PART III: SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

1. Provide a more detailed description and explain the need for the goods, services or grant to supplement the response in Part I.

This contract will engage a Mi'kmaw'simk (Migma) speaker to teach the native language to Mi'kmaq youth, community members, and elders to support its preservation. According to the UNESCO Atlas of the World's Languages, Mi'kmaw'simk is considered a vulnerable language.

2. Provide a brief justification for the selected vendor to supplement the response in Part II. Reference the solicitation (RFP/RFA/RFQ) number if applicable.

The Provider was identified as the only firm offering cultural education services that teach Mi'kmaq culture, language, and history. The Provider is recognized by the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs as the tribal government for the Mi'kmaq people and is the only provider of these cultural services for Mi'kmaq communities in the State of Maine.

3. Explain how the negotiated costs or rates are fair and reasonable; or how the funding was allocated to grantee.

A total cost of $20,000 is reasonable for an 18-month contract to provide Mi'kmaw cultural education and language instruction. This level of funding supports recurring teaching sessions for youth, community members, and elders; preparation and customization of age-appropriate lessons; development and use of instructional materials; coordination with program partners; and the time and travel required to deliver services consistently over an extended period. The contract also reflects the specialized expertise required to provide authentic instruction in a vulnerable Indigenous language and culture, and it aligns with the limited availability of qualified providers in Maine.

4. Describe the plan for future competition for the goods or services.

The State of Maine will release an RFA for these services if additional Providers are identified.

PART V: CONFLICTS OF INTEREST (COI); CONTRACT WITH THE STATE

Maine law contains Conflict of Interest statutes directed to State Departments, State Officers, and Employees Generally under MRS Title 5, §18 and §18-A, in harmony with MRS Title 17, §3104.

☒ The requesting department's signatory affirms, understands, and acknowledges Maine's Conflict of Interest statutes and, in accordance with those statutes and to the best of their knowledge, has determined that no conflict of interest exists at the time of this contract, renewal, or amendment.
