UsefulTips

- Coupons and "BOGO" offers can be used for your WIC approved items. Be sure to have them handy when your WIC approved items are scanned so they may be applied.
- Some stores offer a quarterly 'cash rewards' option. To ensure that this amount is applied correctly, separate your WIC and regular purchases. This will ensure that the cash rewards are applied to the items that are not WIC foods.

- Select your WIC foods using your household benefit balance and the ME WIC Approved Food List.
- If you have more than 50 individual UPCs in your WIC order you need to separate WIC items from other purchases.
- The cashier scans the WIC food items.
- Always use the eWIC card as your first payment type.
- Swipe your eWIC card when prompted on the PIN pad and then enter your four-digit PIN.
- Review the mid-transaction redemption receipt that the cashier hands to you. Make sure the WIC foods you thought were to be paid for with eWIC are listed on this redemption receipt
