Unless specifically addressed below, all other provisions and clauses of the RFP remain unchanged.

Provided below are questions asked at the Informational Meeting and the Department's answers.

	RFP Section & Page Number	Question
1	Contract Start Date	The RFP states this opportunity is to fund a hybrid type facility and providing money for start-up costs, but also states services are to start 4/1, which is just in 3 months. Can the Department clarify if the intent is to construct a new facility or is it that services will be extended in a facility we already have? How do you foresee the money being spent?
	Answer
	Bidders may submit proposals that are for the creation of a new facility or for expansion of a current facility, in order to meet the scope of the RFP. Bidders must include in their proposed work plans the anticipated bed availability and start date, along with other development and implementation related tasks. Bidders must submit their anticipated funding costs via the Cost Proposal form, indicating costs needed in order to provide the required services, as described in the RFP.

2	RFP Section & Page Number	Question
	N/A	Are for-profits eligible for funding?
	Answer
	All interested parties may submit a bid under this RFP.

3	RFP Section & Page Number	Question
	Pat 1 Section A, 5, SUD Receiving Center Part II Section C	Can the Department confirm if grant funding covers services provided in the SUD Receiving Center or if not, what MaineCare/complimentary billing code the State anticipates Bidders will use for reimbursement for service provision?
	Answer
	Withdrawal Management program services will be covered through MaineCare billing code H0010 and MaineCare SUD Receiving Center services will be covered under the applicable codes found in the Section 65 Behavioral Health Services Rates/Fee Schedule.

4	RFP Section & Page Number	Question
	N/A	There was a lot of positive press regarding this RFP, the media provided exact dollar amounts for funding that is available for this opportunity, as well as a future project in Washington County. Can the State please name the resources that would be available for this RFP?
	Answer
	The Department has been provided funding for the expansion of SUD services in Kennebec and Washington Counties as announced by Governor Mills in December 2023. Due to the competitiveness of the State's RFP process, the Department declines to provide the resources that will be available under this RFP process.
