FIELD TECHNICIAN CONTRACTOR
$16.50 hourly
July - October 2023

Tri-State Staffing will be hiring one full-time seasonal position to assist the Maine Department of Marine Resources (DMR) Nearshore Marine Resources Program to help staff with marine resource management through field work, data analysis, and microscope lab work.

JOB DESCRIPTION: Tri-State Staffing is seeking to fill one full time seasonal position assisting the Maine Department of Marine Resources from July to October to assist staff in the Nearshore Marine Resources Program with marine resource management. Start and end dates are flexible for this position. This seasonal staff position will be based out of the Boothbay Harbor laboratory facility, where lab work will be based. Field work includes shellfish surveys in the muddy and rocky intertidal as well as on boats in nearshore waters; and will include travel to sampling locations across the coast of Maine. This work will generally be conducted Monday through Friday and will be tide dependent so field work scheduled during daylight hours will include early mornings to late evenings; flexibility of work hours during the season is required. If available, a vehicle will be provided to complete all field collection. If a state vehicle is unavailable, personal vehicle use will be paid a mileage stipend. There is the potential for occasional remote work on data analysis. Knowledge and experience in field work, data analysis, and microscope work is preferable, with shellfish experience and laboratory QA/QC preferred. This position must feel comfortable working independently under minimal supervision and at odd hours if necessary due to low tide sample collection. Must be detail oriented, organized, and have a positive attitude.

A background check is required before employment. Candidates must have an active non-conditional driver's license recognized as valid in the State of Maine and held such a license for at least one year; have a valid, clear, and safe driving record.
