Dear Air Quality Bureau Cayting,

This is a bad choice for Maine we are already burdened with so much cost to live in this great state and this would just further burden the people and drive Mainers to move out or live harder financially then is necessary. This is a bad choice for Maine and it would be nice if our leaders actually listen too the people instead of telling us what is good for us and forcing it down our throats for a change.

Sincerely,

John Mac
