Public Notices

Public Notices are a permanent record of government and court actions. These include state and local government meetings, rule making, judicial proceedings, zoning changes, and many more, as required by law. In addition, parties to some court proceedings, such as foreclosures, probate and estate actions, are required to publish notices to ensure notification of the general public. These notices also alert business owners, lenders and banks to potential government contractual debt. Failure to ensure economic activity across a broad playing field. Public notices have existed to ensure transparency in all levels of government since the founding of the United States.
