Dear Air Quality Bureau Cayting,

This legislation is ludicrous! We have neither the capacity or ability to ensure charging stations are adequate, much less require people who cannot afford these vehicles any option for transportation. It's time Maine takes a reality check on the EV craze. If these vehicles are truly what they are being touted than consumers will ultimately be the first ones to demand dealers furnish them, but do not further stifle our local economies with more restrictive rules that aren't necessary.

Sincerely,

Joe McDonald
