

Video Remote Instructions

Implementation Plan: All State of Maine departments and agencies who wish to utilize VRI service should contact Jeff Ingram to set up account and receive user manuals to access via computer, mobile app, and the instructions for pre-scheduled video interpreters. After all materials are provided, the state user will be encouraged to place a test call to ensure stable connection. SLUSA will provide live video conference demo to any state employee that request it.