Please respond to ALL of the questions in the following sections.

PART III: SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

1. Provide a more detailed description and explain the need for the goods, services or grant to supplement the response in Part I.

This grant will provide support for professionally-directed programs that serve the state's folk and traditional arts heritage. Cultural Resources will serve as the state's official folk arts partner working on administrating the following Traditional Arts programs:

- Co-administration of Traditional Arts Network
- Organizing an annual immigrant artists' gathering
- Awarding 5 National Endowment for the Arts funded Traditional Arts Apprenticeships.
- Organizing a meeting of participating apprenticeship artists
- Documenting traditional arts apprenticeships

In addition, Cultural Resources will write the Folk Arts section to the National Endowment for the Arts Partnership Grant and prepare all final reports. Cultural Resources will also oversee Traditional Arts applications to the Maine Arts Commission's grant programs including project & organizational applications and fellowship applications.

2. Provide a brief justification for the selected vendor to supplement the response in Part II. Reference the solicitation (RFP/RFA/RFQ) number if applicable.

Cultural Resources has been recognized as the Traditional Arts partnership organization in Maine by the National Endowment for the Arts. Cultural Resources focuses on folklife, traditional arts and new immigrant populations by providing fieldwork and community organizing resulting in the development of a range of public programs that helps sustain traditional cultures. The executive director, Kathleen Mundell has extensive knowledge in the field and is the recipient of the American Folklore Society's Benjamin A. Botkin Prize for lifetime achievement in public folklore. Her collaboration with Wabanaki basket makers resulted in a multi-tribal effort to preserve the ash basketry tradition and in the creation of the Maine Indian Basketmakers Alliance. Cultural Resources must submit a grant application through our online application portal. It will be discussed, evaluated, and approved by the Maine Arts Commission's board.

3. Explain how the negotiated costs or rates are fair and reasonable; or how the funding was allocated to grantee.

Cultural Resources will provide payment to participating traditional artist participants for five apprenticeships $3,000 per apprenticeship totaling $15,000.

Cultural Resources will also write the traditional arts section of the Maine Arts Commission's application to the National Endowment for the Arts and will be paid for the administration of the traditional arts partnership program listed in Part III which is approximately 350 hours spent over 6 months at a rate of $50 and hour totaling $17,500.

4. Describe the plan for future competition for the goods or services.

The Maine Arts Commission will continue to work with Cultural Resources as they are the traditional arts organization designated by the National Endowment for the Arts partnership agreement. This partnership funding is required as part of the Maine Arts Commission's annual grant award which is received from the National Endowment for the Arts.

In addition, Cultural Resources will administer the Traditional Arts Apprenticeship program and provide direct payment to participating artists for five apprenticeships.
