West Publications dba Thomson West has developed the Digest system of organizing case law by subject and "key" number which allows legal professionals to identify relevant case law by subject words and concepts. The Digest system is proprietary. The Maine Reporter is a subscription preview of the most recent legal decisions in state and federal courts. Cases are issued in soft-bound volumes periodically throughout the year prior to issuance of permanent hard-bound volumes. The Reporter series gives legal staff access to the most up-to-date decisions interpreting Maine law. These tools allow legal staff to identify the most recent and relevant case law and are necessary for legal staff to perform their assigned duties.
