2. Description of Specific Need
 Please identify, and fully describe, the specific problem, requirement, or need the resulting non-competitive contract would address and which makes the goods or services necessary. Explain how the requesting Department determined that the goods or services are critical and/or essential to agency responsibilities or operations.

The Maine Bird Atlas is a department funded, statewide effort to document the abundance and distribution of all breeding and wintering birds across the entire state of Maine. There is need for well-designed biological monitoring of Maine's bird resources to guide conservation strategies now and identify priority species' needs in the future. Further, conserving high value wildlife habitats and directing disturbance activities away from sensitive habitats necessitates a comprehensive understanding of distribution and use of resources by Maine's avifauna. Commenced in January 2018, our state-wide atlas project will accomplish these goals with scientific rigor in an efficient and cost-effective way.

This competitive waiver specifically addresses the abundance sampling portion of the above project goals. Systematically measuring breeding bird abundances will be invaluable in guiding future species status assessments and wildlife action plans. It will be used in combination with breeding bird survey data to assess population trends for some species and will provide critical baseline information for evaluating future population changes for others. While the point count methodologies used to collect abundance data for this project are not cutting edge, the department has invested in utilizing "state-of-the-art" modeling analyses to create a balanced, road-based sampling design for these counts. These analyses have enabled us to, for example, proportionally balance the number of points sampled to the different habitat types in the state. This approach will ultimately enable a more robust final analysis of the data collected.

Techniques for sampling abundance of birds in the field requires the ability to identify all regional birds by sight and sound. To ensure the abundance data collected is as complete and accurate as possible, only highly skilled observers will be hired to conduct point count surveys. More than 420 species of birds occur in Maine during some point of their annual life cycle.

This state-wide avian diversity makes Maine a unique place for bird life and bird watchers but presents a challenge for finding individuals having the necessary skill set to complete this project task.

3. Availability of other Public Resources

Please explain how the requesting Department concluded that sufficient staffing, resources, or expertise is not available within the State of Maine’s government, or other governmental entities (local, other state, or federal agencies) external to the requesting Department, which would be able to address the identified need more efficiently and effectively than the identified vendor.

Because of the short, intensive time commitment required for this work, searches for qualified field personnel within local, state, or federal government having the availability and necessary skill set for these surveys were unsuccessful. Staffing within other government entities does not allow flexibility for the dedicated time investment necessary for these surveys.

4. Cost

Since a waiver of competitive bidding is being requested for this procurement, please explain how the requesting Department concluded the negotiated costs, fees, or rates are fair and reasonable.

The Department concluded the negotiated costs are fair and reasonable based on research into seasonal wages for conservation aid technicians. The costs are based on a standard hourly rate of $15/hour.

5. Future Competition

Please describe potential opportunities which may be available to foster competition for these goods or services in the future.

We conducted a competitive nation-wide search for individuals (government and other entities) to contract for the completion of these surveys. We exhausted our pool of applicants filling seven of the eight positions being offered with other qualified individuals from this search. We plan to conduct a similar competitive search for skilled surveyors each of the next three years of the project.

Please note that only one of the two points below (“Uniqueness” or “Timeframe”) requires a response. Requesting Departments are not required to respond to both points.

6. Uniqueness

Please explain if the goods or services required are unique to a specific vendor. Describe the unique qualifications, abilities, and/or expertise of the vendor and how those particular unique factors address the specific need identified above. If the vendor has unique equipment, facilities, or proprietary data, also explain the necessity of these particular unique assets.

Individuals considered for this position were tested on their ability at identifying birds of the eastern U.S. using the birdercertification.org program. This is a rigorous test that evaluates individuals' ability to identify all groups of birds occurring in forests, wetlands, and grasslands by sight and sound. The required qualification score for this position was an 80 or higher. We filled seven of the eight positions available through our nation-wide search, exhausting all other options for qualified candidates outside of this provider. The provider has the unique skill set and availability necessary for this position.

7. Timeframe (Complete only if B. is the Statutory Justification marked on Page 1)

Please explain if time is of the essence and an emergency exists which requires the immediate procurement of goods or services. Describe the nature of this emergency, provide the date by which the goods or services must be delivered, and explain how that date was determined and its significance (i.e. impact if delayed beyond this date). Also, provide information as to how it was determined this vendor is the best option to address this time-sensitive procurement.
