Dear Air Quality Bureau Cayting,

This is not Economic Sense.

Trucking Outfits already Have Seen Equipment Cost 30 to 40 Percent Higher in The Last Few Years.As well As These Batteries Will Not Have The Range to Accomplish Verse A diesel or Gas Powered Vehicle .The Other Issue is Freezing Temps here . Which also cuts down on Battery Range . And With Having the Highest Rates of Electricity and No Plan on Building a Grid For It . This Makes Total Nonsense.

Sincerely,

Kieran Johnston
