Recruiting and retaining hard-to-find clinicians is one of the biggest challenges facing the health care industry. It is vital to use a strategic approach that emphasizes recruiting the right clinicians who will stay for an extended period of time.

This four-hour workshop will go through the 15-step process of the Recruitment for Retention Manual published by the National Rural recruitment and Retention Network. You will not only learn how to strategize and implement best practices but you will also walk away with a plan that includes practical solutions for recruiting and retaining providers into rural and underserved communities.

Please RSVP by September 3rd by using the workshop registration form.

If the form did not accompany this flyer, you may find the registration form and additional details regarding the workshop at the Rural Health and Primary Care Program's website: www.mainepublichealth.gov/ruralhealth
