Activity 6

Case Studies

Following are two civil rights discrimination case studies. Each scenario provides a real life situation that may exist in a WIC site. Answer the question below each case study.

1. Case Study — Ms. Diaz

Ms. Diaz has an appointment at 9:15 at the Funtown City Hall site. She arrives at the site 15 minutes prior to her appointment. The site serves a high number of refugees from Africa. Ms. Diaz, who is not an African refugee, attends this site because it is close to her workplace. She notices that she is the only non-African descent participant in the site when she arrives.

It is now 9:45, and Ms. Diaz is still waiting for the nutritionist. She sees participants who came into the office after her, who have had their appointments and are leaving. She lets the receptionist know that she is still waiting and was told that it would probably be only an additional 5 minutes. However, 10 minutes pass and Ms. Diaz is still waiting to be seen. She tells the receptionist that she needs to be at work in 45 minutes. Ms. Diaz asks to speak with the supervisor. Ms. Diaz lets the supervisor know that she's seen other participants come and go within 15 minutes of coming into the site. She tells the supervisor that she feels that the staff sees other participants first because they are of African descent, and she is not. The supervisor tells her that if she wants to file a complaint, she can call the State WIC Program. The supervisor gives Ms. Diaz the State WIC Program's telephone number and explains to her about her right to file a complaint.

Ms. Diaz eventually sees the nutritionist who provides her with an excellent nutrition education session and issues her food benefits to her. Ms. Diaz leaves the Funtown City Hall site frustrated and unhappy due to the delay in waiting time and she calls the State WIC Program to complain.

Which protected class would this discrimination complaint fall under?

- Race
- Reprisal
- National origin

Question for added discussion: What could staff have done differently?

2. Case Study – Ms. Johnson

Ms. Johnson has just learned that she is four months pregnant and wants to sign to receive WIC services. She was previously on the WIC program with her other children who are now teenagers. She calls the Southend WIC office and schedules an appointment.

On the day of her appointment, Ms. Johnson arrives at the clinic site 15 minutes late for her appointment, but has all the required eligibility information with her. When she walks up to the receptionist desk, the receptionist notices that Ms. Johnson is legally blind and unable to read the signs and other information at the desk. The receptionist becomes nervous and does not know how to help Ms. Johnson, so she speaks loudly to inform her that they will need to reschedule her appointment. When Ms. Johnson asks why the appointment needs to be rescheduled, the receptionist loudly states that “It is because we are not equipped to assist people with your condition.” The receptionist informs her that there may be someone to assist her “kind of people” at an appointment time next week.

Which protected class would this discrimination complaint fall under?

- Race
- Disability
- Religion

Question for added discussion: What could staff have done differently?
