per the Agreement. Upon termination, IBM may assist Client in transitioning Client's Content to an alternative technology for an additional charge and under separately agreed terms.

8. Governing Laws and Geographic Scope

a. Each party is responsible for complying with: i) laws and regulations applicable to its business and Content; and ii) import, export and economic sanction laws and regulations, including defense trade control regime of any jurisdiction, including the International Traffic in Arms Regulations and those of the United States that prohibit or restrict the export, re-export, or transfer of products, technology, services or data, directly or indirectly, to or for certain countries, end uses or end users. Client is responsible for its use of IBM and non-IBM products and services.

b. Both parties agree to the application of the laws of the State of New York, United States, without regard to conflict of law principles. The rights and obligations of each party are valid only in the country of Client's business address. If Client or any user exports or imports Content or use of any portion of the Cloud Service outside the country of Client's business address, IBM will not serve as the exporter or importer. If any provision of the Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain in full force and effect. Nothing in the Agreement affects statutory rights of consumers that cannot be waived or limited by contract. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not apply to transactions under the Agreement.

9. General

a. IBM is an independent contractor, not Client's agent, joint venturer, partner, or fiduciary, and does not undertake to perform any of Client's regulatory obligations, or assume any responsibility for Client's business or operations. Each party is responsible for determining the assignment of its personnel, and all contractors and subprocessors, and for their direction, control, and compensation.

b. IBM maintains a robust set of business conduct and related guidelines covering conflicts of interest, market abuse, anti-bribery & corruption, and fraud. IBM and its personnel comply with such policies and require contractors and subprocessors to have similar policies.

c. Account Data is information Client provides to IBM, other than Content, about Client or its users that IBM needs to enable Client's use of a Cloud Service or information concerning such use. IBM, its contractors and subprocessors may process, store and use Account Data wherever they do business to enable product features, administer use, personalize experience, and otherwise support or improve use of the Cloud Service as described in IBM's Online Privacy Statement.

d. IBM Business Partners who use or make available IBM Cloud Services are independent from IBM and unilaterally determine their prices and terms. IBM is not responsible for their actions, omissions, statements, or offerings.

e. Neither party may assign the Agreement, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the other. Assignment of IBM rights to receive payments or assignment by IBM in conjunction with the sale of the portion of IBM's business that includes a service is not restricted.

f. This CSA applies to IBM and Client and their respective Enterprise companies who avail themselves of the CSA. The parties shall coordinate the activities of Enterprise companies under the Agreement. Enterprise companies include (i) companies within the same country that Client or IBM control (by owning greater than 50% of the voting shares), and (ii) any other entity that controls, is controlled by or is under common control with Client or IBM and has signed a participation agreement.

g. All notices under the Agreement must be in writing and sent to the business address specified for the Agreement, unless a party designates in writing a different address. The parties consent to the use of electronic means and facsimile transmissions for communications as a signed writing. Any reproduction of the Agreement made by reliable means is considered an original. The Agreement supersedes any course of dealing, discussions or representations between the parties.

h. No right or cause of action for any third party is created by the Agreement or any transaction under it. Neither party will bring a legal action arising out of or related to the Agreement more than two years after the cause of action arose. Neither party is responsible for failure to fulfill its non-monetary obligations due to causes beyond its control. Each party will allow the other reasonable opportunity to comply before it claims the other has not met its obligations. Where approval, acceptance, consent, access, cooperation or similar action by either party is required, such action will not be unreasonably delayed or withheld.

i. IBM may use personnel and resources in locations worldwide, including third party contractors and subprocessors to support the delivery of the Cloud Services. IBM may transfer Content, including personally identifiable information, across country borders. A list of countries where Content may be processed for a Cloud Service is available at www.ibm.com/cloud/datacenters or as described in the Attachment or TD. IBM is responsible for the obligations under the Agreement even if IBM uses a third party contractor or subprocessors unless otherwise set forth in a TD. IBM will require subprocessors with access to Content to maintain technical and organizational security measures that will enable IBM to meet its obligations for a Cloud Service. A current list of subprocessors and their roles will be provided upon request.

j. IBM may offer additional customization, configuration or other services to support Cloud Services, as detailed in a TD.
