Dear Ms. Eleftheriou,

I am writing to voice opposition to yet another site (the Norridgewock landfill) in our beloved Maine for out-of-state hazardous waste. Humans are the only species that harm Mother Earth; and as a Maine Master Naturalist, I am deeply saddened that the incredibly fragile ecosystems of our wetlands, woods, and waterways are being considered as toxic waste dumps yet again.

Please oppose this landfill for all of the reasons already postulated by the Maine Conservation Voters coalition and The Action Network. We humans can be the only voices heard to protect our enviably pristine Maine environment.

Thank you,
Mary McEvoy
