Part C: Supplemental Information

Fill out all information completely. False statements or misrepresentations will result in the revocation of the license and prosecution in Court. Students list boat(s) you will be using to fish your tags.

Tags must be designated to a specific boat. If you will be double tagging - you must submit a request in writing for a special circumstance permit. The boat owner has priority over tag limits for the boat. If you apply for this license before the boat owner has applied for his license -your tags will automatically be unregistered and cannot be used to fish. You will need to follow the Special Circumstances Request below in order to register tags.

Yes No

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

All requests for lobster trap tags that would put any vessel in violation of the lobster trap tag vessel limitation must be made to the department in writing. If you have requested a special circumstance last year, and nothing has changed you do not need to submit another request. If this is a new request, you would need to include, but are not limited to, any double tagging situation. The request must be specific and, in the case of double tagging, include ALL parties involved along with the vessel information. Any such approvals that are granted will be in the form of a special circumstances permit, as required under Title 12, Chapter 25.08(F). Any fishing activity not expressly authorized in the special circumstances permit granted by the Commissioner shall be a violation of the law and subject to prosecution.

Please contact Marine Patrol Headquarters if you have any questions regarding Special Circumstances at: 207-624-6555

Under Title 12, §6306, (1)(2) and (3), a person licensed by the Department of Marine Resources has a duty to submit to inspection, search and seizure by a Marine Patrol Officer. Failure to comply with this duty may result in a license suspension.

§6306. Consent to inspection

- 1. Consent to inspection. Any person who signs an application for a license or aquaculture lease or receives a license or aquaculture lease under this Part has a duty to submit to inspection and search for violations related to the licensed activities by a marine patrol officer under the following conditions.
 - A. Watercraft or vehicles and the equipment located on watercraft or vehicles used primarily in a trade or business requiring a license or aquaculture lease under this Part may be searched or inspected at any time.
 - B. Any other location where activities subject to this Part are conducted may be inspected or searched during the hours when those activities occur.
 - C. A location specified in paragraph B may be inspected at any time if a marine patrol officer has a reasonable suspicion of a violation of this Part.
 - D. No residential dwelling may be searched without a search warrant unless otherwise allowed by law.
- 2. Seizure of evidence. Any person who signs an application for a license or aquaculture lease or receives a license or aquaculture lease under this Part has a duty to permit seizure of evidence of a violation of marine resources laws found during an inspection or search.
- 3. Refusal. Refusal to permit inspection or seizure is a basis for suspension of any or all licenses under this chapter or revocation of aquaculture leases.
