

To: BEP

From: David B Pooler

Email: dbpool@aol.com

Other contact info:

Question or Comment

Do not vote to pass any rule or law requiring a percentage of electric cars. Cars are not the issue. Climate change is coming from the melting of the permafrost. Pavement gives off more greenhouse gasses than cars in the summer. Look at the studies. The only reason for electric cars is to meet the mpg output inflicted by the federal government that automakers need to meet.