The Department relied on data provided by the production companies and Maine Revenue Services. The report's key findings are as follows:

In 2014, fourteen productions qualified for the Maine Attraction Film Incentive Plan. Those fourteen productions had an anticipated direct spend in Maine of $4,633,676.00. Tax rebates for certified production wages paid out to the productions totaled $242,871. Under the plan, no tax credits were issued for qualified production expenses.

The direct spend of these productions was $19.08 for every $1.00 paid out in the program. That per dollar return on investment will increase when payroll and sales taxes paid by the productions are deducted from the cost of the program.
